

RAID LEADER QUIT JANUARY 1

John W. Crolley, First Assistant to Crossen, Will Resume Law Practice

SECOND MAN TO RETIRE

John W. Crolley, assistant prohibition enforcement officer for this district, to-day tendered his resignation to the prohibition director.

Mr. Crolley's home is in Scranton. He was graduated from the St. Thomas College, Scranton, and later from the law school of the Catholic University, Washington. He was admitted to the bar in 1916.

As assistant prohibition enforcement officer for this district, to-day tendered his resignation to the prohibition director.

Under Leo A. Crossen, the chief, Mr. Crolley has been in charge of all the prohibition agents operating in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

Mr. Crolley is the second assistant to Mr. Crossen to resign since March. The first was Major Roy Daily, who likewise resigned to resume the practice of law.

Three men were arrested last night as they attempted an automobile theft in Germantown. They were held under $1000 bail at a hearing before Magistrate Pennock this morning for a further hearing Sunday.

The prisoners are George Unruh, of 5045 Floyd street; Ralph Garvin, 32 Colton street, and Ralph Zimm, of 19 East Coulter street. The police say the men jumped into an automobile owned by Samuel Mollenkopf, of 634 West Johnson street, and were about to drive away with the car, when they were arrested.

For Friday

Thursday, Dec. 9, 1920

Gillette Razor Outfit—the regular $5 one, at $3.75—out of a Christmas idea.

Ever-Ready Flashlight, at 88c, that is worth about double.

Gimbels, House Furnishings, Fourth floor.

Low Prices Are Here

Six million dollar mark-down in the whole country, on the word of a great gatherer of statistics. And yet, on trains and trolleys you hear careless talk of "lower prices coming." Please stop and think: too low prices mean the stopping of too many incomes to leave any of us unharmed.

Rest on this—

Already prices on many things are under the cost of reproducing them—and in such cases will rise later or the product will cease. And that shall not happen.

The interests of this great land are fairly well in hand.

But it's a great shopping time, surely—at Gimbels.

STEINWAY PIANOS

Consistency

"I tried an amazingly large number of instruments, dozens of grands, and I could not make a choice: I could not select the few best ones, because all were best." So said Paderewski, speaking of a visit to Steinway warehouses. The consistency of Steinway production excites the wonder of everybody else. It is the utter despair of other pianomakers. It is the piano that may be bought with eyes shut. No expert's advice is needed by the purchaser of a Steinway. "All are best," as the great artist said. Select the case in harmony with your furnishings, and rely confidently on Steinway for the essentials of the instrument—beauty of tone, delicacy of touch, etc.—and you will be satisfied—always.

You will better understand this Steinway Consistency by reading "Steinways of Today." A copy will be sent on request.

Steinway pianos may be bought on monthly payments

Over Eight Thousand Knitted Ties at 65c

The Best Make—the Sorts Selling at Three or Four Times the Price

Best make—full sizes, not stingy, stringy sorts—crochet-, accordion- and pebble-stitch—stripes and solid colors and heather mixtures.

Why 65c? Because these were salesmen's samples, odd dozens after filling orders and some were "menders"—i. e., requiring a well-hidden stitch or so to cure a knitting fault.

Foremost make—best styles—65c.
