Basketball Will Claim Many Gridiron Performers. Wray, Ward and Whitehill Made Good With a Vengeance in Closing Football Games

The casual visitor on Frankiin Field yesterday afternoon would never think that the day before 28,000 persons had witnessed the downfail of Gil Dobie's eleven at the hands of Johnny He'sman's Pennsylvania team. About the only evidence that something had occurred the day before was the paper scattered all over the stands. Aside from this the picture presented was that of a deserted stadium. Nary a football player was in sight, either at the training house, in the football room or the usual haunts for gridiron performers, They all skipped the environs of the University after their long period of training. Some went to their homes over the holidays, while others visited friends or remained in their fraternity houses.

Billy Morris was in his sanctum as usual, and along with George Orton, the publicity man, the three seribes rehashed the season and found much to take solace in. Penn's wonderful showing against the Ithacan eleven, heralded as a much better team than last year's, took the sting of four defeats out of the Penn follower's system and made him feel lots better. When Heisman was spoken of it was generally in terms that meant his return next year.

Dobson to Tackle Paterson in Third-Round Match-Penn Meets Harvard

A headliner on today's soccer program is the National Cup competition between J. and J. Dobson and the Paterson Silk Socks from New Jersey. It is a third round match and the Dobson squad reached it only after the hardest kind of a struggle. In their second round combat with Disston the Dobson team played two extra period deadlocks the third battle after ninety minutes of In the Cricket Club League the Philadelphia Whites have the edge on the Germantown eleven, having won seven out of the eight games played. German-town and Moorestown each have six vic-tories to their credit. Only one game is scheduled in the second division owing to the teams playing on Thanksgiving

Day.

The eight clubs in the Industrial League are all booked today. Fleisher Yarn, the present leaders, will get their the control of season when they first real test of season when they tackle the Hardwick & Magee team. The Carpet boys upset the dope last week by defeating Hohlfeld, present champions, and if the Lehigh avenue boys can repeat today they will step two points closer to the Yarners. Chaney Defeats Jacks

Army-Navy Records

Worcester, Nov. 27.—Young Andy Chaney. Baitimore featherweight, defeated Freddy Jacks, featherweight champion of England, in ten rounds, Chaney outpointed his opponent in six of the ten rounds, two were even, while Jacks won two. Chaney's infighting, as well as his ability to block his opponent's blows, gave him the advantage. It was one of the best fights seen in Worcester since boxing was inaugurated.

Grand Circuit Meeting Here

Al Saunders, secretary of the local Grand Circuit meeting, has arranged with the steward of the Grand Circuit to hold their annual convention in this city on January 10 and 11. The Toledo Driving Club, whose officers had made a bid for the meeting, deciated that Philadelphia, owing to its central location and former experience in conducting this important event, was the proper place and withdrew in the local club's favor.
