

LOSER IN WHITE HOUSE TURKEY FIGHT. This 38-pound turkey, a gift from the Chamber of Commerce, of Cuero, Texas, to President Wilson for the Thanksgiving dinner, fought a turkey from South Trimble, Kentucky. The latter was declared the victor in the battle, held yesterday afternoon.

SHE WAS AMONG THOSE PRESENT. Miss Gladys Leslie, as she appeared during the actors' ball, held at the Hotel Astor, on Saturday night.

CHARLIE WITH THE LADIES. Charlie Chaplin, the screen comedian, who was recently divorced, was seen much with the ladies at the actors' ball, in New York. Left to right, the ladies of stardom are Miss Vivian Tobin, Miss Genevieve Tobin, Miss Jobyna Howland and Miss Marion Oakley.

JERSEY RINGLE IN ACTION. The well-known aerial acrobat seems never to tire in trying new stunts. This photograph was taken as he worked over the suburbs of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

ARMORED CAR AT MACSWINEY FUNERAL. This bit of military equipment and a guard were stationed along the route of the funeral in Ireland, to be used in case of an outbreak.

PAINTS TRAFFIC SIGNS. Just a short time ago the Philadelphia Police Department opened its own sign painting shop, at 1038 Greenwich street. Joseph Kane was picked from the force to do the work.

CHECKER-BILLIARDS. This close game is in progress at the Boys' Club conducted by the Volunteers of America, at 1025 Callowhill street.

TWENTY-SIX STORIES ABOVE BROADWAY. You can see a part of New York through the loop of the cowgirl's lariat. The western girl is Miss Lorena Trickey. Yes, that's her right name. She is a noted horsewoman.

ALBA B. JOHNSON, president of the Chamber of Commerce, discusses Philadelphia public improvements in an interview on the editorial page.

CROWN PRINCE OF JAPAN. He will soon start on a tour of the world. The heir apparent will be accompanied by a large entourage.

GRAY TOWERS. This is the home of William Welsh Harrison, at Glenside. The large hot houses are in the foreground. The photograph was taken from the Ledger Newsplane and shows much of the Harrison estate.

IT MUST BE A FIGHT TO A FINISH. We see no referee in this bout, staged by school boys in Boston. The ring-side folks are enjoying the tilt.

PLAYED TO CAPACITY. These girls, of the William Penn High School Alumnae, were members of the cast of "Back to Earth," given at the Academy of Music last night. Back row, left to right: Loretta Daly, Maybelle Marston, Virginia Seibert and Hilda Young. Front row: Elsie Thatcher, Helen Tappan, Clara B. Hirsch and Lillie Bernhang.

FREE MILK FOR ITALY'S CHILDREN. Mrs. John A. Drake, president and organizer of the American Free Milk for Italy Fund (left), has just returned from Italy.

At the right is Mrs. R. Marshall, who is assisting Mrs. Drake.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

THOMAS GILMORE, 1263 South Bonsall street, is operating a nailing machine at the William J. Kee manufacturing plant, 111-117 North Orianna street. In putting the bands and battens on the large boxes, the machine drives twenty-four nails at a time.

HENRY ARTHUR JONES, noted English playwright, is in this country to aid the directors in producing some of his best works.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

THIS IS RESERVE PATROLMAN ALEXANDER RITCHIE, of Broad and Chestnut streets, where he has served three of his eighteen years on the police force. He is four years old and lives with his wife and three children at 1629 North Eleven.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

NEWCOMB CARLTON, president of the Western Union Telegraph Co., heads long dispute with State Department.

MISS FRANCES KAPPELMAN, 1940 North Franklin street, Philadelphia.