This Will Be the Best Christmas Yet—See if It Isn't!

Who Goes Home?

Were you ever in the House of Commons when "Big Ben" rang out the midnight hour and the adjournment of the House took place?
Did you stand in the lobby or corridor and hear the policemen and officials cry aloud, according to a quaint old custom,

"Who goes home?"

It is a custom dating back to a time when it was deemed best to accompany parties of members homeward with squads of soldiers to protect them from dangers of mobs and highwaymen on the streets, a danger long since passed away, but kept up still to some degree.

"Who goes home" this Christmas "to the old folks?"

They expect you to make up their Christmas for them.

Have a present for mother and grandmother and that other old girl of yours.

You gave a necktie to father and slippers to mother last time. Take a sweater or underclothes for them as a surprise. But be sure to go yourself with a big smile.

[Signed] John Wanamaker

Winter Millinery Is Hurrying Out

with the new low prices that have been placed on a certain group in the Gray Salon.

The hats are in many good styles—there are models for dress and for more general wear—hats of fine velvets and of silks, hats of duvetynes, too.

Bright and more subdued colors, large and small shapes, and good styles, every one.

All under $10, too!

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Think of These Women's Sports Hats for $2 to $7.50!

There are some fine English hats in the group, and quite a number of American ones—just such hats as women want for motoring, for golf and for general winter wear.

Velours, felts and velvets in the group—and light and dark colors and many good shapes.

Of course, they've been much more.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

New French Neckwear at the Lowest Prices Ever

Partly because it is a bit late in arriving and partly because of the low rate of exchange.

But the neckwear itself is as exquisitely lovely as any we ever had. The collars, sets and guimpes are mostly in the finest French organdie, hand embroidered and many pieces are trimmed with real filet or Valenciennes lace. Guipure work is used a great deal.

For a woman who loves dainty things, there are few gifts that will be as welcome as some of this beautiful neckwear. Collars and sets from $2 to $16.50. Guimpes, $10 to $22.50.

(Main Floor, Central)

Women Love the Luxury of Glove Silk Underwear

It is pleasant to wear, it launders easily and it always looks fresh. As an intimate gift from one woman to another it is hard to equal.

$3.50 and $7 for pink silk vests, plain or bodice style.

$5 and $8 for embroidered pink silk vests.

$5 for pink or white bloomers.

$8 to $10 for pink envelope chemises.

$7 for pink or white combination suits.

$3 to $6 for pink camisoles, plain or trimmed.

$3.75 to $15 for tango bloomers in various colors.

(First Floor, Market)

Practical Gifts of Corsets

Here are extremely pretty pink broche corsets with blue flower decorations. They are plump with elastic, long skirts and walloh lining; price $6.

Other corsets for slender women are made of pink satin or broche, are topless and lightly boned. These are $2.50.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

SILK jersey petticoats at only $3.85 are uncommonly good for that price. They are overlots and samples, in good, airy dark colors and black, and are quite likely to find their way into Christmas boxes.

(East Aisle)

Debutantes' New Paris Frocks

Just unpacked—lovely Paris frocks that are delightful for south-going trunks.

Airy, sheer voiles, crisp organdies and fine handkerchief linens make these charming new dresses, which are all hand made, are in exquisite colorings, and are as youthful and lovely as one could wish.

They are very new as to style, very charming, and there is, of course, just one of a sort. White frocks, orchid, maize, coral and rose pinks—they are all here.

$35 to $65—and 14 to 20 year sizes.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Georgette Waists

The new ones coming in are so inexpensive that they are in high favor for practical gifts.

A Georgette in navy alone, black alone, navy with bisque and brown with bisque has sou-tache embroidery and is priced $8.

Another in white and flesh has real filet and embroidery, price $8.75.

The third in white, flesh and bisque is $13.50.

Scores of finer styles are in the Waist Store for those who prefer them—light and dark colors—at prices all the way up to $35.

(Third Floor, Central)

Gold Plated Mesh Bags

They are all in the well-liked green gold finish. There are the fashionable shapes from which to choose, the designs are new and pleasing and the prices go from $23 to $63.

Mesh purses are $7.50 to $14.

Gold-plated coin boxes, $4 to $5.50; vanity cases, $6 to $8.50; powder boxes, $1.25 to $7.50.

(Jewelry Store, Chestnut)

Lovely New Fur Wraps—Interesting Prices, Too

Not only are these handsome wraps and coats very new as to style, very fine as to skins and beautifully made, but they are all at especially interesting prices, too.

