

COLLECTOR ROBBED BY ARMED BANDIT

Hold-Up Man Threatens to Throw Pepper in Eyes of Victims in Store

SUITS AND CASH STOLEN

A robber used a box of red pepper instead of a revolver to obtain $50 from Max Snyder, a collector, at the store of Angelo Capello, 818 Catherine street, last night.

Snyder drives a wagon for a wholesale grocery and makes collections. He lives at 1835 South Seventh street.

The man whipped out a revolver and held the collector at bay, then he emptied a box of red pepper on the counter.

"Give me a note, but this will buy your suit," he said, then he seized the box of pepper. He menaced the three men with pepper, obtained Snyder's money and several dollars from the cash register and hatched out.

In the street the man threw the pepper in the gutter and escaped. The police of the Seventh and Carpenter streets station are conducting an investigation.

Morris Pure, tailor, of 818 Vine street, suspected three "customers" who came into his store for being hold-up men, so he went upstairs and armed himself with a revolver.

Then, because "he did not want to shoot the men," he called the owner with three good suits of clothes and $135 in money, taken from one of Pure's pockets.

Pure reported to the police that the men came into his shop and asked to be fitted with entire new outfits of clothing. He said he did not like their looks, so he went after his gun.

Last night Detectives McFlin and Fairies arrested three men at Eighth and Callowhill streets who answered descriptions given by Pure as being hold-up men.

The woman's secretary attracted a street man, the Thirty-second street station, who ran after him, firing three shots.

Pedestrians joined the patrolman in the pursuit of the man who ran onto Baltimore avenue and escaped through an alley. Mrs. Ward's pocketbook, containing $15 of the $49, was found later in the alley.

Detectives McDowell and Baker, of the Thirty-second street and Woodland avenue station, believe they know the thief.

Two Crash Just Before Start of Pulitzer Cup Trophy Event

Minola, N. Y., Nov. 25.—(By A. P.)—Forty-four high-speed airplanes crashed today in the Pulitzer cup race here today.

GIRL HE DESERTED PITIES TREADWAY

Ruth Duffy, Whom He Helped Downward, Weeps for Him in "Correction" Cell

SILENT ABOUT OTHER GIRL

Peter T. Treadway, arrested with Marie Williams in connection with the murder of Henry T. Peirce, left one girl in this city who, although he deserted her for Marie, and although she has been arrested, still weeps for him.

Tears came into the blue eyes of Ruth Shaw, alias West, but really Mrs. Ruth Duffy, when she was told in her cell this morning about the predicament in which she found herself when she had lived for nearly three months.

She admitted frankly she had never been married to the man, although she had known him for a long time, and had lived with him in a rooming house.

The early days of her married life, she said this morning, were happy. Her husband had a good job in the powder factory at Pottsville and she herself was a dressmaker.

Her hair grew again and her beauty returned. Even in the severely plain dress of "the Correction," she is an attractive blonde, and this attractiveness seemed to win the temporary affections of Treadway.

But, even after she began to live with him, he insisted on her continuing the street life in which he found her.

She was arrested by vice squad men in the Twenty-second street station, and was released on probation. On March 24 she was taken up for breaking her parole.

She has been a model prisoner, according to Superintendent Peirce, and will go to do anything she has been told to do the first time she has shown signs of disobedience.

She has been a model prisoner, according to Superintendent Peirce, and will go to do anything she has been told to do the first time she has shown signs of disobedience.

She has been a model prisoner, according to Superintendent Peirce, and will go to do anything she has been told to do the first time she has shown signs of disobedience.

She has been a model prisoner, according to Superintendent Peirce, and will go to do anything she has been told to do the first time she has shown signs of disobedience.

She has been a model prisoner, according to Superintendent Peirce, and will go to do anything she has been told to do the first time she has shown signs of disobedience.

She has been a model prisoner, according to Superintendent Peirce, and will go to do anything she has been told to do the first time she has shown signs of disobedience.

She has been a model prisoner, according to Superintendent Peirce, and will go to do anything she has been told to do the first time she has shown signs of disobedience.

