Physicians Believe Beating and Shooting Didn't Kill Bank Messenger at Once

WILL ASK INDICTMENTS

David S. Paul, murdered Camden A messenger, may have been alive en thrown into the little stream own as Bread and Cheese run, where is crossed by Goose Pond road, in pines a short distance from the m of Tabernacle, N. J.

That is the opinion of physicians at Hed into consultation last night by

The man, they believe, may have lived for some time, his head out of the shallow stream, and his feet bound to beam under the bridge. They believe be was unconscious and the flame of life burning very low, yet burning.

Prosecutor Wolverton sought the advice of the physicians because it was difficult to explain how the body could have been in so good a state of preserhave been in so good a state of preservation. When found a cursory examination indicated life had been extinct only a day or two, whereas it had been and his body thrown into the

Water a Preservative

The mystery was explained partly because of the fact that the stream is what the natives call "cedar water." and has strong preservative qualities. The doctors told Prosecutor Wolverton. or the almost perfect preservation of he body for so long a time. They were ined to believe, rather, that the man had been unconscious and to all ap-pearances dead when thrown into the water, and had remained unconscious or semiconscious until death ensued sevral days later

Even had he been conscious, the place where his body was placed is so remote and the tangle of underbrush about the spot so dense that he could not have poot so dense that he could have been bade his feeble outcries heard.

Prosecutor Wolverton announced this Prosecutor Wolverton announced this morning that he would ask the Sectem-er grand jury, which is still sitting to adject Frank F. James and Raymond V. Schuck for the murder next Tues-lay. Meanwhile he will confer with rosecutor Kelsey, of Burlington rosecutor Kelsey, of Burlington unity, in preparing the case. The bloody clothes worn by James at the time the crime was committed have been recovered from the Cooper creek, in Camden.

The location of the garments was in dicated by Schuck, who today repeated ediated and that James forced him The recovery of the blood-stained parments from the place in the creek. where they were anchored by a brick, about fifty yards south of Kaighn avenue bridge, clinches a first-degree murder conviction on Lemon conviction on James, authorities

Prosecutor Wolverton, of Camden county, said that every investigation made of Schuck's confession tends to bear out his contention that James murdered Paul and made him aid in the disposal of the body at the point of a revolver.

The city lines to the P. R. T.

C. Oscar Beasley, counsel for the United Business Men asked to intervene some time ago in the case with the city in order that it might inspect the data in the hands of the P. R. T. and on which the valuation of the company is to be based.

mobile in the shadow of the Market fore the commission. Incidentally, one of the spring wielded by James. He was dragged into the rear of the machine and later beaten and shot to death.

WORK ON S-5 The body was hidden in a creek near Tabernacle. N. J., for almost two weeks, and then buried in a shallow grave nearby, where it was discovered by hunters a few days later.

Prominent Business Man Dies at His Wynnefield Home

William F. Dougherty, for fifty-five years in the business of manufacturing hotel and kitchen equipment, died at his home in Wynnefield yesterday, after a six months' illness.

Mr. Dougherty was head of the firm of William F. Dougherty & Sons, Inc., long located at 925 Arch street, and was widely known in business circles.

John Wanamaker was elected as an honorary member of the board of executives of the Philadelphia Sunday School lery, recited, and vocal selections were given by Ernest Ball, L. Hirsch and Miss E. Goldsmith. Association, at a rally closing the annual convention, held last night in the Holy Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Nineteenth and Walnut streets.

Bishop George H. Bickley, Dr. Floyd W. Tomkins and Dr. C. R. Blackall

e also chosen honorary members of the executive board.

It was decided to make an appeal to the Board of Education to have pupils released from school to attend classes in religious education.

Body Found in River The body of an unidentified man was recovered from the Delaware river, Pine street wharf, this morning, was taken to the morgue.

RAYMOND W. SCHUCK One of the men under arrest for the murder of "Dave" Paul, Camden bank runner, as he looks in jail. He wanted to get a shave before this picture was taken at the Mt.

