

URGES U. S. TO SEEK DISARMED WORLD

Gen. Tasker H. Bliss Pleads Against War at Forum on Peace Conference

HAS BRILLIANT AUDIENCE

Without reference to its entry into the League of Nations, the United States should at once, in the opinion of Major General Tasker H. Bliss, invite the nations of the world to a conference to consider the immediate limitation of armaments...

"If the nations will take the first step of coming together," he said, "some solution ought not to be very difficult."

"You are mistaken if you think there can be an enduring peace among the nations so long as they are thus armed to the teeth against each other."

"No conquests by Navies" - I would have no restrictions on naval forces or on land fortifications.

"Every woman who can knit a sock, every farmer who can handle a plow, every merchant—all now are soldiers."

Figures of the World War - The speaker gave some figures culled from reports of the world war which were meeting. He said:

BAILEY BANKS & BIDDLE CO. SILVER for CHRISTMAS

Holes in the Streets

Cost City $954 Apiece - Every hole in the hundreds of miles of the city's streets which has caused an accident of any kind this year has cost the city an average of $954.

"Nine billions of dollars is the annual interest to be paid on the war bills even with disarmament."

"In 1913 the annual bill for the maintenance of armies was two billions three hundred millions; it is more than double that now."

"I took particular care to make inquiries before leaving Washington along that very line. I can say this: The provisions of the treaty of peace are being carried out by Germany as rapidly as can be reasonably expected."

"The situation in Russia," said General Bliss, "is undoubtedly a great obstacle to international disarmament."

"I don't know how 20-inch guns are going to keep their propaganda out of the United States."

"I don't see how you can stop an armament race," he said, "unless you can stop the armament race."

"I don't know how 20-inch guns are going to keep their propaganda out of the United States."

JAR CITY TREASURY - $208,000 Paid in Damage

Claims in Last 11 Months, Records Show

There's more in a hole than some people think—at least for the City of Philadelphia.

"Our claims paid out for the eleven months of this year," said Mr. Costello, "amount to $208,000, while those for the corresponding period of 1919, went for $120,000 and the lowest $48,500."

"The average amount of each claim for the year was $1916, while for the corresponding period of last year it was $1100."

PATROLMAN CHASES THUGS

Men Get Victim's Watch, but Miss $100 in Pocket

A patrolman surprised three negro bandits robbing a man at Juniper and Lombard streets last night, and chased them, firing several shots as he ran, but they escaped in a maze of nearby alleys.

RACE OPEN TO ALL AS SCHOOL HEAD

Former Judge Beeber Declares Any One May Be Selected to Succeed Dr. Garber

Former Judge Dimmer Beeber, a member of the Board of Education, said today that the vacancy left by the resignation of Dr. John P. Garber, former superintendent of schools, may be won by any one and that the race is open for all.

"I have been quoted as saying that a list of successors to Mr. Garber has been compiled," he said. "That is not true. I know nothing of any such list. It is an open race for that vacancy. Any one may be selected to succeed Dr. Garber."

Police Find Brick Wrapped in Paper Under Man's Coat

One of two Mexicans arrested at 3 o'clock this morning at Broad and Chestnut streets had a brick wrapped in newspaper under his coat, the police say. He was Ayres Salcedo, twenty-three years old. With his companion, Francisco Comba, he was taken into custody by Patrolmen Huhn and Griffin, plain clothes men, who had followed the pair for an hour, and Wagner, night man on the beat.

Huhn and Griffin were out looking for window smashers in the central business district when they saw the Mexicans wandering about aimlessly and followed them. After an hour weaving in and out of the section the patrolmen accosted the Mexicans and put them under arrest.