PEIRCE MURDER SUSPECT AND VICTIM'S AUTO

Peter T. Treadway, alias Norman Williams, who was captured in Wheeling, W. Va., with Marie Williams, with whom he fled in this city after the murder of Henry T. Peirce, a business man, in his apartment, 2067 Market street, early Sunday morning. The motorcar shown is the one used by the fugitives in their flight. It was recovered in a Wheeling garage. It belonged to Peirce.

Find Peirce's Pin in Wheeling Pawnshop

Continued from Page One

Treadway was in a early mood after the shooting of Peirce. He had been brought to the station at 7 o'clock, but at first he refused to eat.

"I'll not eat another thing," he said. "I'll get out of this cell."

Later, however, he changed his mind, and ate a meal. He was then brought to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

Find Peirce's Pin in Wheeling Pawnshop

Continued from Page One

Treadway was in a early mood after the shooting of Peirce. He had been brought to the station at 7 o'clock, but at first he refused to eat.

"I'll not eat another thing," he said. "I'll get out of this cell."

Later, however, he changed his mind, and ate a meal. He was then brought to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

Find Peirce's Pin in Wheeling Pawnshop

Continued from Page One

Treadway was in a early mood after the shooting of Peirce. He had been brought to the station at 7 o'clock, but at first he refused to eat.

"I'll not eat another thing," he said. "I'll get out of this cell."

Later, however, he changed his mind, and ate a meal. He was then brought to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

They were taken to the station and the good-looking youth and the pretty girl who had come with him to Wheeling were taken to the station.

SEEK TO STOP BIG POWERS IN LEAGUE

Small Nations Demand Larger Role With Four Members of Council

AMENDMENTS ARE SOUGHT

By the Associated Press. Geneva, Nov. 25.—No meeting of the assembly of the League of Nations was held today in order to give the members full time to consider amendments.

Distinct lines of cleavage seem to be making their appearance at the meeting of the assembly, delegates from the smaller nations insisting that the five countries they represent should play an influential role in the work of the assembly.

Honorio Pueyrredon, foreign minister of Argentina and one of that nation's representatives, is one of the smaller nations insisting that the five countries they represent should play an influential role in the work of the assembly.

The proceedings of the assembly, which are at present really being carried out by the committee, will be reported as merely preliminary to its real work, which will begin when these committees submit reports and debate them.

FLAGPOLE 120 FEET TALL IS DEDICATED TO HEROES

Richmond and Kensington Erect Staff to Men Who Lost Lives

A flagpole 120 feet high and a huge American flag were dedicated today at the intersection of Richmond and Kensington streets, in honor of Port Richmond and Kensington boys in the war.

The dedication was held at 10 o'clock and was presided by a parade. Funds for the memorial were raised through the Fathers' Association by a popular subscription solicited by the Port Richmond Boys' Club.

Members of the American Legion, Boy Scouts, veterans of foreign wars, Spanish War and 41, A. I. veterans took part in the parade. The flagpole is located at 2300 Kensington street and Allegheny avenue.

Major A. J. Drexel Biddle, president of the Fathers' Association, was master of ceremonies at the exercises and chief marshal of the parade.

Frank W. Melvin, formerly a first lieutenant in the twenty-sixth Infantry, was master of ceremonies at the dedication.

Mrs. Myrtle Ashford, of 2049 Walnut street, where Treadway and Marie Williams lodged, said today she had known them for several years.

"The girl seemed anxious to impress me," she said. "She had a very nice figure, and was very attractive."

"I heard she had a very nice figure, and was very attractive," she said. "She had a very nice figure, and was very attractive."

"I heard she had a very nice figure, and was very attractive," she said. "She had a very nice figure, and was very attractive."

SALVATIONIST HEAD SPEAKS AT SERVICE

General Booth, Chief of Whole Army, and Evangeline Hold Services

WELCOMED BY CITIZENS

General W. Bramwell Booth, of London, world leader of the Salvation Army, was the chief speaker in a special observance of Thanksgiving Day at the University City Y. M. C. A. today.

