

MRS. WILSON GIVES GOOD OYSTER RECIPES

Some Delicious Ways of Preparing and Serving This Succulent Product of the Eastern Shore of Maryland

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

This is the last week of the Prize Menu Contest

Three prizes are awarded for the best menu for a $1.50 dinner for four people.

FIRST, $2.50. SECOND, $1. THIRD, $1.

Mrs. Wilson's Menu Contest

Evening Public Ledger Independence Square

Your full name must be given and correct address on the menu.

Address all menus to Mrs. Wilson's Menu Contest

The contest will close with the announcement of winners on Monday, November 22.

Creamed Oysters Place in a saucepan One cup of strained oyster juice, One cup of milk, Seven tablespoons of flour,

Stir to dissolve the flour and then bring to a boil and cook slowly for five minutes.

Broiled or Grilled Oysters Open large oysters and place on a deep platter.

Oyster Kebob Cut pieces of bacon the size of an oyster and then place the size of a onion.

The Unwelcome Wife

By HAZEL DEYO BACHELOR

Anthony Harriman's marriage to Charlotte Grimes, a girl beneath him socially, is disappointing in the extreme.

Tony's Silence CHARLOTTE unpacked her bag and put its contents away.

Charlotte rather dreaded meeting her father, but when he came home at the end of the day it was not so bad as she had expected.

"So you've come back for a visit, eh?" "Yes," said Tony.

Charlotte rather dreaded meeting her father, but when he came home at the end of the day it was not so bad as she had expected.

"Not ashamed to wear one of your old dresses now that you're a lady?" "Yes," said Charlotte.

Scalloped Oysters Rub baking dish lightly with butter and have one inch layer of crushed soda crackers, then a layer of oysters.

Oyster Omelet Chop one dozen oysters and place in a pan with one tablespoon of butter.

Fried Oysters Look over the oysters carefully and wash them in cold water.

BANDS OF ITSELF TRIM THIS FROCK

By CORINNE LOWE

So often nowadays a frock is a mere parade of bands.

The possibilities of ornamentation contained in folds of self-material is, in fact, inexhaustible.

Send Him a Book Dear Cynthia—This is my first time in writing to you.

Cynthia, will you please tell me if it would be proper to give a Christmas present to my father?

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE By L. B. LANGRISH

Please Tell Me What to Do

By CYNTHIA

Wants Thanksgiving Story A Reader—Cynthia I think a story yourself. Try it.

Victim of Gossip Don't have any "ifs" in your mind. You must live it down.

Matinette It is not possible for me to print the name of any place so go after the matinee.

Welcome Him at Home Dear Cynthia—discussing a rose recently which we decided to leave to your judgment.

A young girl sixteen years of age, very pleasing and attractive, met a young girl a few years older than herself.

The young man in himself a very bright and well-educated young man, also of very gentle and refined parentage.

Dear Cynthia—This is my first time in writing to you. So I would like very much if you would answer my questions.

Cynthia, will you please tell me if it would be proper to give a Christmas present to my father?

If you think so, what would be proper to give him? I have a few dollars and a number of the autumn models.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

Herbert Barnes closed his book and looked back as comfortably as the dog would allow.

WHAT'S WHAT

By HELEN DECIE

At home, a diner may decline any food served; but when visiting, whether invited or not, she should accept.

All these little social laws are based upon one great principle—affected hospitality.

The other girl acknowledged the thanks a bit absently; she was wondering how soon she would get home herself.

"I won't do that again," she told herself, as she tried to catch up with the clock.

There are few of us so hard-hearted as that; when somebody pleads because her work is always done for her.

YOU recognize her, no doubt, especially if you are working in an office.

She is just as capable of doing her work as any of the other girls, but she knows how to get out of it.

The question corner Today's Inquiries

1. Describe a convenient table that can be adapted for various uses.

2. How can a five and ten cent store make a more attractive window for a very acceptable Christmas gift?

3. What useful accessory for the ironing board saves time in putting on a new cover?

4. Of what material is a waterproof bag for wet overcoats made, for use in the hall closet?

5. Is it correct to give a dinner at a hotel in an evening dress without a hat?

6. Describe a handy and decorative utensil for opening preserve jars.

Yesterday's Answers

1. When white cotton garments are yellowed, dip them in a bleach made of the juice of three lemons.

2. The handkerchief and tiny change purse can be kept in a pocket specially made for them in a new pair of overalls.

3. A tiny clothes tree with a number of hangers decorated with baby heads would please the little hearts of the dainty doll.

4. A novel bit of decoration for the front of a dark coat or a fur neckpiece is a bouquet of soft woody flowers in bright colors.

5. Tiny jeweled watches are being worn on a fine pinned to the coat or blouse.

6. A convenient seam ripper is made of a razor blade, fitted into a tooth-edge cover with a handle.

THE GIRL WHO PLEADS "BE A GOOD SPORT AND HELP ME"

Keeps Back the Work of the Office Because She Doesn't Know How to Get Her Share Done—None Will Be Sorry When She Leaves

EVERYBODY was hurrying except the little blue-eyed girl over in the corner.

"Come on, somebody!" she pleaded. "Be a good sport and help me out with this report. I'll never get it alone, and you'll work faster than I do; you can finish your work all right."

"You're a peach!" declared blue eyes, solemnly. "You've helped me. I never would have got home tonight."

The other girl acknowledged the thanks a bit absently; she was wondering how soon she would get home herself.

"I won't do that again," she told herself, as she tried to catch up with the clock.

