

MEDAL FOR WOUNDED SAILOR. William F. Koehler, 910 McKean street, a convalescent in the Philadelphia Navy Yard hospital, being given his victory medal by Colonel W. S. Valentine, U. S. A. Several others were decorated. Ledger Photo Service.

HELPING IN THE RED CROSS DRIVE FOR MEMBERSHIP. These girls are employed at the Electric Storage Battery Co., Nineteenth street and Allegheny avenue. They are (left to right) Josephine Waltyn, Helen Poole, Helen McMann, Frances Maroney and Alice Rodenbaugh. Ledger Photo Service.

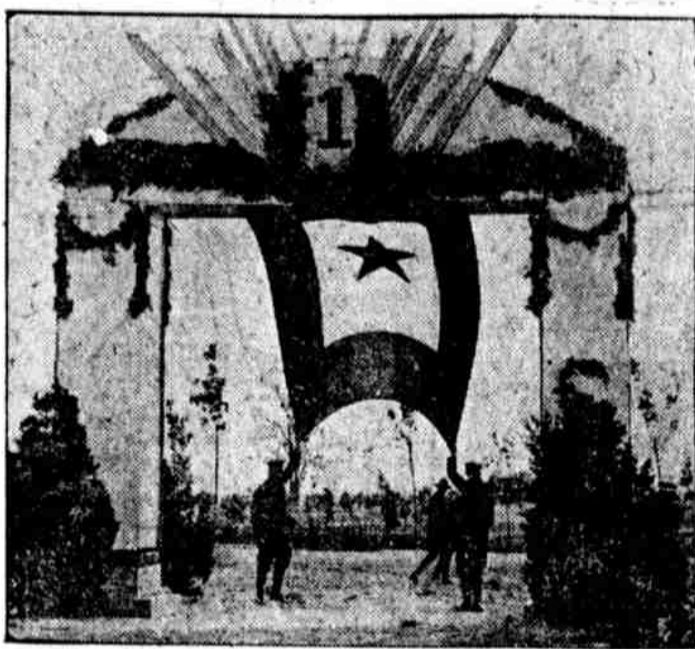

A NEW RED CROSS MEMBER. Mrs. A. L. Carhart got her dollar at the booth, in front of 608 Chestnut street. Ledger Photo Service.

INVENTOR OF FOKKER PLANE. A. H. G. Fokker, with Mrs. Fokker, arriving in New York from Holland. His planes were used by the Germans during the war. The Fokkers are Dutch. International.

IN LEGION PARADE. Legion Post No. 388 held an Armistice Day parade last night. Miss Aileen Huber, as "Justice," with a Liberty Bell, was seen on the float of the Incarnation Catholic Club. Ledger Photo Service.

FIRST DIVISION MEMORIAL ARCH. Part of the decorations at Camp Dix during the reunion, through which the serpentine parade passed yesterday. The service flag contains a large golden star. Ledger Photo Service.

MAKING TOYS FOR NEW YORK'S POOR. Miss Irene Tams, a film actress, has amazed her friends by the wonderful toys she has made. She's planning her own big Christmas for the kiddies. Central News Photo.

CHRISTENED WARREN G. HARDING ORCHID. Mrs. Thomas Robins and Ailee Girvin, of Haverford, naming the flower. It was displayed in the flower show by Mrs. Fitz Eugene Dixon. Harry S. Hood.

THE MORNING MILK. In Holland, dogs are used to draw milk carts for the morning delivery. The milkman and a milkmaid are willing to walk. Central News Photo.

CAPTAIN LUKENS. He piloted the Northeast school boys to victory yesterday.

NORTHEAST DEFEATS GERMANTOWN HIGH. Real football was displayed on Alumni Field yesterday afternoon when the boys from Kensington won by a score of 14-0. In this play Lukens, captain of the winning team, has the ball. Ledger Photo Service.

LONDON CIRCUS GIRLS DRAW BRIDAL COACH. Miss Renee Ashe, well-known star of the London Hippodrome, and Hal Bryan, English actor, were married in London recently. The "team" took them for a ride.

GIVES LAND TO GIRL SCOUTS. Former Senator William A. Clark addressed a group at the national headquarters in New York, after he had presented a 135-acre tract in memory of his daughter Andree. His daughter Hungette stands at his side. Underwood & Underwood.

