

WRANGEL BLAMES DEFEAT ON ALLIES

Outnumbered Five to One and Ignored by Big Powers, He Says Bitterly

(Reprinted from today's Public Ledger.)
 Sebastopol, Nov. 12 (via Constantinople and Paris, Nov. 16).—Yesterday afternoon General Wrangel, head of the late government of South Russia, gave the following statement to B. F. Kopp, Public Ledger's correspondent:
 "For three years brave and honest men who refused to bow under the yoke of Red barbarism have been carrying on an unequal struggle. Seven months ago our cause seemed completely lost. At that time I placed myself at the head of the army. I appealed to all who still lived in the hope to see their country return. I called them to help me in my task.
 "During the last seven months we have been fighting, abandoned by all, against an enemy ten times superior in numbers. The army has performed miracles of valor; without clothing, lacking all necessary material, it has nevertheless during this period taken more than 87,000 prisoners and 200 guns.
 "In spite of great difficulties, the statement who grouped themselves around me succeeded in solving several important social questions, and in many respects we had found the right way to allow the Russian people to organize its social and political life according to its own wishes. We hoped all the time that the civilized world would recognize the magnitude of our efforts and would understand we were fighting not only for our own country but for world civilization.
 "Unfortunately, the help which we expected with anxiety never came. The night when we saved from annihilation by drawing to our front five Red armies, concluded peace and the great powers observed without intervening the concentration against us of the greatest part of the Bolshevik forces.
 "Today I have against me all the best troops the Bolsheviks can put in the field. My five divisions, weakened by previous losses, are being attacked by twenty-eight enemy divisions. To meet the menace of 25,000 Red horsemen I have only 4500 cavalrymen. For the last seven days the enemy has attacked us without ceasing; my army is bleeding white. In order to hold my lines I have been forced to occupy trenches with dismounted Cossacks. I have given my army orders to cover the embarkation of our wounded officers and of the women and children who are menaced with massacre by the Reds.

 "When these refugees leave the Crimea they will be without a country. I place them under the protection of the civilized world, and I appeal for them to the loyalty and the humanity of all nations for whose cause the Russian people have during the last six years been shedding streams of blood."

DANZIG NOW FREE PORT

Officially Proclaimed as Such by League Representative
 Berlin, Nov. 16.—(By A. P.)—Formal proclamation of Danzig and the surrounding territory as a free city was made yesterday by the constituent assembly at Danzig by Colonel Strutt, who is acting as high commissioner of Danzig in the absence of Sir Reginald Tower. Members of the state council, the German imperial commissioner and representatives of Poland were present.
 "Colonel Strutt announced that the League of Nations shortly would take over the protection of the city and its constitution. He appealed warmly for the maintenance of peace between the Poles and Germans and expressed the hope that they would prosper through mutual trust and friendship. Loud cheers were evoked from the Germans when Colonel Strutt incidentally referred to the German army as "the most wonderful army the world has ever seen."

EMMA GOLDMAN FLEES

Escapes into Ukraine After Quarrel With Lenin
 Washington, Nov. 16.—Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman, the notorious anarchists deported to Russia last spring by this government for violation of the provisions of the espionage act, have made their escape from Soviet Russia and are now in the Ukraine, according to information contained in a letter from Miss Goldman, received here in Washington.
 It is understood that the two anarchists are now in Odessa or Kiev and that they have no intention of returning to Soviet Russia as long as Lenin remains in power.

GLI ALLEATI ED IL PATTO DI RAPALLO

Inghilterra, Francia e Stati Uniti Esprimono Soddissfazione per l'Accordo Italo-Jugoslavo

Published and Distributed Under PERMIT NO. 344
 Authorized by the act of October 3, 1917, on file at the Postoffice of Philadelphia, Pa.
 A. S. MURPHY, Postmaster General.

Roma, 15 novembre.—I giornali italiani, con l'eccezione degli organi nazionalisti, continuano ad approvare il patto di Rapallo e raccomandano al popolo di dimostrare patriottismo e disciplina nel sostenere il Governo in questo grave momento. Essi dichiarano che il popolo dovrà assumere tale attitudine nonostante le rimostranze dei quali sono state fatte per raggiungere un compromesso con la Jugoslavia.

 L'idea Nazionale, il giornale nazionalista, attacca aspramente il trattato, chiamando i ministri che lo negoziarono "traditori," per aver sacrificato

La Difensia. Una protesta contro il trattato, firmata da alcuni, comprende l'considerabile impressione.

We Invite You To see how really clean teeth shine

Men who smoke
 will see a quick, conspicuous change
 Tobacco stains the film-coat on the teeth. So men who smoke will see a great change quickly. But millions of teeth have that same film-coat with a lesser stain.
 Children's teeth are most affected by the film. Young teeth seem most subject to decay. Dentists advise that Pepsodent be daily applied from the time the first tooth appears. Otherwise, decay is almost certain.
 Pepsodent brings to women whiter, prettier teeth. But that means cleaner teeth and safer. The luster comes from constant film removal and the high polish given to the teeth.

Old ways don't end it
 Old ways of brushing with tooth-paste, film. Millions of people know of tooth discolor and decay despite the daily care.
 The reason lies in film. It clings and hides, and very few escape its damage.
 It is the film-coat that does not get off the teeth. Film is the base of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.
 Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. All these troubles have been constantly increasing — some have grown alarming. And all because we knew no way to daily fight the film.
A new dental era
 Dental science has for years studied to combat film. Ways have now been found to do it. Able authorities have proved those methods by many careful tests. Now leading dentists everywhere are urging their daily use.

Your teeth are coated with a film. When fresh the film is viscous—you can feel it with your tongue. Later it forms a cloudy coat. It enters crevices and stays. It dims the teeth, and now we know that it causes most tooth troubles.
 There is now a way to end it. This week your druggist, if you ask, will give you a 10-Day Tube. Get it and see what it does for your teeth. Learn what film removal means.
 These methods have been combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. Millions of people have come to employ it. You can see the results wherever you look—in glistening teeth, in teeth you envy, maybe.
 A new dental era has begun, dug to these discoveries. And these are benefits everyone should share. So you are urged to let this 10-Day Tube show what Pepsodent can do.
Brings five effects
 Pepsodent brings five distinct effects. All are important, some are quick. A few days' use will tell you no doubt about them. And a little more will tell you what each one means to you.
 One ingredient in Pepsodent multiplies the action of the saliva digest starch.
 The alkaline action of Pepsodent acts once. This is the only action which causes tooth decay.
 Two factors directly attack the film. One keeps the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere. The other breaks the Pepsodent effect, so that they mean tooth protection you never had before.
Watch these effects. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.
 Compare your teeth now with your teeth in ten days. Then judge this new-day method by what you see and feel and know.
