TO MAP PROGRAM

Conference Tomorrow Will Fix Plans for Next Assembly and Speakership

Villiam E. Crow, chairman of the Republican state committee. The organi-sation program for the forthcoming ression of the state Legislature will be Senator Penrose said reently that he favored the re-election of cently that he favored the re-election of Reprentative Spangler, of York, as speaker of the House. Because of the overwhelmingly Republican control of the state Legislature and the federal patronage at the disposal of the sena-tor, politicians said today that Senator Penrose's views would determine the

A caucus on the subject will be held nd, according to present indications, a number of other candidates will be in James A. Walker, of the Forty sixth ward, of this city. Senator Penrose's opposition to a is possible, said politicians, that ship, near Norristown.

Crow-Penrose conference will be It is believed the defense will be The senator and Association. The senator and Mr. Grundy will work together politically. The only real question in the next Législature will be whether Governor Sproul and Senator Crew will ceoperate fully with the Penrose-Grundy lub of the Twenty-fourth ward is eing organized for the inauguration of Joseph C. Trainer and his brother. Harry J. Trainer, are already at work should organizing their forces in every ward organizing their forces in every ward of Market street with a view of Miller. again battling with the Vares next year.

The Trainers are closely affiliated with the Moore leadership. Harry J. Trainer, who will be a member of the next State House, is preparing to use his legislafight on the Vares, and on any harmony program which includes the Vares.

Deaths of a Day

D. FRANK COLLINS

Real Estate Assessor Dies Aged Sixty-five

Dr. Frank Collins, a real estate as-sessor, died yesterday at his home, 1710 South Thirteenth street, after a short illness. He was sixty-five years old Illness. He was sixty-five years old and a graduate of the Central High School in the clase of 1873.

Mr. Collins was a life-long Demotrat and during his school days was a classmate of Judge Gordon. Early in life he was associated with his father in the draying business, but during the first Cleveland administration he accented an appointment as inspector. accepted an appointment as inspector in the Customs House. Later he was appointed a tipstaff by Judge Gordon —Twenty years ago he became a real estate assessor and served without in

Clark Funeral

Funeral services for Peter Clark, seventy-four years old, who died Fri-day, will be held tomorrow morning from his home, 422 Locust avenue.

Mr. Clark was born in Cecil county Maryland, and, after leaving school, was employed by the old Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Kailway. He had charge of the construction of a large part of that system and resigned in 1883 to go with the Reading, where he remained until he retired ten years ago. At that time he was general su-

Charles A. Tatum

the country. For a century the Whit-alls and Tatums. Quaker families, have been identified with it. Mr. Ta-tum's New York residence was at 162 West Fifty-fourth street. He leaves a son, Frederick C. Tatum.

Mrs. Helen W. Harris

Funeral services for Mrs. Helen Wil-rd Harris, of 848 Wynnewood road. will be conducted at her home tomorrow afternoon. At the age of eighty-eight she was still prominently identified with the Holy Comforter Memorial Church and was interested in several charities.

Student Activities at U. of P. Today

There is he had not

1:30 p. m.—Meeting, Frankford Club. Houston Hall, 7 p. m .- Rehearsal, French Club. College Hall,

7 p. m.—Meeting, Columbia trip committee. Houston Hall. 7:15 p. m .- Meeting, Aero Club. Architectural Building. 7:30 p. m.—Meeting, Maine Club

GRUNDY TO BE SEEN ALSO MOTHER, 20, FACES

the field. Among these may be Duncan Sinclair, of Fayette, an ally of Senstor Crow; Hugh Dawson, of Scranton, said to be favored by the Sproul leaders:
George W. Williams, of Tioga, and James A. Walker, of the Forty-sixth

She was Mrs. Josephine Mandato, twenty years and and the mother of the sex to stand trial for her life in the history of the Meatgomery county courts, which goes back 136 years

She was Mrs. Josephine Mandato, twenty years old and the mother of two children. Her home is in Chestnut Hill.

The Huots live at 814 Almond street, in a clean little house where there are many signs of poverty. Old Mrs. Huot has struggled hard against years and poverty to keep her little family in decency.

