State and County Bodies Necssary Before Full Development

December 21, but that must be disregarded, since thirty days notice was not given the post commanders, as required by the constitution. Consequently, it will be some time in January, at the carliest, that the conference will be held and provision made for a committee to succeed the organization that ceased to function December 1. The county work is now practically under direction of the First Vice Department Commander David B. Simpson, although the head-quarters, at 1011 Chestnut street, are still being maintained out of committee funds. fullest success here. The first funds.