IU APPEAL TRANSIT RULING

Right to Intervene in Valution Proceedings

MAY DELAY COMMISSION

Plans for an appeal to the Superior e Commission which refused the United Business Men permission to intervene in the valuation proceedings of the P. R. T. will be considered at a meeting business men's organization to

The commission announced its refusal consider the intervening petition of officials of the business men's organization contend that their right to recognition isc borne out by the public serv ice act itself Representatives of the organization also call attention to the fact that it was largely on information furnished by the association that the commission some time ago decided against leasing the city lines to the I'. R. T.

Incidentally, one of these valuation hearings is scheduled to take place on Friday morning in this city.

WORK ON S-5 HINDERED

reasen for the request is given as heavy weather.

The authorities at the navy yard say that the heavy weather now being experienced off the Delaware Capes makes the salvaging work practically impossible for the time being. They say that operations will have to be suspended for the winter and that the submarine will probably be saved in the spring.

was widely known in business circles, He was also one of the oldest and most prominent members of the Order of Elks, Philadelphia Lodge No. 2.

Mr. Dongherty will be buried Friday morning at 8 o'clock from his residence. 5206 Overbrook avenue. There will be a solemn high mass of requiem at St. Matthias' Catholic Church, Bala, and interment will be made in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

The dead manufacturer is survived by a widow, Mrs. Mary A. Dougherty, and seven children, Mrs. Edward Lynch, Mrs. Thomas Keenan and Charles J., William D., Jr., Joseph S., John R. and Edward B. Dougherty.

WANAMAKER HONORED

Is Made Member of Executive Board of Sunday School Association

John Wanamaker was elected as an honorary member of the board of executives of the Philadelphia Sunday School

Association, at a rally closing the an survived by the Rev. Joseph L. William Freedman, 108th Field Artillery, recited, and vocal selections were given by Ernest Ball, L. Hirsch and

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES
Oscar Green, 1324 May st., and Alice G.
Green, 1831 May st.
Morris Skoisky, 1720 S. 8th st., and Ida L.
Scott, 1815 N. 11th st.
Laurence V. Grees, 421 W. Oxford st., and Fanny O Donnell, 5948 De Lancey et.
Beaglo Luisi, 2301 Greenwich st., and Campanara Intonata, 5626 Richmond st.
Joseph Paimer, 341 N. 16th st., and Julia
Hmith 341 N. 16th st.
Adalphus Kerkland, 1706 Lombard st., and
Mattie Reeves, 1716 Lombard st., and
Mattie Reeves, 1714 Lombard st., and
Mattie Reeves, 1714 Lombard st., and
Mattie Reeves, 1716 Lombard st., and
Mattie Reeves, 1716 Lombard st., and
Mattie Reeves, 1716 Lombard st., and Mary L. Nelli, 5812 Angora terrace, and
B. L. Engelkrout, 5317 Baltimore ave, Dominico Angelini, 4714 Girard ave, and Francesca Taddel, 1302 N. 51st st.
William E. Leonard, Chambersburg, Pa., and Marie K. Rule, 4116 Pennsarove st.
Joseph Krupczynski, 118 N. Elber st., and Mary Simonewicz, 126 Poplar st.
William J. Hall, Wilmington, Del.
William F. Kruman, 2801 N. 8th st., and Catharine M. Brown, 2248 N. 5th st.

"CRAP-SHOOTERS" HELD AS ROBBERS

Camden Visitor Declares Sight of $540 Proved Too Much for "Friends"

ARE CAUGHT AFTER CHASE

Five crap players, arrested early to day after the wagon in which they were fleeing overturned, were held without bail for a further hearing by Magistrate Harrigan at the Third and De GRIEVING WIDOW SUICIDE Lancey streets police station, charged with having attacked a sixth player and taken $540 from him.

The men under arrest are Harry Green, twenty-two years old, Norfolk street near Front: Leo Crissell, twenty years old, Washington avenue near Second street; Walter Selg, thirty-six years old, Hope street near Girard avenuc, and Thomas Egan, twenty-seven years old, and Thomas McGoldrick, twenty-eight years old, of near Nineteenth and Callowhill streets.