"Tom has been away from home since he was fifteen" the methal will have fifteen to the poverty to the methal will have a struggled hard against years and poverty to keep her little family in decency.

enstitutional convention and to the enactment of civil service for county offices, particularly in counties outside of Philadelphia, will probably be dissipant to death last summer at Williams Station, in Whitemarsh town-

It is possible, said politicians, that the Crow-Penrose conference will be It is believed the defense will be followed by another between the sentator and Joseph R. Grundy, president took her husband's revolver, according to the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' to the police, tried it to see if it workto the police, tried it to see if it worked properly and went to the place where regislature will be whether Governor proul and Senator Crow will coperate fully with the Penrose Grundy sadership.

The Blakely D. McCaughn Marching lub of the Twenty-fourth ward is Club of the Twenty-fourth ward is being organized for the inauguration of the President-elect. Andrew Frosch, leader of the Forty-second ward, is organizing another club. Indications are that Philadelphia Republicans will be wall-represented in the inaugural series. When the series is the presence of severely, it is said, and the young woman worried lest her own husband should hear the story and kill her. The trial is before Judge John F.

'CRANK'S' TRIAL WEDNESDAY

Not to Delay Case

Augusto Pasquaie, confessed kidnap-per of Blakely Coughlin, will be put on trial Wednesday morning at Norris-town, before President Judge Swartz, for the child's murder. J. A. Anderson, former district atof Montgomery county, will defend Pasquale. He was appointed by the court. Pasquale does not seem to be apprehensive about the outcome of the case, and told his attorney he did not wish to have it postponed until the Attorney Anderson has not indicated what defense will be offered, but it is understood he will demand proof of death. A piece of iron recovered from the Schuylkill, believed to be that which Pasquale confessed he tied to the baby's body after it had died from suffocation under his coat, is the only proof of death in possession of the prosecution

5 HURT IN FIRE ENGINE SPILL

Wilmington Machine Rolls Over

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 15,-Five firemen were badly injured last night when the Fame Fire Company's chemi-cal engine overturned at Sixteenth and Market streets. The injured are Frank Maguire, driver: Frank Lyons, Joseph McCall, Samuel Cruso and Simen Leiburg.

The engine was answering an alarm at Binnstead, outside the city, and to avoid striking a trolley car on a bad curve endeavored to turn out and struck a curb. The machine rolled of three times and was badly damaged.

Collingdale Bans Gipsies

dale, according to the provisions of an tharles A. Tatum, seventy-two years old, president of the Whitall-Tatum Co., of New York and Philatelphia, died of cerebral hemorrhage saturday night in his country home near Middletown, N. J.

The glass manufacturing company of the provisions of an ordinance which has just been introduced in the borough council. The bill passed first reading, and is expected to pass finally at the December over the provisions of an ordinance which has just been introduced in the borough council. The bill passed first reading, and is expected to pass finally at the December roving bands from camping in the borough is the result of stories of thefts Saturday night in his country home near Middletown, N. J.

The glass manufacturing company of the oldest business organizations in connection with previous encampor ments.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The partnership heretofore existing between

Walter F. Ballinger Emile G. Perrot Trading as

Ballinger & Perrot

Has been dissolved. The business will be succeeded to and continued by

Walter F. Ballinger

Trading as The Ballinger Company

All accounts owing to the partnership will be collected by Walter F. Ballinger except as otherwise notified, and all accounts owing by the late firm will be paid by Walter F. Ballinger at the offices, 329 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, or 1328 Broadway, New York City.

Signed: WALTER F. BALLINGER EMILE G. PERROT

November 13, 1920

NO DROP IN "GAS" HERE

LACKS BURIAL FUND FOR LONG LOST SON

Youth in Morgue After Twelve Years' Search added heartbreak of not being able to pany holds sway.

had been their main support.

he was fifteen." the mother said. "He fell in with bad companions. They gave him drugs, and the drugs brought him to this. He would come home once in to this. He would come home once in awhile when he was desperate for clothes or money. I pleaded with him, but he would never give up the life that held him. He wouldn't even tell me where he lived." Saturday the son became crazed with her relative, worked, in a quarry at of his mother to come home evidently her son in the morgue.

