Letters to the Editor

Why Women Work?
Sir—I have noted the comment in your paper of November 4 of Frank T. Burns as to the employment of women for forty years.

Letter to the Editor should be as brief and to the point as possible, avoiding anything that would open a denominational or sectarian discussion.

The working girl of the home twenty years ago was usually uneducated and worked as a matter of course for a necessary living.

In the public schools. To the information given I wish to add that the first salute to any flag made by any school was by the pupils of the Zane Street Grammar School in Philadelphia.

'Twas a Pleasant Privilege
Sir—I wish to express, on behalf of myself and all members of the Republican Women's committee, our deep gratitude for the continued support and co-operation given by your paper to the work of the committee since its beginning.

You have been unfailingly kind and encouraging, and the work has grown to surprising proportions largely as a result of the valuable publicity given to it through your columns.

Fateful Number 13
Sir—In an editorial in Wedn. ady's EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER the relationship of the fateful number 13 in connection with the career of President Wilson was mentioned by you.

Woodrow Wilson consists of thirteen letters; election day was on the second day of the eleventh month; adding the numerals we have 13, the numerals 1-2-1 added together make 13, and this is the year which sees the end of Mr. Wilson's tenure as President.

First School to Salute Flag
Sir—In a recent issue of your paper there was a reference to the saluting of the flag party to apologize, but instead they have availed themselves of the opportunity and have themselves passed judgment, and it is a mighty impressive answer.

An Objectionable Secular Ballot
Sir—After reading your editorial headed "A Protest," in the Evening Public Ledger, I thought I might be of some assistance to you in solving the solution to the problem of how Mrs. Marion, the Prohibition candidate for United States senator, received those 11,819 ballots on Tuesday last.

Defiant in Defeat
Sir—This morning I read an editorial in a leading Democratic newspaper of the country which was headed "The Democratic Party." It contains a paragraph which is a paragraph, showing how defiant is this paper in its defeat.

Questions Answered
"Pidgin English"
Sir—Will you please explain to me what is meant by "pidgin English"? F. L. B. Philadelphia, November 4, 1920.

A Question of Citizenship
Sir—Please print in your People's Forum whether a child born on foreign soil of American parentage can become President of the United States if a child born in midocean under a foreign flag loses all rights as an American citizen.

Locates a Song
Sir—Replying to request of "H. E. J." in the EVENING LEDGER of November 3, I do not put an asterisk as you mean; I mean a song, kindly inform him that it was published under the title, "Hey, Rubel" about

Where Poem is Found
Sir—The poem "Lorraine, Lorraine, Lorraine," recently requested by one of our readers, was written by Charles Kingsley. It is in one of his works, and the lines quoted: "Unless you ride vindictive," etc., are in that poem. I have it in a volume of poems entitled "Open Sesame," now inaccessible to me. It should be found in any public library. B. L. AIMES Philadelphia, November 4, 1920.

See What Happens When you brush teeth in this way. This offers you a ten-day test of a new teeth-cleaning method. Millions now employ it. Leading dentists everywhere advise it.

See What Happens When you brush teeth in this way. Fight it twice a day. The Five Effects. Each use of Pepsodent brings five desired effects: 1—A multiplied salivary flow. 2—Multiplied starch digestant in the saliva to digest starch deposits that cling. 3—Multiplied alkalinity in the saliva, to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay. 4—Attacks on film in two effective ways. 5—High polish, so film cannot easily adhere.

FREE A 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent is sent to anyone who asks. Mail the coupon. Watch the effects. See the changes they bring in a week. It will change your ideas about teeth cleaning. Highest authorities agree on the need for them. Thus film is combated twice a day in most effective ways. And Nature's acid-fighting forces are given multiplied effect.
