PRICE MOVEMENT VERY FEVERISH

Substantial Recovery Near Close Suggested Market Reaching Oversold Condition

New York, Nov. 10.—Price movements in today's stock market were extremely feverish. During the early trading the general list had a...
Technical conditions were distinctly favorable to the constructive side and the extensive trading during the morning indicated an excess of demand over supply.

Publication of October tonnage figures of the United States Steel Corporation disclosing a decrease of 537,352 tons in unfilled orders and suspension of the extra dividend on American Sugar, caused a sharp setback at midday. Stocks, sugar, motors and shippings led the reaction, declining 1/4 to 4 points, with more moderate losses elsewhere.

DROOPING PRICES IN LOCAL MARKET

Belated Selling Orders Turned Up in Most of Prominent Stocks

The local market failed to respond to the abrupt turn in the big market, which was probably due to the fact of continued belated selling observed yesterday. This selling did not reach very large proportions, but there was sufficient pressure to cause further price shading pretty well along the whole line.

INDUSTRIAL LIST WAS VULNERABLE

Early Gains Quickly Canceled When Bears Renewed Aggressive Drives

New York, Nov. 10.—The Evening Sun in its closing financial review today says: In the first two hours of today's session of the stock market there was a fair rebound from the low levels established yesterday...
The equipment, like the other steel industrial, lost all and more of their early gains. In other industrial quarters the spread between the high and low of the day was as much as 3 to 6 points, while net reactions were 1 to 3 points or thereabouts.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

New York, Nov. 10.—Formal opening rates for foreign exchange this morning showed sterling up 1/16 from yesterday's final figure, at 3.29 for demand and 3.28 1/2 for cables...