Three other men, said to have been participants in the game, were held under $500 bail to appear at witnesses. They gave their names as Harry Lane. William Reid and George Celemens, all

The complainant was Joseph Light-ot, also of Camden. He said they were playing crap at Pemberton and Swan-son streets, at 1 o'clock this morning, when the five men under arrest attacked him and took the $5-40 from him. Lightfoot ran to a telephone and got the Third and De Lancey streets staon on the wire. Lieutenant Noon and a detail of patrolmen responded. When the alleged crap players saw the police, it is said, they jumped into a wagon and tried to drive away. The wagon United Business Men Claim upset when it had gone a hundred yards and all the men were captured. The will have their further hearing Satur

COLBY'S TRIP SOUTH

Will Include Visits to Rio Janeiro, Montevideo and Buenos Aires

Washington, Nov. 10.—(By A. P.)— Secretary Colby announced definitely today that on his forthcoming trip to South America he would visit Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo and Buenos Aires. The stops at the Brazilian and Urupose of returning the recent visits to the United States of the presidents of those countries. The visit to the Argentinian capital will be informal.

Mr. Colby was unable to say today when he would leave the United States or give any information as to the personnel of his party beyond the state-ment that it probably would not consist of more than a dozen persons.

CONGRESSMAN LOCKED UP

morning to answer charges of operating

Mount Holly that he would "get"

Schuck for baring his guilt.

"It will not be necessary to exhume the body of Paul to make a further investigation to tell whether the murder was committed in Camden or Burlington counties, detectives said, as they have uncovered additional evidence showing the crime was committed in Camden.

The men will be tried within a few weeks. The grand jury will meet next weeks. The grand jury will meet next week and return true bills, after which the trial will be held shortly.

Paul was attacked in James' automabile in the shadow of the Market

Penrose Not Seriously III

Senator Penrose is suffering extreme pain from gout in his right foot, was the reply made by his private nurse this norning to questions as to his being "in semicomatose condition," as reported by hunters a few days later.

Paul's revolver is said to have been found in Philadelphia at a place visited by the murderers.

WILLIAM F. DOUGHERTY

Prominent Business Mark of the recovery of the recovery for t

11 Taken in Raid for Gamblers Eleven arrests were made when Dis-trict Detectives Forgey, McCormick and McCarthy, of the Tenth and But-tonwood streets station, raided an al-leged gambling house at 811 Wood street last night. Isador Schneiderman, al-leged proprietor, and ten men, declared to have visited the Schneiderman house and SERVICE FOR WAR MOTHERS to gamble, were arrested. They will have a hearing at City Hall today.

his responsibilities.

PHILADELPHIA

329 South Broad St.

there is full co-operation.

University Activities

Scheduled at Penn Today

10:30 a. m.—Meeting of the Ger-antown Friends' School Club, Houston Hall. 10:30 a. m .- Junior class phoographed in quadrangle of dormi-

1:00 p. m.-Senior class photographed in quadrangle of dormitory.

1:30 p. m.—Combined meeting of the freshmen and sophomore classes, Houston Hall.

5:30 p. m.—Meeting of Under-graduates' Mask and Wig Club, Dormitory Clubhouse. 7:00 p. m.—Meeting of Mercers burg Club, Houston Hall.

7:15 p. m.-Meeting of Kiski

Club, Houston Hall.

UPON FOURTH ATTEMPT Mrs. Julia Vey, Victim of Melan cholia, Ends Life by Gas

Mrs. Julia Vey, forty-one years old. 4104 North Reese street, made three attempts to end her life with gas within the last thirteen months. All failed. She tried again this morning and suc-Melancholia, caused by grief over the death of her husband in August, 1919, is believed to have caused Mrs. Vey's Vey constantly.

The two women slept in the same room, and this morning Mrs. Vey quietly went to a shed without disturbing her sister, closed the door, and opened four jets of a gas stove.

LOSES DESPITE DEFENSE

"Dope" Peddler With Judge as Counsel Gets Six Months, Anyway Harry "Hump" Pryor, a negro, of Chester, who was convicted of peddling "dope" in spite of the fact that a fed-eral judge and an assistant United States district attorney helped him with his defense, was today sentenced to six months in the Mercer county jail, Tren-ton, by District Judge Dickinson.

"Hump" appeared in court last month without counsel when his trial was called. "And in spite of the fact, or because of the fact, that he had a judge, an assistant district attorney and the jury as his counsel, 'Humpy' and the jury as his counsel, 'Humpy' was convicted,' remarked Judge Dickinson, who was the senior counsel for the defense today.