DREWES INQUEST NOV. 26

Prosecution Belleves It Has Evidence to Hold Penn Student

"CRANK'S' TRIAL WEDNESDAY The inquest in the Drewes murder case will be held November 26. This was announced today by the coroner's the inquest has been delayed owing to the difficulty the district attorney's of-fice encountered in getting its evidence together. William P. Brines, the Uni-versity of Pennsylvania student whom the police accuse of having killed Drewes, has been guarded so carefully by his counsel that the district attornney's office has been unable to get any information from him.

Announcement was made last night by Walter C. Teagle, president of the New Jersey Co. of the Standard Oll Co., that tank prices in the states controlled

BOY VICTIM OF DRUGS

A mother who found her boy. for whom she had searched twelve years, dead of drugs in the morgue, faces the added heartbreak of not being able to the search of the monton an hour later. The deer was turned over to a game warden and will be given to one of the hospitals in Atlantic county, as required by law, made and provided for just such cases.

CHURCHES AID RED CROSS

Thousands of New Members Gained at Sunday Services

The churches of the city commemorated the anniversary of Armistice Day yesterday by joining in the membership drive of the American Red Cross. In many of the churches membership applications were distributed among the congregations and as a result thousands new members were secured for the Red Cross. Several of the women's political organizations which were active up to November 2 have now turned their at-tention to the Red Cross and have of-fered their services in obtaining mem-

Salvation Army lassies will assist in getting new members at the Red Cross booth at Thirteenth and Chestnut streets. A fine spirit of co-operation has been shown by the Salvationists in their desire to aid in the rollcall.

CHURCH GETS $1000

Balance of Mary McGowan Estate Goes to Relatives

The Church of Our Lady of Mercy, Broad street and Susquehanna avenue, benefits to the extent of $1000 by the will of Mary McGowan, 1737 West Information from him.

The coming of a witness from New York, who managed to see Brines and yet not be seen by the counsel for the defense, is surmised to have given the prosecution sufficient knowledge of the case to go into the coroner's court and ask Brines be held for the action of the mer. 1941 North Fourth street, $52, grand jury.

Berks street. The estate is valued at $97,122 and, excepting the $1000 bequest to the church, is held in trust for the benefit of four nephews and nieces. Other wills probated were those of Mary A. Hutton, 4710 E street, disposing of a $48,000 estate; Harry Bezard jury. grand jury.

Elmer C. Drewes, Dartmouth College Eighth street, $8000. An inventory of senior, was found dead on the morning of October 17 at a lonely spot in Logan.

B. Brown totaled $73,606.27.

DREKA FINE STATIONERS SINCE 1864

PHOTOGRAPH FRAMES

MADE ESPECIALLY TO OUR ORDER DUPLICATES OF ANTIQUES VERY SMART AND ATTRACTIVE

1121 CHESTNUT STREET

FULL Assortments of Sizes and Styles in Reeds' Repricing Sale

¶ Frequently during these busy days of our Repricing Sale customers who have been shopping about in other stores say: "I went to see a suit that they advertised, but they didn't have my size."

I That's the trouble with many houses which give publicity to "leaders" and do not have complete lines or assortments to

In our Repricing Sale our entire stock of clothing is included - there are no reservations. The assortments are exhausted and the requirements of all purchasers are pro-

The revised prices save you Ten to Fifteen Dollars on each Suit or Overcoat.

JACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Chestuat Street

FOR LONG LOST SON Although the price of gasoline has been reduced one cent a gallon in several states, officials of various oil concerns in this city say that they see no drop in price in Pennsylvania for the present at least. The price of gasoline in Philadelphia now is thirty-four cents LAID TO VETERAN FROM MERIT TEST Money Collected at Funeral of Commission Takes Action After

War Victims Used by Man,

Vigorous Protest by Former Secretary

TO GRAND JURY HIGHWAY CHIEF IS PRAISED

Elmer Wolf, twenty-three years old.

Arkansas, in which the Louisiana coingive him burial.

Chestnut Hill Woman is cused of Slaying Her Brother-in-Law

Brother-in-Law

Brother-in-Law

Chestnut Hill Woman is cused of Slaying Her Brother-in-Law

Brother-in-Law

Brother-in-Law

Arkansas, in which the Louisiana coingive him burial these years," said Mrs. Catharine Huot today, with tears in her faded old eyes, "and now that he is dead he cannot even lie in the grave with his own. I have no money to bury Tom."

