Nancy Wynne Chats About the Tea for Miss Heckscher This Afternoon-She Anticipates the Charity Ball With Pleasure—Other Bits of Interest and Allen Earnshaw are to be married four days before Christmas?

The plans were first to have a church wedding, but of course since the recent death in Mr. Earnshaw's family a few weeks ago, the wedding will be a very quiet one and will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McCabe on St. James Place. Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Beyland, Mary's two sisters, will attend her as matrons of honor, and Walter Earnshaw will be best man. There will be no other attendants and only the immediate families will be present. I have not heard if Harry Beyland will get on for the wedding, but I doubt it, as he left so lately for the Middle West, where he is atationed. You know he is in the regular army. Margaret was to have joined him out West a few weeks ago, but I have not heard if she went or not. She may have decided to remain until after the wedding. In any case she will be here at that time. Which is a remarkable speech, but you know what I mean.

Girls' League yesterday afternoon at 1525 Locust street. Elisabeth Latta sang delightfully. I do love to hear her she is so easy and has such rich, even tones. I never see her that I do not think of the late Mrs. Scammon-Jones and how proud she was of Elizabeth and her singing. I never knew her to appreciate one of her pupils so much. Of course, she had good cause to do so. Miss Quinlan played very, very well, too, and the girls who came seemed to love it. There were lots of people you know there. Mrs. Charles Carver, Jr., Mrs. Henry C. Boyer and Mrs. George Lorimer were receiving. The latter is hostess for this month and yesterday was her last tea. I understand there are to be two given in a month and different members of the women's board are to THAT was a beautiful tea at the hers of the women's board are to e hostesses for each special month.

chairman of the teas. SAW Deborah Seal on the street the dother day. Speaking of Elizabeth Latta singing made me think of Deborah. She has a very good voice, you know. Didn't she sing well in the Floradora sextet at the "Talk of the Town?" Well, but that was not what Town?" Well, but that was not what I started to say; what I wanted to talk about was the beautiful fur coat Deborah was wearing. It was composed of two kinds of fur, black and gray, and it was long, almost to the bottom of her skirt. Her hat was a black velvet model, and as one girl aptly described it, was "fifty-fifty" in size. It was trimmed entirely in blue stitchery and was most becoming to Deborah.