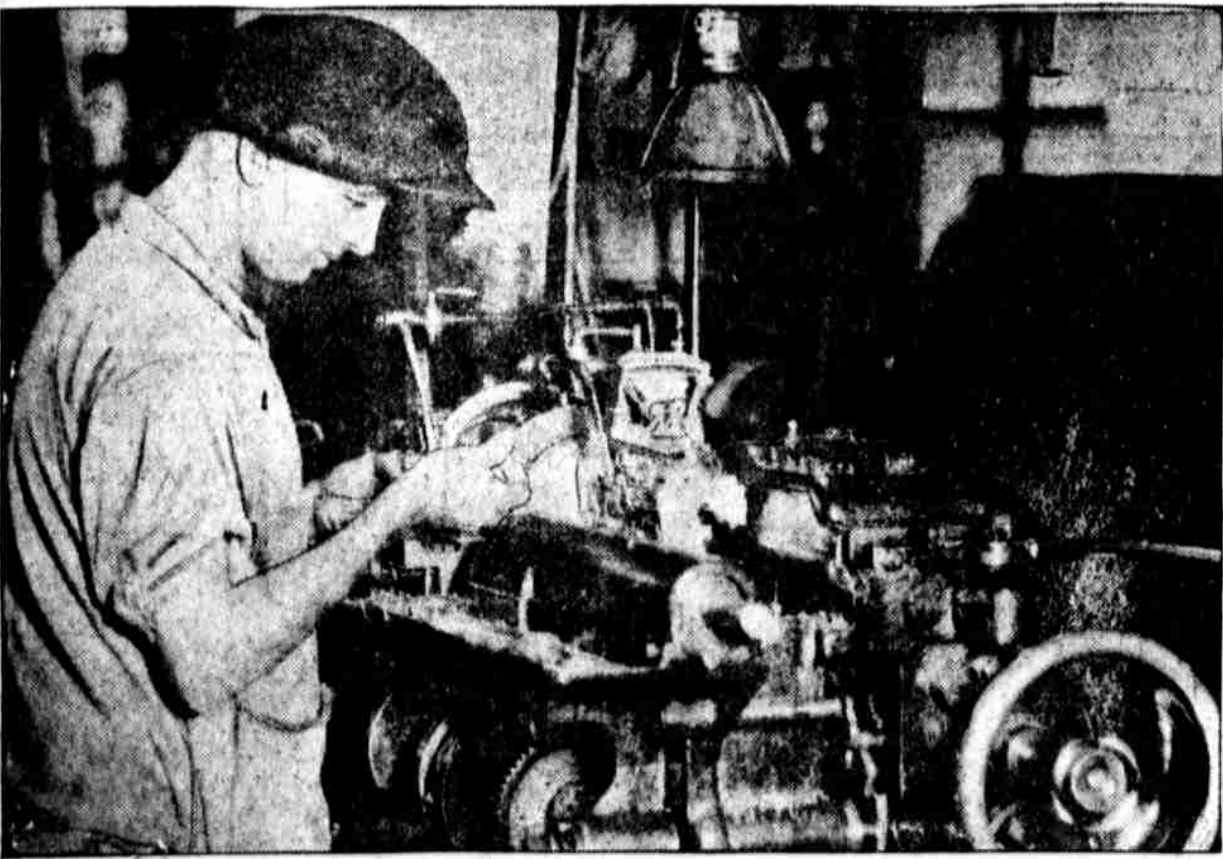

GEORGE E. NITZSCHE discusses opportunities for students to work their way through college in an interview on the editorial page.

TENNESSEE'S GOVERNOR-ELECT. Colonel Alfred Taylor, the second Republican elected to that office since the Civil War. He is seventy-five years old. International.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

GRINDING SPINDLES. At the rate of 300 a day Robert Dickinson, 328 North Redfield street, is turning out spindles at the Wicaco Screw and Machine Works, Seventh and Wood streets. An automatic oil feed keeps splashing oil against the spindles during the grinding. Ledger Photo Service.

CAPTAIN OF PRESIDENT-ELECT'S SHIP. Captain Gleen, of the United Fruit Company's liner Pastores, aboard which Mr. and Mrs. Harding will make the return trip from the Canal Zone. International.

ON THE WINNING TEAM. The West Philadelphia High School soccer team defeated Southern High at Forty-eighth street and Chester avenue, yesterday. Score 7-0. Smith, captain of the West Philadelphia team (left). At the right is "Pete" Townsend, one of the most dependable players. Ledger Photo Service.

MISS JESSIE PERRY 1410 North Fifth street Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service.

THE BEAUTY CORNER