Mrs. Huot is seventy years old. Her husband, George, is five years older, and age and illness kept him at home. A mandehild is expected soon in the family. Until recently the married daugh. Universal of the charge of the body of Sergeant Ross, of investigate the report.

Arkansas, in which the Louisiana coinging the pany holds sway.

Arkansas, in which the Louisiana coinging the pany holds sway.

States Commissioner Manley in the federal Building today on the charge of tilegally wearing a United States army uniform.

Sergeant J. J. Leyden, of the Frank-ford Anexan I testified that Wolf also dain pressonated a minister and had gone to the cemmission was taken after the move to exempt the office was vigorously opposed by William H. Kreider, secretary of the Civil Service Commission under the Smith administration.

Action of the commission was taken after the move to exempt the office was vigorously opposed by William H. Kreider, secretary of the Civil Service Commission under the Smith administration.

Action of the commission was taken after the move to exempt the office was vigorously opposed by William H. Kreider, secretary of the Civil Service Commission under the Smith administration.

Action of the commission was taken after the move to exempt the office was vigorously opposed by William H. Kreider, secretary of the Civil Service Commission under the Smith administration.

Action of the commissi bodies in Hoboken to be brought to relatives here.

Wolf's mother and brother asked leniency on the grounds that the accused man may be suffering from the results of injury or shock received in the war.

Mr. Kreider contended that a competitive examination was the only means of procuring the right man for a place, and was essential to prevent filling city offices of importance by political methods.

Louis H United Technology.

MEETING ENDS IN RIOT Woman Shot at Election of Race

Improvement Body A riot, in which one woman was shot and seven arrests were made, developed yesterday in Metropolitan Hall, 715 Fairmount avenue, following an elec-tion of officers of the Philadelphia Division of the Universal Negro Improvement Association. The trouble started when one faction became dissatisfied with the candidates put up by the other faction. Miss Estelle Hackett, of 839 Van Pelt street, was shot in the side and Peter Jones, of 2434 Christian street, who is alleged of 2434 Christian street, who is alleged to have fired the shot, was arrested. Several times during the evening razors flashed, but calmer heads succeeded in quieting the excitable ones until Jones arose suddenly and emptied his revolver. One of the shots struck Miss Hackett. It was then the riot cell was turned in

Buenos Aires Cloudburst Kills 4 Buenos Aires, Nov. 15 .- Four persons lost their lives and severe property damage, including shipping losses, were suffered in this city Saturday, as the result of a cloudburst, accompanied by

The Civil Service Commission by 2520 Sepviva street, was held in $1000 unanimous action today exempted the bail for the federal grand jury by United office of chief of the bureau of high-

Russell Johnson was driving his charge of the bodies received here from the fliver along a pine-bordered roadway five at home with her mother, who lives at home with her mother, deep their main support.

The Huots live at 814 Almond street, a clean little house where there are any signs of poverty. Old Mrs. Huot as struggled hard against years and was instantly killed. The car was put out of commission.

Another party of motorists happened along in ten minutes. They loaded the deer into their car, hitched a tow line to Johnson's car and pulled into Hamperson.

The doar was from home since to Johnson's car and pulled into Hamperson.

The doar was driving his charge of the bodies received here from overseas, testified that Wolf had taken overseas, testified

He has told conflicting stories about to exempt the office from examination, his war service and his record is not definitely known. bureaus of street cleaning and high-ways, had a long and efficient record as chief of the bureau of highways. Mr. VanDusen said Chief Dunlap "would stand first in a competitive examination if it were held." Director of Works Caven had recently requested that the office be exlap received an increase in salary from $6000 to $8000 when the bureaus were consolidated.

Mr. Van Dusen's motion that the office be exempted was seconded by Chares H. Neeld, secretary of the com chairman, concurring.

"The tired business man' is getting to be a joke. It's no joke to him. We have a sure cure for that tired feeling here.

Come in for a personal demonstration.

