

BOOZE FOR WASHINGTON LANDED IN PHILADELPHIA. This change in destination was due to interference of Chester county police. The caravan of nine touring cars was stopped at West Grove. Federal authorities brought the prisoners and whisky to the Federal Building yesterday, where hundreds watched the transfer of each bottle from the automobiles. Ledger Photo Service.

SHE KNITTED PRESIDENT WILSON A SCARF. It was her offering to repay for many a kindly wave that she received from the President's automobile. Mrs. William H. Green, of Washington, is the happy woman. President and Mrs. Wilson called at her home a few days ago. Keystone View Co.

FOUR KILLED IN NEVADA WRECK. Spreading rails sent the Pacific Overland tumbling over an embankment and trestle at Manx, Nevada. Twenty-one were injured. International.

THE HARDING ORCHID. It was named yesterday at the Chrysanthemum Show. Jack Stryker is holding the newly named flower. Ledger Photo Service.

TOOK PART IN UNVEILING CEREMONIES. Ten girl students of the Germantown High School made up this group. In addition, two boy students carried the colors. Ledger Photo Service.

UNVEILED PASTORIUS STATUE. Miss Mary Bancroft Closson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James H. Closson, of Germantown. Ledger Photo Service.

FIREPROOF. This new safety suit for airplane pilots and firemen insures the wearer against fire. An oxygen tank in the helmet prevents suffocation. Paul Thompson.

1020 POINTS IN FIVE MINUTES. This remarkable record was made in Brooklyn by Charles Peterson, the fancy shot expert of St. Louis. The record was made in straight rail billiards. International.

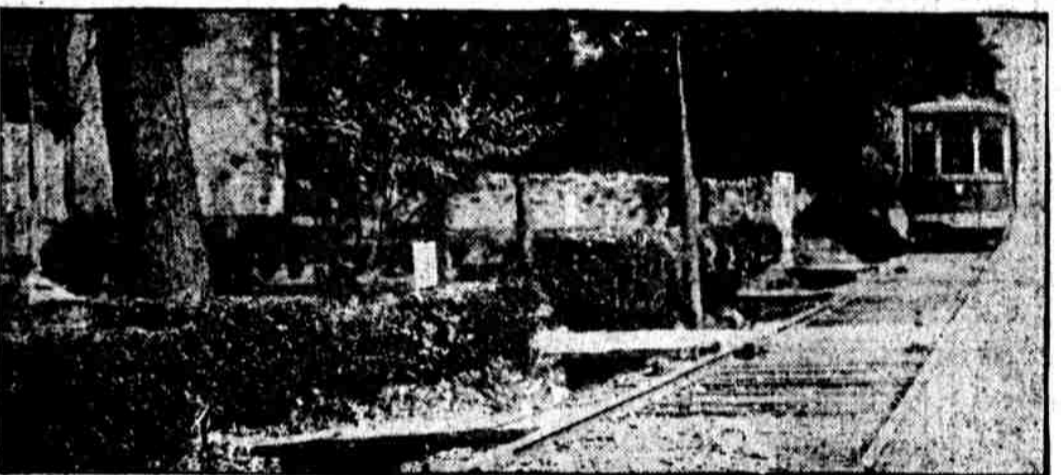

MAY NOT PLAY AGAINST PENN. Jim Robertson, leader of the Dartmouth eleven, is suffering with a wrenched shoulder.