A smart Hudson seal coat (died muskrat) has a great wide collar, cuffs and band of natural gray squirrel and the loveliest rose-hued lining. It is $450.

And a stunning wrap of Hudson seal (died muskrat) is in a new style and has a fascinating green lining—$750.

A beautiful mole wrap has a deep squirrel collar and an unusual lining of rose and blue silk, and is $675.

Glossy black caracal makes another wrap which has a wide collar of Australian opossum, is most attractive and is $600.

A taupe nutria wrap has a golden brown beaver collar and a green lining by way of contrast and is $600.

And another beauty is a coat of Hudson seal (died muskrat) with soft brown beaver collar and cuffs and a rose-pink lining. $450.

These are luxurious gifts, indeed!

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

A Good Manicure Set Lasts for Many Years

It is certainly a Christmas gift that pays for itself many times over and it is one that every woman likes.

We are receiving many compliments about our manicure sets this year. All the fittings are of the finest steel and there is an uncommonly large assortment and a great variety of prices. Also these same prices are as moderate as possible, considering the quality. From $5.25 up to $60.

(Main Floor, Chestnut)

Children's English Sweater Sets—New

Of hand-knit wools or of soft, fine camel's-hair, these new sweater sets are here in time for American children's Christmas gifts.

They are in dark or light colors; some have two pieces and others four, and they are $16.50 to $20 the set.

2 to 6 year sizes.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

Children's White Dresses $1.25 to $3

These are new dresses and these are new prices, for it is some time since we have had such good white dresses at these prices.

Of soft white nainsooks and fine batistes, they are in simple, dainty styles—some with tucks and feather stitching, some with feather stitching in color, some with smocking. 6 months, 1 and 2 year sizes—and all fresh as posies.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

Masters of Russian Songs, $5

is one of the best collections of the sort, and the bound volume would make a welcome gift for any music lover.

Russian Piano Music—some of the best of the modern Russian music is in two volumes—$2 for the paper bound, $3 for cloth.

(Second Floor, Market)

Favorite Christmas Gift Silks

Six or more yards for a dress pattern; enclosed in a handsome box, if you wish, and there you have a Christmas gift of unusual value and dignity.

1921 foulards, 40 inches wide, $3 a yard. New sports silks, light and dark colors, $6.50. Tricolettes, black and brown only, $1.65. Crepes de chine, black, brown, navy, flesh and white, $1.65.

Colored chiffon velvets, navy, henna, taupe and black, $7 a yard.

New black silks in all the latest, most fashionable weaves, $1.50 to $7.50 a yard.

White silks and satins in every conceivable weave, including crepes, charmeuse, plain and fancy, $1.65 to $6.50 a yard.

(First Floor, Chestnut)

Women's Velveteen Dresses at $38.50 and $45

Attractive affairs in navy, black and brown, beaded with bugles, embroidered or decorated simply with some fancy braid. They are excellent inside of long coats, and on warm days can be worn with nothing but a fur piece round the neck.

The prices—$38.50 and $45—are those of the late season.

(First Floor, Central)

More Fine Velveteen for $3.50 a Yard

This is the new and smaller price on this velveteen and it happens to be just the light, soft weave so much liked for dresses.

It is 36 inches wide, has a twill back and fast pile and will wear very well indeed. There are some lovely shades, navy blue, Copenhagen, seal brown, taupe and black.

(First Floor, Chestnut)

Lace Handkerchiefs From the Old World—

which means from France, of course, from Switzerland and from Armenia, are here in remarkable variety and at surprising prices.

For 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50 and $2 apiece there is a remarkable variety and any number of attractive styles from which to choose.

Many people are looking for such things for gifts.

(Main Floor, Central)

You Can Give Pretty Handbags at Little Expense

Between $3.75 and $6.50 we have a remarkable assortment of duvetyne and velvet handbags in black, navy, taupe and brown. Any one would make a welcome gift.

These bags are in many shapes and sizes and all new styles. They have covered, metal, shell finish and fancy celluloid frames and some have fancy clasps.

The more you know about handbag values the more you will appreciate being able to get such excellent bags at such low prices.

(Main Floor, Chestnut)

TAKE a few minutes to see the interesting demonstrations going on in the House Furnishings Store—the demonstrations of electric dish washers, clothes washers and grills. The last will fry, broil, toast, stew and bake griddle cakes—any two of these things at once. They are fitted, by the way, with aluminum pans which don't rust.

