

CANAL TO PHILA. BOOSTED BY N. Y.

Meeting Here Today Follows
Manhattan Conference on
$40,000,000 Jersey Project

WOULD MAKE FINAL LINK

New York and New Jersey business organizations met in New York last night and endorsed a canal across northern New Jersey, completing an inland waterway link between New York city and Philadelphia.

The estimated cost of the project is $40,000,000, but investigators reported today that revenues would soon make up that amount. Philadelphia organizations will discuss the plan in the Mayor's reception room this afternoon.

The meeting last night and the one in this city today were called by representatives of the War Department to give departmental engineers a chance to find out the urgency and advisability of the canal.

Wilfred H. Schoff, secretary of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association, attended the New York meeting.

Mr. Schoff, along with William E. Bernard and N. B. Kelly will represent the Chamber of Commerce at today's hearing.

Jersey to Give Land
The state of New Jersey already has voted to donate to the government the right of way for the canal.

The necessary to complete the connecting link, part of which will be the already constructed Delaware and Raritan canal.

The New York meeting was held in the United States engineering headquarters, 30 Whitehall street. All the speakers favored the project, some comparing it in importance to the Panama canal.

Colonel J. C. Sanford, United States engineering corps, presided yesterday, assisted by E. B. Snell, assistant engineer of the Second district. Mr. Schoff introduced the speakers.

General George W. Goethals spoke for the New York and New Jersey dock commission, and Congressman Cleary, of Brooklyn, and Murray Hulbert, New York city commissioner of docks, spoke on the advantages of completing this most important part of the intercoastal canal system.

President J. Spencer Smith, of the New Jersey board of commerce and navigation, spoke for that organization.

New York for Project
Dock Commissioner Hulbert said that New York city is ready to undertake a thirty-foot channel in Jamaica bay, had met some opposition from New Jersey, but was whole-heartedly behind the project, which was undertaken in its neighbor state.

He said the canal was looked upon as a means of bringing in produce and reducing rates on the railways which were brought into competition.

Among the organizations represented at the meeting were the Jamaica Bay Improvement Association of Brooklyn, and the Harbor Board of Commerce, the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York, the Maritime Association, the New York Produce Exchange, the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce, the Long Island City Chamber of Commerce, the Staten Island Chamber of Commerce, the New York Board of Trade, the New York Association of Merchants' Association of New York and several New Jersey business organizations.

DIAMOND PIN FOR TEACHER

Women Instructors Ask Some Increase in Grade as High School Pay

The paying tribute of the Women Teachers' Organization to its retiring chairman, Miss Jane Allen, at a meeting in the William Penn High School last night, took the form of a platinum bar supporting seven diamonds.

The new officers elected are Miss Edith A. Szwedles, chairman; Miss Jessie A. Murphy, recording secretary; Miss M. E. Kitchin, corresponding secretary, and Miss Joanna C. Landis, treasurer.

Resolutions were adopted asking State Superintendent Fiegen to reconsider his proposed recommendation to the Legislature for increasing salaries of school workers insofar as the increment proposed for elementary teachers is concerned. The resolutions ask that the same increase proposed for high school teachers, $175, be applied to grade teachers as well, instead of the $100 now proposed.

McELWEE WILL NOT RESIGN

Probation Officer to Test Judge Brown's Right of Discharge

George McElwee, trainer leader of the Forty-eighth ward, who has been ordered to resign as a probation officer in the Municipal Court by President Judge Charles L. Brown, said yesterday he would refuse to obey the order.

"I will not resign," said Mr. McElwee. His resignation was requested by November 15.

While he refused to amplify his statement, it is presumed Mr. McElwee will test the right of Judge Brown to dismiss him without specifying cause.

Mr. McElwee took a leading part in the factional contest in the First Councilmanic district in the interest of James Gallagher, the anti-Vare-Brown candidate for city Council. He received the request for his resignation immediately after the election.

PAOLI PARENTS TO APPEAR AT HEARING

Parents of school children, town officials and members of the board of school directors will attend the hearing to be held tonight in the Berwyn High School, to hear complaints of parents concerning alleged cruel treatment of student children by teachers in the Paoli schools. Excitement in the section has not died down, since the holding of an indignation meeting last week.

William Patterson, president of the school board, is quoted in a definite statement as having ordered an investigation, "and, if the findings substantiate charges made," has signified his intention of taking drastic action.