The observance was held at 7 o'clock tonight. General Booth, with Commander Evangeline Booth, head of the Salvation Army in the United States, arrived in this city at 5:30 o'clock last night.

They were met by a committee of fifty citizens, headed by Judge John M. Patterson, and several hundred Salvationists including Lieutenant Colonel Arthur T. Bennett.

Edward J. Cattell greeted General Booth in behalf of Mayor Moore, who was unable to be present. Then, while two Salvation Army bands played the "Star Spangled Banner," many heads were uncovered.

The general said he was calling for 1000 men and women to serve as Salvation Army missionaries in China and other far-eastern countries. Doctors, nurses, teachers, preachers and newspapermen were wanted.

The police say they believe Ficara is one of the auto bandits who committed four robberies between 4 and 8 o'clock last Tuesday evening.

The police say they believe Ficara is one of the auto bandits who committed four robberies between 4 and 8 o'clock last Tuesday evening.

The police say they believe Ficara is one of the auto bandits who committed four robberies between 4 and 8 o'clock last Tuesday evening.

The police say they believe Ficara is one of the auto bandits who committed four robberies between 4 and 8 o'clock last Tuesday evening.

The police say they believe Ficara is one of the auto bandits who committed four robberies between 4 and 8 o'clock last Tuesday evening.

The police say they believe Ficara is one of the auto bandits who committed four robberies between 4 and 8 o'clock last Tuesday evening.

The police say they believe Ficara is one of the auto bandits who committed four robberies between 4 and 8 o'clock last Tuesday evening.

The police say they believe Ficara is one of the auto bandits who committed four robberies between 4 and 8 o'clock last Tuesday evening.

The police say they believe Ficara is one of the auto bandits who committed four robberies between 4 and 8 o'clock last Tuesday evening.

Advertisement for Lexington Automobile Salesmen. It features the Lexington logo and text: "We have a most attractive selling contract to offer men of experience and sales records. Complete line of open and closed models. Applications strictly Confidential. Lexington Motor Co. of Pennsylvania, W. A. KUSBR, President, Lexington Bldg. 851 North Broad St."

Mrs. Charles R. Troxell Acts as Judge at Hotel Walton Exhibit

The Philadelphia Pompanian Club held a Thanksgiving specialty show this afternoon at the Hotel Walton, and a large number of high-class dogs are down for judgment.

The Philadelphia Pompanian Club held a Thanksgiving specialty show this afternoon at the Hotel Walton, and a large number of high-class dogs are down for judgment.

The Philadelphia Pompanian Club held a Thanksgiving specialty show this afternoon at the Hotel Walton, and a large number of high-class dogs are down for judgment.

Back to Mission Work in India

Mrs. Mary Rothwick, a daughter of Ex-Councilman Pringle Rothwick, of Chestnut Hill, sailed yesterday for New York on her way to India, where she will remain for six years engaged in missionary work for the Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Mary Rothwick, a daughter of Ex-Councilman Pringle Rothwick, of Chestnut Hill, sailed yesterday for New York on her way to India, where she will remain for six years engaged in missionary work for the Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Mary Rothwick, a daughter of Ex-Councilman Pringle Rothwick, of Chestnut Hill, sailed yesterday for New York on her way to India, where she will remain for six years engaged in missionary work for the Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Mary Rothwick, a daughter of Ex-Councilman Pringle Rothwick, of Chestnut Hill, sailed yesterday for New York on her way to India, where she will remain for six years engaged in missionary work for the Lutheran Church.

$200 REWARD

To finder of platinum ring containing East of North Fifth street, near Oak Lane, or Germantown. Return to 124-W.

To finder of platinum ring containing East of North Fifth street, near Oak Lane, or Germantown. Return to 124-W.

To finder of platinum ring containing East of North Fifth street, near Oak Lane, or Germantown. Return to 124-W.

To finder of platinum ring containing East of North Fifth street, near Oak Lane, or Germantown. Return to 124-W.