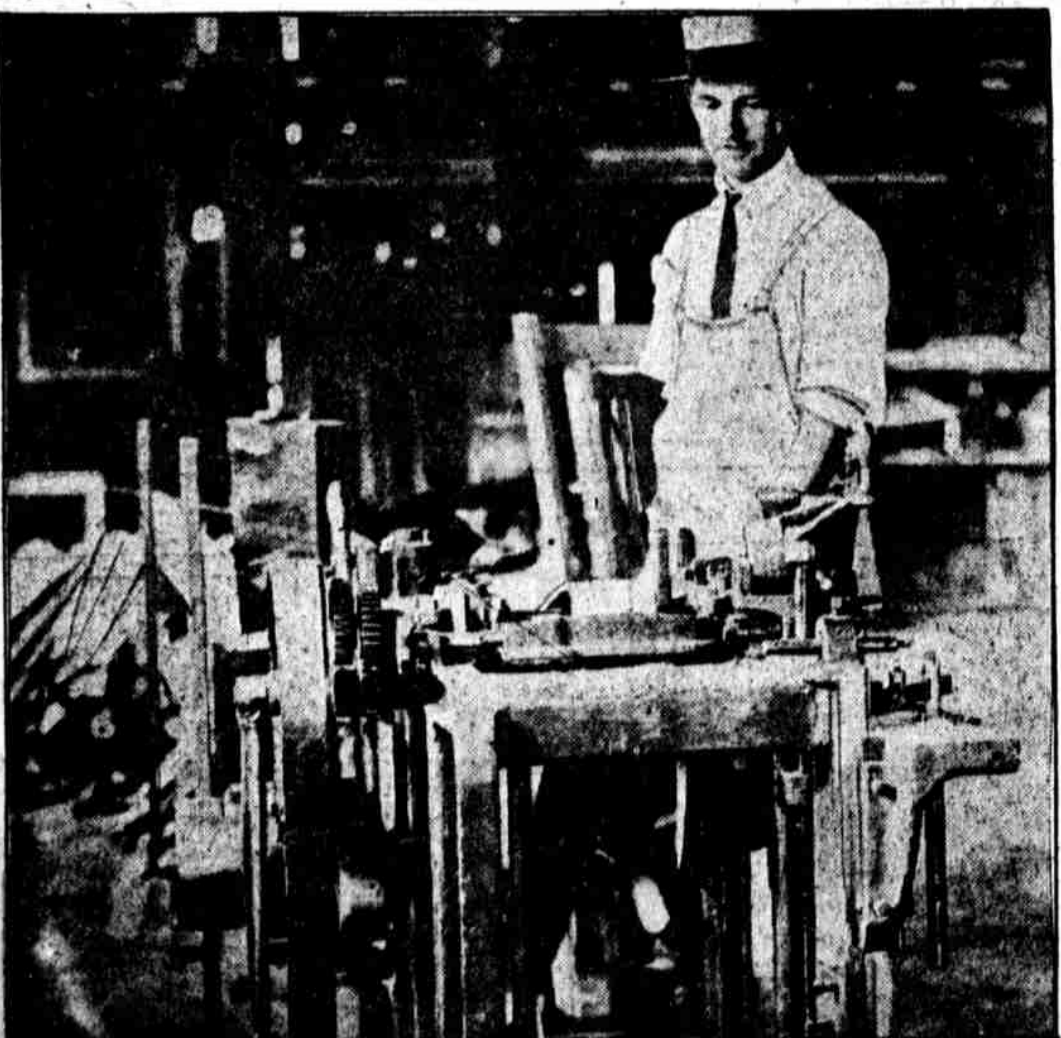

SECRET BRIDE of Cincinnati man. She was Miss Jessie Reed, who was well rehearsed for her secret wedding, as for months she took the part of a bride on the stage. Keystone View Co.

DESCENDANTS OF FRANCIS DANIEL PASTORIUS. Mrs. Daniel Pastorius, Daniel Pastorius, Mrs. Sarah Pastorius Stevens, Mrs. Rittenhouse F. Reaver, Samuel N. Pastorius (left to right). The children are Helen C. Pastorius and Daniel Pastorius. They all attended the unveiling. Ledger Photo Service.

A DANGEROUS SPOT FOR PEDESTRIANS. The etching shows Old York Road above Lakeside avenue, where there is no sidewalk. The plank crossings are used to get to the road, the only place for people to walk. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

THOMAS TORCHIO, 6027 Hazel avenue, operating a sticker machine which makes about 6000 feet of sash stock for porch enclosures daily at the Thomas J. Malia plant, 232 Mentor street. Ledger Photo Service.

JOHN LUTHER LONG discusses the modern drama in an interview on the editorial page. Ledger Photo Service.

WILLIAM PENN HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNAE PLAYERS. They will appear in "Back to Earth" at the Academy of Music on November 22. Aermnia Martinez, Elvera Martinez, Florence Messinger, Tillie Berhang, Edna Speidel, Clitra B. Hirsch, Lillian Glassman and Roe Messinger (left to right).

MAKING STARS. This cutting machine makes dozens of stars at a time at the Schuykill Arsenal. They are then sewed on the blue field of American flags and pennants. Ledger Photo Service.

SELLING POTATOES. The Rev. Joseph R. Baird, one of three Protestant Episcopal ministers who are real farmers during the week days, at Worthington's Mill in Neshaminy Valley. Ledger Photo Service.

BAYONET PRACTICE. The boys down at the Pennsylvania Military College, Chester, working on close-up bayonet work. It's a reminder of the training camps.

HELD AS HOSTAGE BY TURKS. Colonel J. P. Coombs, of Brooklyn, director of the American Commission for Relief in the Near East. International.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MARGARETE COFFMAN McKinley, Pa.