COLLINS INSTITUTE OF PHYSICAL CULTURE COLLINS BLDG., WALNUT ST. AT 15TH

BALLEYBANKS&BIDDLECO

JEWELS

Finger Rings Bracelets

Necklaces Earrings Bar Pins

Brooches This Seasons productions and importations offer an exceptional selection of exquisitely wrought jewels.

Personal Christmas Cards ready for selection

Happiness in Every Box

"Happiness" Candy

-the token of continuing affection from husband to wife.

YOU'RE Invited! The first United "Happiness" Candy Store for Philadelphia opens Saturday at

12th and Chestnut

UNITED RETAIL CANDY STORES

MEN'S APPAREL STOLEN

Thieves Force Window of 13th S Store-Get $2600 in Loot Men's apparel, worth $2600, was stolen from Marcus Bacharach when thieves forced a window in the rear of his store, at 25 North Thirteenth street,

Speak thieves also reaped a harvest yesterday, stealing goods valued at more than 8900 after gaining entrance to houses in which doors and windows were left conveniently open.

An exchange in the locker room of a downtown hotel cost Paul Furst, 1513 Spruce street, an overcoat, worth $100. A similar occurrence in Metropolitan Hall, 717 Fairmount avenue, cost George Condrocks, 2131 Priscilla street, a coat valued at $50. While an automobile, the property of S. W. Triscild, 1331 Erie avenue, was standing at Broad and Spruce streets, a robe, valued at $25, was stolen from the machine.

Reports from the West that the body knowledge of Kearns. The robbers used of Charlie Ross, kidnapped in this city a ladder and ropes and handled the bar-to investigate the report.

John H. Camp, of Kingfisher, Okla... wrote recently to the bureau of missing persons to the effect that he knows where Ross' body is buried.

Miss Sophia L. Ross, a sister of Charlie Ross, and whose home is in Chestnut Hill, says she will do nothing investigate the report.

concerning the rumor pending an offi-cial confirmation. Miss Ross is the chief of the recreation bureau, De partment of Public Welfare.

Wrecked Seaplane Brought Here A large seaplane of the Atlantic fleet which "crashed" yesterday off Sandy Hook, was brought into Philadelphia Sandpiper. The crew, none of whom were Philadelphians, suffered no injuries when the plane fell. The wreck were Philadelphians, suffered no in-juries when the plane fell. The wreck will be salvaged at the naval aircraft searching for the gunman, who

THIEVES WITH CAR

Truck Also Used to Take Ten Barrels From Cambria Street Saloon

NEIGHBORS SEE ROBBERY

With the aid of a truck and an auomobile, thieves stole ten barrels of whisky, valued at $10,000, shortly after 3 o'clock this morning from the saloon of Edward B. Kearns, Twenty-fifth and Cambria streets.
It was evident that the men worked leisurely, as only the best stock was Persons in the neighborhood who saw the truck and automobile before the saloon were under the impression that rels as though accustomed to that kind work.

Kearns believes two men who recently asked him to sell the whisky he had on hand are connected with the robbery.

"A few days ago." said Kearns, "two men asked me to dispose of my stock. I told them that I couldn't do would only do business according to have been familiar with the place for they took only the best goods. I was away last night and I think the thieves have been keeping a close watch on the place."

Police of the Twenty-second street and Hunting Park station are investi-

Thomas Eldini, forty-five years old, proprietor of a restaurant at 251 North Fourth street, who was shot by a crazed

A Store-ful of Bargains on both our Big Floors!

Extraordinary Values

in this Most Opportune Sale

Suits and Overcoats intended to sell for $55, $60 and $65

now at the One Uniform Price.

WE'VE crowded our East Window with some of them. Go the rounds, and see whether you can touch them ANYWHERE for a good many more dollars than their let-go price of $35 at Perry's!

Unloading Sale

of Perry's

Higher-Priced Clothes

They're just a little above their job. They were never intended to be disposed of at a summary mid-season sacrifice. Exclusively a sale of thoroughbreds, of woolens that know no superior, and of workmanship that knows no equal. And nothing but the extraordinary condition through which the country is now passing, could give you such substantial reductions on what were originally substantial values.

More pressed-down and overflowing Goodness for a Fifty-Dollar Bill than we know of anywhere else for in Fine Suits and Overcoats!

$50

PERRY & CO. 16th and Chestnut Streets