Nancy Wynne Tells of the Bartlett Tea This Afternoon—She Hears Many Plans for the Charity Ball, Which Will Be Very Beautiful

THIS afternoon we have Vivienne Bartlett's tea. Vivienne is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Bartlett, of 1435 Spruce street. She is tall and slim and has a wealth of dark beautiful hair and large brown eyes. She is a graduate of Miss Train's, you know, and has quite an athletic record to her name. Vivienne is a descendant of Josiah Bartlett, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, and on her mother's side of the family she is descended from the Carrolls, of Carrollton, so there are signs on both sides. The tea will be held from 4 until 6:30 o'clock. Vivienne will wear a frock of white lace over a slip of orchid satin and she will carry a Colonial bouquet of orchids and lace.

Among the debutantes who will receive with her are Adelaide Jones, who came out yesterday at the Algonquin, and Carol Smith, Mary D. Stewart, Constance Westcott, Charlotte Graves, Margaret Clemons, Mary Althouse and Marie Golegale. Miss Gladys Hoover, Mrs. Ferdinand Graves, Mrs. Moseley Swain and Mrs. Charles Houston will assist Mrs. Bartlett in receiving.

number of times. Her mother was Miss Anna Coleman. NANCY WYNNE.

Norton, Mr. Samuel Brown, Mr. Bernard Heyl, Mr. George Grotler, Mr. Osborn Crosson, Mr. Heber Morris and Mr. Joseph Ryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eldon Graham, 1712 Spruce street, have issued invitations for a buffet supper on November 27 in honor of their daughter, Miss Gertrude A. E. Graham, before the first meeting of Saturday evening dancing class.

Mrs. Matthew Baird, Jr., of Ardmore, and Mrs. James Cretzarski will give a dinner on December 27 at the Merion Cricket Club, in honor of their daughter, Miss Marie Louise Baird and Miss Priscilla M. Carstairs, before the Junior Ciderella dance.

Miss Marie Louise Thompson, debutante daughter of Mrs. Charles Trotter Thompson, of 2118 Spruce street, will be the guest of honor at a series of theatricals during the winter. The first will be given by her aunt, Mrs. John White Hoffman, of Gulf road and Penn street. Her father, Mr. J. C. Hoffman, will be followed by a supper and dance at the Bellevue-Stratford.

Mr. Frederick Jones Ellis, A. M., of 2900 Locust street, has been elected president and member of the commission appointed by General Allenby, British, to settle the conditions of the new Palestine, was the guest of Colonel John S. Muckle at dinner at his home, 2024 Walnut street, last evening.

Colonel and Mrs. Muckle will entertain in their dining room at the moving picture this evening. Mr. Paul Hagemann, Belgian consul general, and Mrs. Hagemann will give a dinner at the Hotel de Ville, French consul general, and Mrs. Palliard.

Mrs. Charles Willing, of 2122 Pine street, will entertain at a small luncheon on Monday.

Miss Catherine Bradford Knight, daughter of Mrs. Bradford Knight, of 5028 North Brydnam street, and Mrs. L. S. Smyth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Howard Wetherly, will be the guests of honor at a large New Year's dance to be given on January 1, at the home of Miss Smyth's parents, 3515 Chestnut street. Miss Knight will also be the guest of honor at a luncheon to be given by Mrs. Edgar P. Earle, of Gravelly lane, Chestnut Hill, later in the winter.

The Junior Ciderella dance will be held at the Merion Cricket Club on the following dates: December 27, March 29 and June 21. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Matthew Baird, Jr., Mrs. James Cretzarski, Mrs. Charles Willing, Mrs. George Kendrick, 2d, Mrs. Charles J. McIlvaine, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallace Tunis will formally present their daughter, Miss Florence Willoughby Tunis, to society at dinner at the Algonquin, which will formally open the foyer, for it is absolutely beautiful.

I have always thought it was one of the most beautiful rooms architecturally in the city, and now I know it is the most beautiful. The old Academy has come into its own once more and exclusive Old Philadelphia will entertain there as in days gone by. I doubt that there is anything like it this side of the water at any rate.

DID I not hint to you some time ago to be on the lookout for an engagement? Well, it was Margaretta Jones and Syd Thayer. There seems to be a perfect epidemic of engagements in the Baird family. First Marion Baird whose marriage to Jared Ingersoll took place about a week ago, then Gainer Baird, who is engaged to Joe Minott, and now Margaretta Jones. It won't be long, I suppose, before Elizabeth Jence, who is to come out next month, will be getting engaged. Goodness knows, she's so attractive she'll never get through the winter without any number of ardent suitors.

The Baird and Jence girls are first cousins. Mrs. Jence having been a Miss Baird, which accounts for my remark that there is an epidemic in the Baird family, and don't forget that Charlie Baird, Uxendale Cane's brother and a cousin of Marion, Gainer and Margaretta, is engaged to the Carlington girl. That was announced last summer at Cape May.

AND while speaking of engagements I did you meet that pretty Isabelle de Cavello, who spent last winter here with her aunt, Miss Coleman, and went out to all the debutante affairs? She is engaged to Hubert Lancalet Rouillet, Baron de la Baillieville, of France. Isabelle's home is in Villandry, France, you know, and she spent the winter here for her debut, returning at the end of the year. She was most attractive and I rather hope would remain in this country, but her heart was evidently in La Belle France and there she will stay.

Miss Fanny Coleman introduced her last year and another aunt, Mrs. Horace Brook, entertained for her a