'Hump's' defense of an emphatic denial of the charges was fully presented to the jury by the judge, and Assistant District Attorney Kromp, but the only thing Pryor had to say this morning was 'if you're going to put anything on me "if you're going to put anything on me, start it from the time I've been in jail." Judge Dickinson granted this request and dated the six months' sentence from July 17, when "Hump" went to jail in default of bail, and has renained there since

CONSIDER STATE CHARTER | Hospital say that he may die. Commission Takes Steps to Make

Report to Legislature Harrisburg, Nov. 10.—Steps for bile driven by Patrick O'Connell, of preparation of recommendations to Leg-5409 Harlan street, struck and hurled islature in regard to constitutional re-bill to the sidewalk. After taking the vision or a constitutional convention lujured man to the hospital, O'Connell to the profile of the Sixty. on which the valuation of the company is to be based.

Schuck, it is believed, because he confessed first and apparently has to be based.

Mr. Beasley pointed out that this is of the true story of the killing, even altituding in recovering about $35,000 of the $40,000 in cash stolen, may escape with a life sentence.

James has confessed also, but he told authorities that he and Schuck planned the crime and that Schuck planned the crime and that Rehuck for baring his to be based.

ASK U. S. TO NAME MAN

Allies Suggest American for Silesian Schuck for baring his guilt.

Allies Suggest American for Silesian Schuck for baring his guilt.

Mr. Beasley pointed out that this is one planned to be based. Mr. Eaking the injured man to the hospital, O'Connell surrendered to the police of the hospital convention of this city. In the congressman's machine, the constitutional Revision Oranneits convention of the constitutional Revision Oranneits of the police of the sixty seventh street, was resolution being the commission today soon after it program and that, in turn, is the basis of our entire flamned. The countries station. The police of the hospital of the countries of this city. In turn, is the desking the constitutional Revision Oranneits of the constitutional Revision Oranneits of the con from county auditors showed that the prohibitors law submitted to a direct vote of the people to strengthen prohi-bition enforcement in this state was defeated by a majority of more than 10,000 at the election last Tuesday. The statement declared that South Dakota, as an original temperance state, was the first to repudiate the bone dry prohibition idea and search and seizure in private homes.

Wills Probated; Inventories Filed Wills Probated; Inventories Filed Wills probated today include the following: Edgar W. Earle, 1217 Spruce street, disposing of an estate valued at $56,000; Louis M. Agnew, 4002 Pine street, $58,000; William H. Amer, of Chicago, $30,000, and Patrick J. Fitzgerald, 1544 Cayuga street, $11,200.
Inventories have been filed in these estates: George O. E. Sahlin $7440;
John F. Price, $7196.46; Mary E.
Christy, $21,176.99; Mary W. Hill,
$41,818.57; William A. Quick, $20,386.75; Elizabeth Anderson, $5767.64, and Sarah Anderson, $5477.07.

Bryan to Speak Here Tomorrow William Jennings Bryan will be in biladelphia tomorrow. In the eve-Philadelphia tomorrow. ning he will deliver a lecture at the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Forty-seventh street and Kingsessing avenue.

NEW YORK

OFFICE

1328 Broadway

BALLINGER & PERROT

Architects-Engineers-Constructors

What is the engineer's duty?

ing or a process and develops highest utility values. Routing, improved machinery, power, lighting, labor-saving arrangements are among

What is the architect's duty? Primarily, to design an appropriate build-ing to house the process. He adds to the effectiveness of the engineer's work when We are architects and engineers relations with clients. Teamwork rules in supervising construction under joint plans.

BALLINGER & PERROT

There is no division of responsibility in our

He studies the practical features of a build-

150 PER CENT RISE

Owner Complains Assessment on Houses Raised From $2000 to $5000

MORE PROTESTS ARE HEARD

Hundreds of complainants appeared before the assessors of the Board of Revision of Taxes in City Hall today from the Fifteenth, Twenty-ninth, Thirty-second and Forty-seventh wards to register sizes and the contract of the to register vigorous protests against the increase in the assesment of their hold-

Today's complainants are from the section bounded by the Schuylkill river, Vine street, Broad street and Susquebanna avenue. The assessors who are hearing the complaints are John Boileau, Augustus Murphy, John Scan-lin. Howard Eccles, Peter Hallahan and John Voorhees.

