

"STAN" COFALL. He is now booting the ball for the Union football team, but his name has often been printed in connection with his work at Notre Dame.

BASKETS FOR THE POOR. Dr. McHenry, of the Protestant Episcopal Mission, Third, below Walnut street, and his helpers gathered hundreds of baskets of good things. They were distributed yesterday.

SUES HAL CHASE FOR DIVORCE. Mrs. Anna M. Chase, wife of the former major league ball player, filed suit at Cincinnati.

PUBLIC SCHOOL MUSICIANS. The Sharswood Public School, Second and Wolf streets, has its own orchestra, and it's a good one. At the left we introduce to you Leon Gordon, the orchestra drummer's outfit.

Ledger Photo Service.

ARRIVE ON THE LA SAVOIE, IN NEW YORK. The Duke and Duchess de Richelieu, of France.

MRS. D. H. KINGMAN. She has a leading part in the patient extravaganza in aid of needy children.

MISS FLORENCE COX (LEFT) AND MISS FLORA VARE. They will act as aides in the Persian Rose Cafe.

MISS KATHRYN SMITH. She was among those at the first dress rehearsal, held on the roof garden of the Bellevue-Stratford, yesterday afternoon.

CAPTAIN OLIVER RANDOLPH PARRY, architect, discusses building reconstruction in an interview on the editorial page.

TWO PENNSYLVANIA BISHOPS. Bishop Berry, of Philadelphia (left), and Bishop Francis J. McConnell, of Pittsburgh. They are attending the Methodist Episcopal Bishops' Conference in Atlantic City.

METHODIST BISHOP OF PARIS. He is Bishop Edgar Blake, also attending the bishops' meetings.

FIRST GERMAN POSTAL PLANE. Herr Glescherts, minister of posts, is seen in front of machine on the first mail flight.

HELP TO DEFEND ADANA, CILICIA. These Armenian women have been fighting alongside of the men folks against the Turkish forces.

PICTURE SENT BY TELEPHONE. This picture of the Indian chief was sent from St. Louis to New York, more than a thousand miles.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS AGNES KELLY, 1810 Gladstone street, trimming loose threads from shirts and folding them at the rate of 800 a day, at the Eagle Shirt Co., Sixteenth and Reed streets.

IN THE PULITZER RACE AT MITCHELL FIELD TODAY. He is Lieut. C. C. Mosely, who will fly a Verville-Packard plane.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

THIS IS ROBERT BROWN, a reserve patrolman, who has been stationed at Broad street and South Penn square for six months. He lives at 2158 East Norris street. Brown is 31 years old and single. He has been on the police force eight years. His vacations are spent in fishing.

RELEASED FROM TURKISH PRISON

RELEASED FROM TURKISH PRISON. Lieutenant John Shismanian, of Fresno, California, a former officer of the Kentucky National Guard, was made a prisoner while serving with the Armenians.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS JULIA NARDALENA. 610 South Front street Philadelphia.