

U. S. ASKED TO SAVE STARVING CHILDREN

Hoover Begins Drive for $23,000,000 for Youthful War Sufferers

By the Associated Press
 Boston, Dec. 3.—"I would rather have the American flag implanted in the hearts of the children of Europe than flying over any citadel of victory," said Herbert Hoover today in presenting to a gathering of business men and women here the obligation upon this country to supply the needs of 3,500,000 of youthful sufferers by the war in eastern and central Europe. The occasion marked the formal opening in New England of the nationwide campaign for $23,000,000, which it is estimated will be required to keep the children alive until the next harvest.

"These are children of friend and enemy, of Jew and Gentile, of Catholic and Protestant," said Mr. Hoover.

"The war collapsed among both allies and enemy in the face of the greatest famine in 200 years. The food supply for all that 200,000,000 people east of the old western front was largely exhausted by poor crops and destruction.

"There is in this children's problem a great moral issue. We are today feeding enemy as well as friend. We are today replacing hate in the minds of this next generation. With the completion of this final effort we shall have given to American character a lift in pride of a great duty well done—a pride in a practical helpfulness that distinguishes our people. We shall have given to Europe her foothold back to life again.

"These children are the obligation of every man and woman who has a penny more than his own children and his neighbors' children require. Twenty years from now they will form the basis of civilization in Europe. If we are to preserve the foundations of society in the East, if we are to keep open the love of humanity in the West, our duty is clear before us."