Two instances wherein assessed values were increased 150 per cent were protested against by Samuel Schmeyer, of 327 North Twenty second street. He complained there was no justification for increasing the value of his houses at Miss Anna Kurzeknabe, a sister, lived 2201 Wood street and 327 North Twee with Mrs. Vey, and found the body.
The sister told how the three prior attempts had failed because she watched was boosted in valuation from $1500 to $2000. ty-second street from $2000 to $5000. A house he owns at 2203 Wood street $2000

John B. Stauffer made a complaint against raising the valuation of his home at 1833 North Eighteenth street from $5000 to $6000.

When George Robinson, Jr., complained to the assessors against an in-crease in the assessed value of his prop-erty at 1814 Columbia avenue from $7200 to $8500, the assessors told him hey would make a further increase in the property's valuation next year.

Mrs. Mary J. Buchanan entered a protest against increasing the value of board, with the request that her houses at 3688, 3690, 3698 and 3700 verified or corrected. They we Calumet street from $1200 to $1800 to be returned to us and, follow cach. She said she had tried to sell the each. She said she had tried to sell the houses at $1600, but had failed to receive offers of more than $1400.

Alexander Mordell protested against an increase from $18,000 to $27,000 in the value of his property at Fifteenth and Vine streets, which was damaged by fire last fall.

Joseph Gordon, owner of a cigar stor at Ridge avenue and Ogden street, de-clared the assessors had acted unfairly in boosting the valuation from $6000 to

3 INJURED BY MOTORCARS: ONE DRIVER SPEEDS AWAY

wo Hit In West Philadelphia-On on Pine Street

Three men were injured in automo bile accidents last night. The condition of one is so serious that physicians at the West Philadelphia Homeopathic 1913 can be used as a basis for another survey and will thus cut down the

The victim is David Sugar, sixty-four years old, of Fifty-seventh and Thompson streets. He was crossing the street in front of his home when an automo-bile driven by Patrick O'Counell, of Commission is charged to report to the Legislature early in the new year.

S. DAKOTA NOT BONE DRY

Law to Strengthen Prohibition Enforcement Beaten by 10,000

Huron, S. D., Nov. 10.—(By A. P.)

—The South Dakota direct legislation organization in a statement issued today declared that returns received by it from county auditors showed that the force county auditors showed that the force county auditors showed that the left leg and a sprained to confer with incensed groups of property owners in other neighbor-hoods to arrange details of the mass meeting: John Milligan, chairman; Windon Bryant, Charles McKenny and Samuel Morman. These men spoke at successful to the property owners decided to property owners in other neighbor-hoods to arrange details of the mass meeting: John Milligan, chairman; Windon Bryant, Charles McKenny and Samuel Morman. These men spoke at owners decided to property owners decided to property owners in other neighbor-hoods to arrange details of the mass meeting: John Milligan, chairman; Outher neighbor-hoods to arrange details of the mass meeting: John Milligan, Charles McKenny and Samuel Morman. These men spoke at foundation in a statement issued to-day declared that returns received by it from county auditors showed that the left leg and a sprained specific to confer with incensed groups of property owners in other neighbor-hoods to arrange details of the mass. Windon Bryant, Charles McKenny and Samuel Morman. These men spoke at the meeting.

One hundred and eighty property owners in other neighbor-hoods to arrange details of the mass. Windon Bryant, Charles McKenny and Samuel Morman. These men spoke at the meeting: John Milligan, chairman; Windon Bryant, Charles McKenny and Samuel Morman. These men spoke at the meeting: John Milligan, chairman; Samuel Morman. These men spoke at the meeting: John Milligan, chairman; John Milligan, chairman;

Train Kills Two in Auto

Infants' Rattles Athletic Apparatus in Coldwater

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 10.-Infants' rattles are henceforth to be classed as athletic apparatus by the Michigan state boxing boxing com-Tom Biggers, the commission's chairman, so decided when application for a "bale of baby rattles" was made by Superintendent Montgomery, of the state school for orphans and abandoned children, Coldwater.

