

PILGRIM FATHERS HONORED IN CHURCH

Descendants Brave Rain to Attend First Observance of Tercentenary

"TOWN MEETING" TONIGHT

The Pilgrim fathers were remembered in Philadelphia last night by a band of their descendants, who braved a driving rain and attended the services at the Central Congregational Church, Eighteenth and Green streets, opening the Pilgrim tercentenary celebration in this city.

Many patriotic organizations and colonial societies will participate in the "Town Meeting" in the Academy of Music tonight, which will be one of the outstanding features of the tercentenary.

Former President Taft and Canon E. A. H. Burroughs, of Petersborough Cathedral, England, will deliver addresses in which topics of national and international moment will be considered.

List of Box Holders

Six boxes have been taken by Mrs. James Starr, Jr., for the Pennsylvania Society of the Colonial Dames of America. Four boxes have been taken by Mrs. C. Howard Clark, Jr., for the Society of New England Women. Two boxes, engaged by Mrs. James Large, will be occupied by members of Chapter No. 2, Colonial Dames of America.

Mrs. L. Webster Fox has taken a box for the Imperial Order Daughters of the British Empire, and Mrs. Barclay Warburton has engaged a box for the Emergency Aid. Members of the Robert Patterson Chapter of the Society of the War of 1812 will occupy a box engaged by Mrs. S. P. Snowden Mitchell. Another box, engaged for members of the Red Cross, will be paid for by private subscriptions.

Mrs. Charles E. Wolbert, representing the Pennsylvania State Society, Daughters of the Revolution, and Mrs. Charles W. Nevin, representing the Philadelphia Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, are box-holders.

Among others who have engaged boxes are Alva B. Johnson, Edward Bok, Mrs. George B. Evans, Mrs. Arthur H. Lee, Mrs. H. S. Prentiss Nichols, Mrs. Charles M. Lea, Mrs. Cornelius Stevenson, Mrs. A. H. Fritz, Mrs. Stanley G. Flagg, Miss Anne Thomson and Charles Scott.

Philadelphians Going Abroad

The White Star Line steamer Olympic, from New York Saturday for Cherbourg, will carry the first large number of passengers bound to spend the Christmas holidays across the Atlantic. The Philadelphians on board are F. P. H. Goldsmith, Charles H. Law, Mrs. Charles H. Law, E. L. Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Van Court Carwithen, John P. Smith, John Bako, Herbert E. Carpenter, John Moskos and Joseph Bella.

CHRISTMAS SAVINGS BURNED

Fire in Milnor Street Home Destroys $65 in Cash Savings amounting to $65, which had been gathered together during the last several months for the purpose of buying Christmas presents, were consumed by the flames, which caused damage estimated at more than $500 last night at the home of Mrs. Stefania Shiplak, 4728 Milnor street, Germantown.

Shortly after 8 o'clock Mrs. Shiplak's daughter Wanda, twenty-seven years old, discovered the fire in the second story front room of the house. It is believed that the fire was caused by rats nibbling at several boxes of matches which were in the room.

Two $20 gold pieces, $65 in paper money, a pearl necklace and a gold wedding ring were among the articles that were lost in the fire. The two gold pieces, which composed a portion of the Christmas savings owned by Wanda, were later recovered in a badly damaged condition. The flames were extinguished with little difficulty by the several fire engine companies that responded to the alarm.

PENN MEN TO HEAR MAYOR

Other Prominent Speakers Scheduled for Junior Banquet Tonight

Mayor Moore will be the principal speaker this evening at the banquet of the Junior class of the University of Pennsylvania held in the Hotel Adelphi.

The banquet, which will be held in the Gold Room, marks the second evening's event of the junior week activities. Other speakers will be Fullerton L. Waldo, of the Pringle Lazzoni; Edgar Fahn Smith, former provost; Acting Provost Josiah H. Pennington, and Dr. Theodore Grayson, of the Wharton School faculty.

Theatrical people from shows at present playing in the city will furnish the entertainment. Among these will be Miss Helen Rhipman. An orchestra will furnish music throughout the dinner.

The Junior Annals, a publication similar to the Senior Class Record, and detailing the history of the class, will be distributed at the banquet.

In order not to leave even a few hours of the week unoccupied with entertainment, the class has decided to have a theatre party at the Garrick

Geu Sodality Entertains

The Geu Young Men's Sodality will direct an entertainment and promenade in the auditorium of St. Joseph's College tonight. The entertainment will take the form of a three-act comedy, "The Man on the Box," presented by members of the organization. The proceeds of the affair will be used toward the renovation and extension of club-rooms. A reception will take place after the entertainment.

TOYS, DOLLS and GAMES

JUST one month from to-morrow will be Christmas Eve! The busiest month of the whole year! A month of eager anticipation for the children! We grown-ups can't forget the joys and excitement of the weeks before Christmas when we were children—and all of us recognize the right of every child to VISIT THE TOY STORE, to see and talk with Santa Claus.

Why not bring your little ones to-morrow? The crowd will not be so great as it will be later. Santa Claus has a PICTURE STORY BOOK for each little visitor. And all those who acknowledge themselves as Santa Claus' lieutenants will be glad to know this:

Over-Blouses and Basques

In varying lengths, some reaching nearly to the knee, $7.50 to $75.00. A wide price-range indeed, but there are scores and scores of models—of crepe Georgette, satin and satin-and-Georgette combined, distinctively beaded and embroidered, some trimmed with lovely brocade.

In black-and-white effects, flesh, white, suit shades, the delicate beige and all the new autumn shades.