The charges, as made by parents, are in effect that instructors struck and otherwise cruelly treated children who, the teachers said, had violated school rules. Parents insist that offenses were of the most trivial type and cruel treatment was unwarranted.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL IN GOOD START

Leaders Expect to Pass Quota of 250,000 for South-eastern Chapter

NIGHT LETTERS ARE USED

From all sections of the city Red Cross workers have sent enthusiastic and optimistic reports of their first day's work to Mrs. John White Geary, chairman of the annual roll call, which began yesterday.

"I am much pleased with our beginning," said Mrs. Geary today. "Formal reports will not come in for several days, but I am confident this year's roll call will bring in more members for Red Cross than last year's. The quota set by Southeastern Chapter is 250,000."

Five hundred night letters have been sent to industrial plants employing more than 100 workers, and 750 personal letters have gone to plants employing fifty to 100 workers, asking that all join the Red Cross. J. W. Lucas, chairman of the industrial committee, is making a strong appeal to all the industrial plants.

Included on his committee are Paul Thompson, of the United Gas Improvement Co.; H. E. Paisley, Philadelphia and Reading Railway Co.; Walter H. Johnson, Philadelphia Electric Co.; J. W. Rawle, J. G. Brill Co.; David Kirschbaum, A. B. Kirschbaum Co.; Ernest T. Trigg, John Lucas & Co.; Inc.; M. D. Gehris, J. R. Strout Co.; W. V. Canvassers were not available last year and enrollment of the industrial employees was neglected. Heads of plants are asked to co-operate to make certain that all employees are enrolled this year.

J. W. Lucas, chairman of the industrial committee, sent out 500 telegrams and 750 personal letters yesterday to employers.

MILLIONS IN CHINA ACTUALLY STARVING

Rev. Dr. Samson, Back From Trip to Orient, Tells of Suffering He Saw

Twenty-million men, women and children in northern China are starving, declares the Rev. Manrice Samson, pastor of Olivet Reformed Church, Logan, who returned yesterday from a three months' tour of the Orient. Accompanied by Mrs. Samson and his sister-in-law, Miss Clara D. Eames, of Spring City, Pa., Dr. Samson attended the World Sunday School Convention in Tokio and visited many cities in Japan, China and Korea.

In northern China, which Dr. Samson visited before going to the convention, he found the people starving. No rain had fallen for five months and the population was eating roots and dry grass. Hundreds of men, women and children, some in rags and many absolutely naked, gathered around the train at the railroad station, begging for food.

In Korea, Dr. Samson was surrounded by Japanese spies, who report every word of conversation or utterance by an American at a public meeting and seek to prevent Americans from coming in contact with the Korean people. A similar spy system prevails in Shantung.

"The Chinese positively hate the Japanese," declared the minister. "They are hoping and praying that America will assist them to ward off Japanese aggression. As to the Koreans, they are helpless under the rule of their conquerors. Pitiful conditions prevail in Korea."

In sections of northern China, Dr. Samson found cholera, smallpox and diphtheria raging. Similar conditions prevailed in parts of Japan.

MILL'S PLAN FIGHT ON CANCELLATIONS

Textile Committee Meets Today to Devise More Stringent Contracts With Buyers

COMPLAIN OF ORDER CUTS

A committee composed of representatives of the various textile associations of the city will hold a meeting today at the headquarters of the Philadelphia Textile Association, 1415 Arch street, to devise some effective method of combating cancellations, breaking of contracts and other practices termed unfair that are hurting the textile industries.

The committee is composed of Charles J. Webb, Andrew S. Webb, H. H. Rosworth, Fred A. Hakestraw, William H. Folwell, John Fiesler, C. Stanley Hurlbut, H. G. Fetterolf, Walter H. Rossmassler, John P. Wood, David Kirschbaum, Fred Mayer, Theodore Miller, Joseph K. Willing, Joseph Bromley, Millard D. Brown, M. G. Curtis and Harvey Lukens. These men will make a report at a meeting of textile manufacturers in a few days, which it is believed will lead to a nation-wide campaign against these practices.

It is planned by the committee to develop some form of uniform contract for all branches of the trade and all parts of the country that will compel buyers to live up to their agreements when making purchases. It is also planned to form some sort of permanent bureau that will represent all the associations to investigate and protect by moral suasion and legal procedure, if necessary, manufacturers from unfair practices of many kinds.