Among the commission's duties is the distribution among schools of athletic goods purchased with a fund drawn from boxing bouts in the

The Coldwater requisition was the first to include athletic equipment for such young athletes, but Biggers was quick to decide that rattles could be so classed. The state's wards at Coldwater range in age from several months to sixteen Years.

Realty Board to Aid in Tax Equalization take this action and ask the bureau to take up the probe discussed some time

Mr. Gruenberg, director of the bu reau, expressed himself as more willing to make the survey suggested.

'Our present assessment system is a disgrace,' he declared. 'It is the old-time rule of thumb method, enment of men who may not even have had enough experience to entitle their had enough experience to e judgments to consideration.

Studied in 1913

"In 1913 our bureau, then under the direction of Dr. Jesse D. Burks made a study of the assessment sys-tem. When it had been completed the tem. When it had been completed finding of facts were sent to the board, with the request that they be verified or corrected. They were then usual custom, we were to add our own constructive criticisms based upon the facts.

"But the tax board took our repor and had it printed at their own expense and sent it out broadcast as vindication and clean bill of health fo heir personnel and their system. A a matter of fact, it was intended as no such thing. We were prepared to follow up with a great deal of criticism. Unfortunately, just at that time Dr. Burks gave up his connection with us to go to California and when I took charge here, I found too much work to

of the survey. Crowded With Work "At the present time, we are crowded with work, but, if I am asked to make another investigation with constructive criticism. I can arrange matters so that we can begin it in thirty days.

considerably. We have here complete studies of the tax and assessment systems in other cities and they show Philadelphia to be hopelessly antiquated. I doubt if there is any branch of civic life that so badly needs reformation as this one. for it is the basis of our entire financial program and that, in turn, is the basis for every comfort and convenience of home and social life which a citizen can

Board of Revision of Taxes, Room 180, City Hall. One speaker presented the case of alleged unfair assessments in the vicin-

Allentown, Pa., Nov. 10.—(By A. P.)—Charles Appel, aged forty, and William Sofranscy, aged thirty-five, potato dealers of this city, were instantly killed shortly after 8 o'clock this morning when their automobile was struck by Lehigh Valley passenger train No. 20 on a grade crossing at Treichler's Station. Sofranscy was to have been married next mouth. Appel leaves a widow and six children.

One speaker presented the case of alleged unfair assessments in the vicin.

The meighbor owned a house for $6500. His neighbor owned a house there ingred extent heat and other improvements, and sold the house for $13,500. Therefore, assessments on all other houses in this block, whether improved or not, were made on the basis of this $13,500 sale.

Order Your Xmas

Victrola Today

We Have Every Style

in Stock Now

HERE is a satisfaction in being able to choose the particular type Victrola you want in the finish that suits your furnishings—therefore don't be a last minute buyer which brings only disappointments.

Immediate or Xmas Delivery and 12 Months to Pay-makes it an easy matter to have a Victrola in your home this Christmas.

JOIN OUR VICTOR

RECORD CLUB

and have all the selec-tions you want without having to make any large cash outlay.

B. B. TODD

1623 Chestnut

1306 Arch

PIANOS & PLAYERS

ITALY'S DEMANDS REACH JUGO-SLAVS

Fiume to Be Independent and Free From League Control. Ask Other Concessions

REPLY RESERVED FOR TIME

By the Associated Press

Rapallo, Italy, Nov. 10 .- In what ay be considered an ultimatum sent to the Jugo-Slav delegation here regarding the pending negotiations between Italy and Jugo-Slavia over the Adriatic question Count Sforza, the Italian foreign minister, as head of the Italian delegation, Isid down Italy's definite minimum claims. These, the document stated, were:

First. The Istrian frontier, including the Julian Alps, Nevaso mountain and the railway from Fiume to St. Peter Junction.

Second. Territorial contiguity between Fiume and Italy.

Third Firms to be a state entirely.

Third. Fiume to be a state entirely independent, without any control by the League of Nations.

Fourth. Annexation of the islands of Lussin-Piccolo and Cherso to Italy.

Fifth. The annexation of Zara to

Italy.
Sixth. The annexation of several of the Jugo-Slav islands to Italy for Seventh. Guarantees for the pro-tection of the Italian minorities in Dalmatia remaining under Serbian Eighth. Demilitarization of some Eighth. Demilitarization of some of the Dalmatian positions which will be allotted to Serbia.

