MAKES HANDCUFFED TRIP
Bicyclist Travels 6000 Miles Chained to Wheel
Tony Tizzo, a bicyclist, who started from New York April 24 on a cross-country tour handcuffed to his bicycle, arrived in Philadelphia this morning on the return trip from Los Angeles, Cal. The original wager was that Tizzo should remain with his bike—handcuffed to it. That meant, in the more than 6000-mile trip that Tizzo ate and slept with the bicycle.
Tizzo says he has complied with the requirements in every way, will remain in Philadelphia for the armistice day program, and will then leave on the final lap of his journey to New York.

3 PHILADELPHIANS KILLED, 2 INJURED

Motorcar Struck by Train Crossing Track Across Canadian Line From Plattsburg

ONE WIDOW COLLAPSES

Three Philadelphians were killed instantly and two others were seriously injured yesterday when their automobile was struck by an express train at Laocle, Onondaga, just over the boundary from Plattsburg, N. Y.
All five were wallpaper dealers visiting paper mills in which they were financially interested.
The dead were:
Samuel Schultz, thirty-one years old, of 504 Fitzwater street.
Louis Slawetsky, thirty-eight years old, of 1228 Wingolensky street.
John F. Vanderpoll, forty-five years old, of 2110 Tioga street.
The injured are:
A. J. Brodt, 1909 Moyamensing avenue.
James R. Clyman, of 212 West Girard avenue.

Left Here Sunday
The five men left this city Sunday morning in Slawetsky's car. They visited several paper mills at Glens Falls, N. Y., and after a conference with Charles E. Rittenberg, of the Underwood Pulp and Paper Mills, at Plattsburg, yesterday, they left for a pleasure trip to Montreal.
Apparently the men did not see the onrushing train as they drove over a grade crossing. Their automobile was directly on the track when it was struck.
None of the men had time to jump. Their automobile was demolished and the occupants were hurled to one side or dragged on the pilot of the locomotive.
When the train had been halted and the crew and passengers hurried back to the aid of the men, they found Schultz, Slawetsky and Vanderpoll dead.
A physician from Laocle gave first aid to the injured men, who were placed on a train and taken to the Champlain Valley Hospital. The chief resident physician at the hospital said over the long-distance telephone today that Mr.

Brodt had a chance to recover, but Mr. Clyman's condition was very critical. The front trucks of the locomotive were dented by the collision.
Mrs. Vanderpoll, one of the first relatives to learn of the accident, collapsed last night at her home, 2110 Tioga street. The Vanderpolls have no children. The widow is under the care of Dr. C. A. Moriarty. Her husband had offices in the Pennsylvania Building.
Mr. Schultz was a member of Schultz & Miller, Fifth and Monroe streets. He leaves a widow and two small daughters.
Mr. Slawetsky is survived by a widow and three little children.
Mrs. Slawetsky did not learn of the death of her husband until this morning. She collapsed when she received the news, and neighbors cared for her until a physician could be summoned.
James R. Clyman conducted a wallpaper establishment at 212 West Girard avenue. His wife went to Baltimore Sunday to visit relatives. Mr. Clyman's mother is said to be in the Laocle Hospital, suffering from plural pneumonia. A brother, Dr. J. H. Clyman, lives at 1863 Germantown avenue.
If A. Brodt is a salesman and a brother-in-law of Slawetsky. He is married and has three children.
Arrangements for bringing the bodies here from Montreal have not yet been made, according to Mrs. Vanderpoll.

3 PHILA. SHIPS DISABLED

Mishaps Overtake Vessels Recently Cleared From This Port
Mishap has overtaken three vessels recently cleared from Philadelphia, within the last few days, according to shipping reports.
The steamer Epitauru, 2800 tons, which left here October 21 for Gibraltar, is reported drifting helpless with her propeller shaft broken, in longitude 41.00 north, latitude 35.00 west. The vessel is of foreign registry and as far as is known, has no Philadelphians among the crew.

Two shipping Board vessels are also reported in trouble: The Lake Flag, 4000 tons, which left this port October 17 for Rotterdam, was sighted passing the Lizard light, at the south of England, in tow of the steamship East Indian. The Lake Flag's engines were disabled. The other shipping board vessels, the Pango, 3500 tons, was beached in a leaking condition near the Chesapeake capes after having been taken in tow by a rescuing vessel. The Pango cleared from here on November 3 for Algiers with a general cargo.
