

LEGION BIDS CITY KEEP ARMISTICE DAY

Organization Asks Mayor to Urge Day Off for All Veterans

WANT FLAGS DISPLAYED

The American Legion in Philadelphia has asked Mayor Moore to call upon all employers to grant leave with pay to world war veterans Armistice day, November 11.

The Legion has also urged the Mayor to ask that flags be displayed, whistles blown and church bells rung at 11 o'clock on Armistice day, thus re-enacting the observance of the historical event.

Sunday, November 14, has been designated by President Wilson as the day on which flags shall be hung at half mast at all military posts and naval stations, on vessels and on buildings of the United States as a "token of the nation's participation in the memorial services for the heroic American soldiers, sailors, marines and others who gave their lives to their country in the world war."

Posts Make Plans
Department Commander David J. Davis, of Pennsylvania, has issued a bulletin to the Pennsylvania posts for a general observance of Armistice day. At least twenty posts in this city will celebrate.

Olney Post, No. 388, is planning a dinner at 1620 North Broad street, Thursday evening, in honor of world war veterans who gave their lives in the service.

George McDowell, commander of Henry L. Schmidt Post, outlined today the plans for its Armistice day celebration, Thursday evening, at Fourth street and Susquehanna avenue, when the post will unveil a picture of Henry L. Schmidt, after whom the post is named. His mother, Mrs. Schmidt, will release the cord.

Parade to Proceed
Prior to the unveiling there will be a parade of several military organizations, including the Salvation Army band, Boy Scout band, G. A. R., Spanish War Veterans, American Legion, the General John J. Koltes Camp, No. 228, Sons of Veterans, Company M, First Pennsylvania Infantry, and the Bennett Pleasure Club.

The parade will form at the post headquarters, Second street and Susquehanna avenue, and will proceed south on Second street to Diamond street, Germantown avenue, Lehigh avenue, Kensington avenue, Front street, Susquehanna avenue to Fourth street and Susquehanna avenue, where the unveiling and Armistice celebrations will take place in a hall. Refreshments will be served. All military organizations and ex-service men in this locality are invited to participate.

The newly formed ladies' auxiliary of this post is out on a membership drive for the auxiliary. All mothers, wives and sisters of ex-service men who wish to join the auxiliary may forward their names to Arthur P. Wornhart, 2803 North Lawrence street.

WOMEN ACCUSED IN ATTACK

Two Are Held With Three Men on Chauffeur's Charge

Two women and three men are in the Chester county jail charged with beating Harry Ward, a taxicab chauffeur, and with stealing his automobile, which they had engaged in this city.

The defendants are Mrs. George A. Bruce, Elizabeth M. Maloy, George A. Bruce, M. H. Bourne and W. R. Beck. Bourne is said to be a music publisher of Akron, O. The others gave addresses in this city.

Ward was engaged three weeks ago at a local hotel by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce and Bourne. He drove them to Coatesville, where the others joined the party. While returning with them to this city, it is said, the chauffeur was beaten and thrown from his seat.

The defendants were arrested at Dublin, Ga., and brought to West Chester. Justice of the Peace Paxson committed them to prison to await trial.

SEEKS TEMPERANCE FUND

Methodist Ministers Asked to Aid Washington Headquarters Project

The Rev. E. J. Edwards, of Washington, D. C., today appealed to Methodist ministers of the city, meeting in Wesley Hall, Seventeenth and Arch streets, for funds to aid in the completion of a building at Washington which will house the headquarters of the Temperance Society of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Edwards said $500,000 had already been raised for the building, and that $500,000 more is needed. He appealed for contributions from this city. The Rev. Dr. Andrew Mutch, of Bryn Mawr, spoke at the ministerial gathering.

SCOUTS' CAMP TO OPEN

Boys Will Start Second Week of Efforts

The Boy Scouts' efforts to increase the "Do Your Good Turn" fund will get under way for the second week at 8:30 o'clock this afternoon, when Mayor Moore will officially open the camp at Fifteenth and Arch streets.

Encouraging reports have been received from many troops. Many big gatherings have been canvassed by the scouts. A troop appeared at Franklin Field Saturday afternoon between the halves of the Penn-Fit football game, and gave an exhibition of semaphore signaling.

U.S. DEAD TO LIE IN ENGLAND

Bodies of 550 American Heroes Will Not Be Brought Home

Washington, Nov. 8.—(By A. P.)—The bodies of about 550 American soldiers who died in England are to remain permanently in that country by request of the families of the men. Secretary Baker announced today that orders had been given to concentrate the bodies in a permanent cemetery near London, which will be under the perpetual care and control of the American government.

All other American dead in Great Britain have been returned to the United States, according to the War Department announcement.

NO CHANGE AT ANNAPOLIS

Daniels Praises Admiral Scates, Who Remains Commandant

Secretary of the Navy Daniels declared unqualifiedly today that the Navy Department has no intention of removing Admiral Scates as commandant of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. He denied that Admiral Wilson is slated to succeed Admiral Scates as reported unofficially, and

Small Fire in Plant

Fire in the rear of the plant of the Sphinx Manufacturing Co., occupying the third floor at 1235 Spring Garden street, at 4 o'clock this morning, caused a trifling loss. The blaze was confined to the room in which it started.

Characterized the stories as an "injustice to an excellent officer."

"Admiral Scates has performed his duties with great ability, honesty and tact, and with entire satisfaction to the department," Secretary Daniels said. "He is a most admirable officer in every way and has made a good record at Annapolis, notwithstanding there are three times as many students there as before the war. Of course, he has had to expel a few, but a much less number than in 1914. Recent developments at Annapolis do not constitute any reflection upon his administration and there is no warrant for the reports that he is to be removed. Such stories are a great injustice to an excellent officer. No change is contemplated at the naval academy. I have never had an idea of removing Admiral Scates."

This chart shows you where your dollar goes when spent for Ferro's Rogers Peet Clothes.

Less than 5 cents on every dollar is our entire profit.

This represents actual figures on twelve months' business ending Sept. 1st, 1920.

With the papers full of "Sale" advertisements, we can readily understand why old friends now burst in on us to ask "When do you expect to reduce prices on clothing?"

Now that you know the inside of our business, you see we've no padded prices to cut.

We have done and are doing the biggest clothing business in our history.

One reason probably is because we base prices on actual cost.

Quality, Workmanship, Wear, are factors that make our clothes worth while.

We invite comparison even while Sales are raging.
