

WRIGLEY INCENSED AT AUTO DRIVER

Magistrate, Himself on $5000 Bail on "Drunk" Charge, Holds Prisoner in $800

SAY MAN WAS INTOXICATED

Magistrate Byron E. Wrigley, who was held yesterday by Magistrate Carson in $5000 bail for the grand jury on the charge of driving a motorcar while intoxicated and negligently committing involuntary manslaughter, today held a man in $800 bail charged with driving an auto while he was intoxicated.

The magistrate, who was rearrested at the instance of District Attorney Rotan after he had been exonerated by the coroner from blame for the death of Miss Mary E. Brady, severely reprimanded the alleged reckless driver who faced him today.

The driver, Frank Petussalis, thirty-seven years old, of Victoria street near Richmond, was arrested at 11 o'clock yesterday morning after his automobile had struck and had damaged the rear of a trolley car at Allegheny avenue and Cedar street.

John Carroll, a city fireman, of company No. 10, was on the trolley car, and arrested Petussalis. At today's hearing, held at the Belgrade and Clearfield streets station, the defendant's attorney, J. J. McCall, pleaded guilty.

Wrigley Incensed
Magistrate Wrigley, in spite of the fact that two deaths have been attributed to his reckless driving, became incensed when it was testified Petussalis appeared drunk.

"Drunken drivers shouldn't be allowed to drive automobiles on streets where there are trolley cars," said the magistrate. "You shouldn't drive a car when you intend to get drunk. I'll have to hold you for court under $800 bail; it's the only thing I can do with you."

The collision between Petussalis' automobile and the trolley car occurred within four blocks of the scene of one of the fatal accidents in which Magistrate Wrigley's automobile figured. Absolute denial of a story that Wrigley figured in an automobile crash on October 10, between the cars of George A. Werner, 2625 West York street and Thomas MacCracken, 4708 Rosehill street, was made today.

Did Not See Magistrate
"I positively did not see I had seen Magistrate Wrigley in either of the cars," declared Sergeant William Miller, of the Germantown avenue and Lycoming street station today. "I was on the patrol which went to the scene of the accident, but did not see I had seen and did not see the magistrate."

"I was on the patrol also," said Thomas Winning, a district detective of the same station, "and I did not see Magistrate Wrigley there."

"We never saw Magistrate Wrigley before until this morning," said Mac-

Cracken and Walter Tierney, 6610 Woodland avenue, who was with him in his car. "Of course, he was not there. We don't know how such a story originated."

"That accident occurred on Sunday night," said Magistrate Wrigley today. "I was out with my wife, as I am on every Sunday night."

At a hearing held this morning Werner, who is under $800 bail, did not appear, as he had not been notified, and the hearing was postponed till Friday. Former Magistrate Thomas G. Morris, 1011 North Twenty-ninth street, who was arrested with Werner at the time of the accident, was discharged at a hearing on October 11 and did not appear today. In the accident Tierney and MacCracken suffered slight injuries which were treated at St. Luke's Hospital.

WELCOME COSTS $490

Stranger From Portland, Ore., Loses In Card Game—One Arrested

John Pecocco, until one week ago a resident of Portland, Oregon, has his own opinion of the festive East today. A convivial little welcome party tendered him cost him $490. One of the hosts, Louis Tillo, 1235 S. Fitzgerald street, and Vincenzo Capone, 1011 North Twenty-ninth street, who was arrested with Werner at the time of the accident, was discharged at a hearing on October 11 and did not appear today. In the accident Tierney and MacCracken suffered slight injuries which were treated at St. Luke's Hospital.

Last night the four, Tillo, Rosso, Lombardi and Vincenzo, invited the lonely stranger from the West to come and have a friendly little game of cards. Pecocco readily assented and the five went to an oyster saloon at Seventh and Christian streets. A Fitzgerald Pecocco reported to the Second and Christian streets station that he had been "flim-flammed" out of his entire morning's earnings, $490.

Tillo was held for court this morning under $800 bail while the police are looking for the others.

ST. ANDREW SOCIETY DINES

71st Annual Banquet is Held at Bellevue-Stratford

More than 250 members of the St. Andrew's Society attended the 71st annual dinner of the society at the Bellevue-Stratford, last night. Among the speakers were Judge Patterson, the Rev. Robert Norwood, rector of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Overbrook, and Judge H. B. Wells, of the Burlington County Court, Burlington, N. J.

Before the dinner commenced the guests marched around the room to the music of the Scottish bagpipes, carried by the members of the society, which include the sword of General Hugh Mercer, the hero of Princeton, the ram's head and the gavel.

Officers of the organization are: President, Charles J. Maxwell; vice presidents, John P. MacBean and Caleb J. Milne, 3d; treasurer, Frederick S. Giger, and secretary, J. Burnett Gibb. Alexander C. Ferguson, Jr., was chairman of the dinner committee.

Drug Nearly Kills Child

Francis Neilson, six years old, 563 East Chelton avenue, Germantown, was found unconscious last night by his parents with an empty bottle of atropin tablets beside him. He was rushed to the Germantown Hospital, where some rapid work saved his life. Today he was reported out of danger.

PHILA. ELECTRIC ASKS RATE RISE

Wholesale Consumers of Light and Power Only Ones Really Affected

TO PAY 40 P. C. COAL COST

Application for a revision of rates has been filed with the Public Service Commission by the Philadelphia Electric Co. No increase in household rates has been made. In the case of retail light and power customers there is no real increase, the new rate absorbing the usual 10 per cent that has for the last three years been added to all bills. Wholesale consumers of light and power must, under the new rates, pay 40 per cent of the increase in cost of coal, the balance to be absorbed by the company.

Joseph B. McCall, president of the company, issued today the following statement: "The Philadelphia Electric Co. has filed with the Public Service Commission a new schedule of rates for electric service, effective January 1, 1921."

"A complete copy of the new tariff is on file at the main and district offices of the company, and may be examined on application. Upon telephone or written request from any customer a representative will call and explain any point not fully understood."

"The principal features of interest in the new tariff are as follows: 1. No increase has been made in the rate for residential or municipal electric service. 2. There is no appreciable difference between the revised rates for retail light and power customers and the rates paid by them during the last three years. 3. The wholesale light and power rates are increased by a fuel cost adjustment, under which the cost per kilowatt hour is revised at the end of each three months' period, according to the coal cost during that period. Every three months wholesale light and power customers will be notified in writing (in advance) of the added charge per kilowatt hour at which they will be billed during the succeeding three months' period. 4. It is, of course, manifest that the electric light and power industry has not been free from the burden of cost imposed upon general industry by the enormous increase in the price of all materials and labor, and we have endeavored to carry the full amount of them. But the increasing cost of coal, which is the largest single item of our expense, together with additional cost of freight charges which we are now obliged to meet, have so added to our costs that we deem this application for relief necessary.

"We are grateful to our customers and the public for their co-operation and patronage, and which, despite the extraordinary conditions prevailing, have enabled us to meet the ever-increasing demands for electricity in this territory."

Unidentified Man Killed
An unidentified man, approximately sixty years old, was killed last night at Ninth and Arch streets, by an automobile owned and driven by Casper J. Bronnol, of North Merline street, near Louder. Bronnol was arrested.
