Captain Schutz alleges that, before he wed the princess, who was called the "most beautiful Red Cross nurse in Europe," Captain Turin, a former officer in the Russian imperial army, married her in October, 1917, and they have never been divorced.

"I shall say only that it took a long time to unwind the thread that Red to Turin," Captain Schutz added to"Saadowed."

But one trunk would not be enough. There must be more than one trunk. But the fact that there were many trunks had to be concealed. How? Obviously by having them all alike. It would be an easy thing for the Bernbeins to keep their stolen silk stored in trunks in baggage rooms all over the for another simply by substituting one check for another at any railroad station without being detected in spite of the fact that her every movement was long time to unwind the thread that Red to Turin," Captain Schutz added to-

Adventures With a Purse

For everyday use for yourself or the family you may consider that you can do with a less expensive towel, both Turkish and smooth. If so you will want to know that one shop has reduced their huckuback towels from thirty-five cents to twenty cents, and they are nice looking. Then there are a number of plain white Turkish towels, thirty-six inches long, I should say, that have been reduced from fifty cents to thirty-eight cents, and that is a real bargain. You will have to see about them at once, however, for I hardly think the sale will last very long.

On a table in the aisle of one of the ships are some two or three dozen pieces of satin of various weaves. To me they all look like satin, but I should not be surprised if some were a kind of charmeuse, while others have a crepey look. They all are of dark colors, blue, brown, black, and kind of steel color. But their quality is particularly good—heavy and lustrous, and looking as if the price should be ever so much higher than $2.95—a real bargain. The width, for the most of them, is forty inches. Whether you are young, or just think that you are, you will turn inevitably to one of the lovely tulic or chiffon dancing frocks in which this season is so rich. These come in all sorts of ravishing tints, and frequently they are brought out by some introduction of black chantilly or black taffeta. For example, one of the most charming of dance frocks which I have seen lately had a plaited skirt of sea foam tulle, which was inclosed by leaf-shaped panels of black chantilly. The bodice was of the tulle, over satin of the same exquisite tint, and the low waist line met the lace ganels in a girdle of silver flowers with cellophane leaves.

IF YOU are looking for fancy stockings, to give as a Christmas present, for instance (and do not expect me to talk of anything but Christmas, what with the shops so full of people who certainly look as if they were Christmas shopping early) then stop in soon before they are all gone, and see the ones I have in mind. They are of heavy silk and have a drop stitch like narrow stripes running down them. They come in black and blue, and were originally $5 per pair, but have now been repriced at $3.95.

One of the Greatest Wastes in Your Kitchen Eliminated

A Message About Cooking That Will Interest the Modern Housewife

How Much Money Do You

Waste Each Month on

Old Fashioned Cooking

Methods?

EVERY housewife realizes that one of the greatest wastes in the kitchen is caused by having to discard lard and fat which has been used to fry fish, onions, or other foods which give up their taste and odor to ordinary fats or cooking compounds. This waste alone represents thousands and thousands of dollars. Every household in the land, where the old-fashioned way of cooking is persisted in, has to share this huge loss.

The reason lard and cooking fats absorb the odors and flavors of foods cooked in them-which renders them unfit for any other cooking use-is because they cannot be heated high enough to prevent the absorption of these odors and flavors. They burn first.

Housewives who cook the modern way, with Mazola, avoid this trouble. Mazola, the Great American Salad and Cooking Oil, can be heated, to such a high temperature without smoking, that the food is instantly crusted over. Foods cooked in Mazola never become soggy.

An Interesting Test That Will Save You Money

The flavor is kept in food cooked with Mazola and there are no odors. Try it for yourself. Take a piece of fish, and fry it in Mazola. Then strain off the oil. You can use this strained Mazola even as shortening for a cake or pie crust. Not a particle of the fish flavor will be in either the cake or the pie.

And because so little Mazola is taken up in the food in frying, there is another big saving in using Mazola-especially for the deep frying of doughnuts, crullers and croquettes.

Recent experiments, conducted by experts in domestic science, prove this fact conclusively. A given amount of Mazola will fry more potatoes, doughnuts, fish, or any other food that is deep-fried, than lard or ordinary compounds.

As, for instance, when it was demonstrated that 2 lbs. of Mazola fried 241/2 lbs. of potatoes, whereas only 7 lbs. 14 oz. of potatoes were fried in 2 lbs. of lard.

> It's a great satisfaction, too, for the refined woman to use Mazola. For it does not smoke up the kitchen, nor does it work a hardship on the neighbors.

Costs You Less Than Half the Price of Olive Oil

Thousands of families everywhere, who are fond of salads, use Mazola in preference to even the very finest Italian olive oil. It blends better with the other salad ingredients than does olive oil, and makes a "smoother" dressing, that will keep for weeks without separating, even when not kept in the ice box.

In fact, Mazola Mayonnaise is rapidly becoming the most favored dressing in many of the finest hotels and clubs in America, as well as on dining cars, lake boats and trans-Atlantic steamers.

Many hospitals, sanitariums and institutions all over the country use Mazola as a cooking and salad oil, because of the high endorsement it has from the most eminent health specialists and food experts in the country.

If you haven't yet used Mazola, get a can from your grocer today. You'll never be without it again. At all grocess in pint, quart, half-gallon and gallon cans.