It is stated the Italian minimum terms were presented on the request of the Jugo-Slav delegation. The Jugo-Slavs were said to consider the Italian terms excessive, but they reserved their reply until the claims had been further

"CRANK" ENGAGES COUNSEL

Former Montgomery County District Attorney to Direct Defense J. Aubrey Anderson, former district attorney of Montgomery county, has been retained as counsel for Augusto Pasquale, the "Crank." who wi'l come up for trial either this week or the next before the Montgomery County Criminal Court, now in session at Norristown. ing, Mr. Anderson said, "It is a little as it is only three minutes ago that I was notified. I intend to go to my office in Norristown today as usual."

Youth Nearly Loses His Hand George Bater, seventeen years old, of 1518 Duane street, was severely hurt last night when a plateglass window nearly amputated his right hand. He was fitting it into the front of the store of H. B. Hoffman, Ridge avenue and Wylie street, when it slipped. He was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital.

Winter construction may be as safe and as satisfactory as construction during any as construction during an other season. The chief requisite is builder who knows his but iness, and whose reputation for careful excellence is workmanship is based or year-around performance ABERTHAW has equipmen as well as experience and the season of t as well as experience an

BUILDING BREVITIES

GIRL ENDS LIFE IN HOTEL AS EX-FIANCE LOOKED ON

CONSTRUCTION COMPANY

PHILADELPHIA WEST END TRUST

Plunges Dagger Into Heart-"Death Card" Found Face Up on Table Chicago, Nov. 10.—Plunging a Mexi-can dagger into her heart while talking to her former flance. Miss T. Saunders. to her former fiance. Miss T. Saunders, twenty-five years old, of Laredo, Tex., ended her life on the mezzanine floor of a downtown hotel here. H. H. Garver, of this city, declared that an engagement between the two had recently been broken off, but declined to tell why. The young woman left no explanation of her act. Hotel officials said the young woman registered November 1 and appeared well-to-do.

Garver, who is converted with the Garver, who is connected with the Association of Commerce, is said to have met Miss Saunders while on a have met Miss Saunders while on a Texas trip with association members. He said the young woman gave no warning of her intention, but suddenly drew a long, sllm dagger from her sleeve and plunged it into her left side. She died as she was being removed to her room. side. She died as she was moved to her room. In Miss Saunders' room found a deck of cards spread out on the table, where Miss Saunders apparently table, where Miss Saunders apparently had been telling her fortune. In the center, face-up, was the ace of spades, known as the "death card" among fortune-tellers. A knife slit in the center of it corresponded in size to the dagger with which Miss Saunders killed herself. DONOGHUE.—November 9. JEREMIAH 1. husband of Rose G. Donoghue (nee Ma-uire). Relatives and friends invited to the uneral on Friday at 8:30 a. m. from the bliver H. Bair Bldg., 1820 Chestnut st. High nass at St. Patrick's Church at 10 a. m. nterment private at New Cathedral Cem-tery.

terment private and the canedral cemeters.

THOMAS.—November 10. GEORGE BRINTON. At West Chester. Due notice of funeral will be given.

Wilson.—budgen, a Rutledge. På. on Nev. 10. PLINNIE PRANCKS, wife of Alexander C. Wilson, aged 68. Relatives and friends invited to services. Sat. afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at her late residence, 421 N. 41st st., Phila. Int., private.

J. E. CALDWELL & CO.

JEWELERS-SILVERSMITHS-STATIONERS

WEDDING STATIONERY

Certainty that the orrect in form, phraseology and engraving the gratifying assurance of patrons of this

HAND-WROUGHT PLATES

Hexinglon The Thorobred

A Real Sport Car For Immediate Delivery

Lithe, masterful, ready-looking; exquisite in coloring, the Thorobred teems with style.

smart Thorobred this fall call of telephone for a demonstration now, before our limited supply of Lexi - gasifier and the these captivating cars is exhausted-

LEXINGTON MOTOR CO. OF PENNA.

We have a few Lexington Thorbreds for immediate delivery. contribute greatly to its superior performance and economy.

Moore Multiple Exhaust System

To own this better-built, ultra-Its road action fully merits its

W. A. Kuser, President Lexington Building, 851-853 North Broad Street