There are few of us so hard-hearted as that; when somebody pleads because her work is always done for her.

YOU recognize her, no doubt, especially if you are working in an office.

She is just as capable of doing her work as any of the other girls, but she knows how to get out of it.

The question corner Today's Inquiries

1. Describe a convenient table that can be adapted for various uses.

2. How can a five and ten cent store make a more attractive window for a very acceptable Christmas gift?

3. What useful accessory for the ironing board saves time in putting on a new cover?

4. Of what material is a waterproof bag for wet overcoats made, for use in the hall closet?

5. Is it correct to give a dinner at a hotel in an evening dress without a hat?

6. Describe a handy and decorative utensil for opening preserve jars.

Yesterday's Answers

1. When white cotton garments are yellowed, dip them in a bleach made of the juice of three lemons.

2. The handkerchief and tiny change purse can be kept in a pocket specially made for them in a new pair of overalls.

3. A tiny clothes tree with a number of hangers decorated with baby heads would please the little hearts of the dainty doll.

4. A novel bit of decoration for the front of a dark coat or a fur neckpiece is a bouquet of soft woody flowers in bright colors.

5. Tiny jeweled watches are being worn on a fine pinned to the coat or blouse.

6. A convenient seam ripper is made of a razor blade, fitted into a tooth-edge cover with a handle.

Along the eastern shore of Maryland the oyster beds furnish countless numbers of persons with this succulent bivalve.

An overcooked oyster loses its delicate flavor, and for this reason serve them at once; do not try to keep them hot, as this only toughens the oyster and makes it unpalatable.

Oyster à la Epicure Place in a bowl One-half cup of oysters, One tablespoon of lemon juice, One-half teaspoon of ground oyster, One-half teaspoon of paprika.

Mix and then dip the oysters in the mixture and return to well-cleaned shells. Chill and serve.

Steamed Oysters in Shell Wash and scrub the oysters well, then set in a wire basket and place in a large kettle with a close-fitting lid.

Cover closely and steam until shell opens. Remove from kettle. Place oysters on platter and then place one teaspoon of melted butter in a shell; then lay in the oyster. Dust lightly with paprika.

Broiled or Grilled Oysters Open large oysters and place on a deep platter. Remove the oyster and broil in a wire basket.

Oyster Kebob Cut pieces of bacon the size of an oyster and then place the size of a onion.

Beach Woodcocks Wrap a large cloth in thin strips of lemon and then fasten with a toothpick.

Through a Woman's Eyes By JEAN NEWTON

Feeding the Animals I HAS always been with more or less of a slur that we women have been told to "feed him well, my dear—the way to a man's heart lies via his stomach."

Just the same, that is one of the ways in which husbands show their devotion and attentiveness—by giving us things we like to eat.

Now that women have discovered other contributory means of making a husband happy, it is still nettling to find a man begrudging to them the province of feeding him to show their thoughtfulness and attention.

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

Address of Night School To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Will you please publish in your paper the address of a night school teaching English and the charges for attending it?"

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

Address all menus to Mrs. Wilson's Menu Contest

The contest will close with the announcement of winners on Monday, November 22.

Creamed Oysters Place in a saucepan One cup of strained oyster juice, One cup of milk, Seven tablespoons of flour,

Stir to dissolve the flour and then bring to a boil and cook slowly for five minutes.

Broiled or Grilled Oysters Open large oysters and place on a deep platter.

Oyster Kebob Cut pieces of bacon the size of an oyster and then place the size of a onion.

Beach Woodcocks Wrap a large cloth in thin strips of lemon and then fasten with a toothpick.

Through a Woman's Eyes By JEAN NEWTON

Feeding the Animals I HAS always been with more or less of a slur that we women have been told to "feed him well, my dear—the way to a man's heart lies via his stomach."

Just the same, that is one of the ways in which husbands show their devotion and attentiveness—by giving us things we like to eat.

Now that women have discovered other contributory means of making a husband happy, it is still nettling to find a man begrudging to them the province of feeding him to show their thoughtfulness and attention.

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

Address of Night School To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Will you please publish in your paper the address of a night school teaching English and the charges for attending it?"

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

Address all menus to Mrs. Wilson's Menu Contest

The contest will close with the announcement of winners on Monday, November 22.

Creamed Oysters Place in a saucepan One cup of strained oyster juice, One cup of milk, Seven tablespoons of flour,

Stir to dissolve the flour and then bring to a boil and cook slowly for five minutes.

Broiled or Grilled Oysters Open large oysters and place on a deep platter.

Oyster Kebob Cut pieces of bacon the size of an oyster and then place the size of a onion.

Beach Woodcocks Wrap a large cloth in thin strips of lemon and then fasten with a toothpick.

Through a Woman's Eyes By JEAN NEWTON

Feeding the Animals I HAS always been with more or less of a slur that we women have been told to "feed him well, my dear—the way to a man's heart lies via his stomach."

Just the same, that is one of the ways in which husbands show their devotion and attentiveness—by giving us things we like to eat.

Now that women have discovered other contributory means of making a husband happy, it is still nettling to find a man begrudging to them the province of feeding him to show their thoughtfulness and attention.

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

Address of Night School To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Will you please publish in your paper the address of a night school teaching English and the charges for attending it?"

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.

"The school having six classes which is nearest to the address which you give me in your letter is the Southwark School, Ninth and Millin streets.

A Masquerade Dance To the Editor of Woman's Page

"Dear Madam—Can you help me with the following? I am going to give a masquerade dance for my daughter, at which there will be about twenty young people present.</