

Y. W. C. A. ASKS DATA ON UNEMPLOYMENT

Statistics Being Compiled on Women Out of Work in Philadelphia

SEEK CURE OF PROBLEM

Members of all the Y. W. C. A. industrial clubs in Philadelphia and its vicinity will be asked to file data with the East Central Field Association to show how many of them are unemployed and what they wish to do during their enforced vacation.

Many Questions in List Data that will be obtained include how many are employed full time, how many are on part-time work, how many are unemployed, how many want to go back to their old jobs or former lines of work, how many want to enter new fields, what they want to do during their enforced vacation, whether they would like vocational or other educational work.

FURS! FURS! FURS!

TREMENDOUS REDUCTIONS

Our $300,000 Stock of Fine Quality Furs Combined With Timely Cash Purchase From a Great New York Fur House TO BE SACRIFICED

This is the most astounding sale we have ever held—in the great assortment of all the wanted furs, in the variety of all the modish and distinctive models, in the superlative quality of the furs, and, above all, in the values. A $300,000.00 stock of furs offered at the most sensational reductions in years. No wonder hundreds of women crowded our store the first day of the sale and went into ecstasies at the values. No wonder they lost no time in deciding what to buy. No wonder that they are telling their friends. Come in and see for yourself. There's no obligation to buy. Better hurry, for while this is a sale of great magnitude, the values are so exceptional they will not last long. Extra salespeople insure our high standard of personal service.

A small deposit will reserve purchase—Payments to continue at convenient intervals
