Christmas Gifts Wherever You Turn and the Spirit of Christmas Everywhere

We Had What Theodore Roosevelt Would Have Called "A Bully Month" last month, which we only refer to here

For Everybody's Encouragement

as we are not given to bragging any more than we are to the making of extravagant wordings in our own advertisements.

We were certainly benefited all November by the multitudinous newspaper advertisements other than our own.

It was very pleasing indeed!

at Each Hour

This business has its own ideals, to which we shall adhere, pursuing steadily the even tenor of our way.

By agreeable relations with manufacturers and commission houses representing manufacturers, we get to know among the first the movements of lots to be sold and of readiness to reduce prices, of which we immediately avail ourselves, with cash down whenever necessary.

Bear in mind that this business began before the Civil War, when we were buyers of woolen goods from first hand, purchasing them in a small way. We are now large buyers from the same mills.

Be quite sure that our assortments will be kept up whenever goods are obtainable and properly priced.

Yom Wananafe [Signed] Dec. 2, 1920.

Men's Silk Hats Are in New Shapes This Season

The man who makes it a point to be correct in every detail of dress will need a new top hat this Winter.

London's latest "toppers" are almost straight in the crown, without the pronounced bell that was the fashion. Two Redleaf London silk hats just received show how decided the change is. One of these hats is almost perfectly straight and the other has a very slight bell.

School Supplies Are Gifts That Educate

Now comes the time of year when school supplies and sta-tionery take on a special interest for all young scholars.

For, if there is anything that an ambitious boy or girl likes, it is to have good facilities for school work and home study. What better could be said of any gift than that it helps to educate a boy or girl?

The Boy and Christmas

Make no mistake about it, a boy has his own outlook.

There are all kinds of gifts that he likes, but there is one thing that makes all other gifts twice as good and that is the feeling of having a good, comfortable appearance.

If he hasn't the kind of overcoat that every fellow likes, there is just one thing to do-get it for him.

Our boys' overcoats are the kind that do not have to be advertised as gifts. Their merit will sell them any day. But if your boy should have a new one we have plenty of coats of the kind that any father or mother of a fine boy will be glad to see him wear.

For lads of 3 to 10 years, overcoats at $18 to $50. For lads of 11 to 18 years, overcoa's at $25 to $55. (Second Floor, Central)