(Fourth Floor, Central)

Much Giving of Cut Glass

Wanamaker cut glass has never been more in favor with gift-seekers than it is now.

We are glad to have such a fine assortment of pieces just when they are in most demand.

Berry bowls, $4 to $12.

Flower baskets, $6 to $18.

Candy baskets, $3.

Sugar and cream sets, $3.75 to $10.

Water jugs, $6 to $16.50.

Comotes, $3 to $8.

Bonbon dishes, $1.25 to $4.

Celery trays, $4 to $13.50.

Mayonnaise dish and plate, $5.50 to $14.

Flower vases, $3 to $22.50.

(Fourth Floor, Chestnut)

Girls' White Middy Blouses, $2.75

are of sturdy white cottons, are well made and in a good style, with red bands and red silk laces.

6 to 20 year sizes.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Good Fiction Which People Are Choosing

"A Poor Wise Man," by Mary Roberts Rinehart, $2.

"In Chancery," by John Galsworthy, $2.

(Main Floor, Thirteenth)

Oriental Rugs That Should Appeal to Gift Seekers

We are showing several groups of Oriental rugs that should be of particular interest to gift-seekers.

The colors and designs present a very fascinating choice, making it easy to pick out a piece that will surely satisfy the one who gives or the one who receives it.

There are Daghestans, Shirvans and Kazaks averaging 5x3 feet approximately and priced at $85 to $135.

Cabistans, Daghestans and Kazaks, in sizes 4x5 feet to 4-4x6-6 feet, at $150 to $225.

Rugs of these different families are always liked because they are so full of life and good furnishing qualities, the color contrasts and figure designs being clear, bold and striking and always effective from a decorative standpoint.

The prices marked on these pieces are extremely low.

(Seventh Floor, Chestnut)

Velour Door Curtains Are at Old-Time Prices

They are now $30 a pair, which, as many women will remember, is a great deal less than they have sold for several years past.

The velour is the best quality, mercerized finish, double faced and with either the same or a contrasting color on each side. They are 2 1/2 yards long and generously wide.

(Fifth Floor, Market)

Trust a Motorist to Appreciate something that can be used on the car or that adds to the pleasure of a trip.

Automobile "restaurants," $16 to $190. $5.75 to $6.50.

Vacuum bottles, $3 to $10. Mirrors, $2.25 to $3.50.

$7.50. Motor meters, $5 to $10.

Spotlights, $6.50 to $10. Fire extinguishers, $10 to $12.

Flower vases, $3 to $10. Trouble lamps, $1.50 to $3.

Electric cigar lighters, $3.

(The Gallery, Juniper)

Jacquard Comforts—Good Gifts at $5

All in attractive colors and in Indian and plaid designs, while some have plain centers with Grecian and floral borders.

Woven of fine cotton and very practical as well as attractive looking. All at a new low price—$5 each.

(Sixth Floor, Chestnut)

Luncheon Sets Inexpensive and Very Pretty

They are white cotton with scalloped edges or imitation filet lace, and women who take a pride in the appearance of their table would certainly appreciate such a gift.

The sets contain seven, thirteen or twenty pieces and are priced from $1.25 up to $4.50.

(First Floor, Chestnut)

Needfuls for Dogs

are gathered together in one place, easy to choose.

Collars, 45c to $10.

Sweaters of many colors and sizes, $3 to $4.25.

Blankets, 75c to $7.50.

Baskets to travel in, $5.50 to $32.

Sleeping baskets, $3.75 to $12.75.

Besides which for doggy comfort here are combs, brushes, leads, bells, locks, remedies, soaps and biscuit.

(Fourth Floor, Central)

Mixtures, Chocolates and the Christmas Candies

may be ordered as soon as you like. And if they are Wanamaker candies you may be sure they will be perfectly fresh, delicious to eat and absolutely pure.

Mixtures, 50c, 70c and $1.15 a pound.

Chocolates, 50c, 70c and $1.30 a pound.

Hard candies, 70c a pound.

Assorted caramels, $1 a pound.

(Down Stairs Store, Chestnut)

A Piece of Wanamaker Furniture With Your Best Wishes

For anybody who can use it, can you think of anything better, of anything which in every way is so fitting, so useful, so real?

Perhaps you do not fully realize what a splendid gift is a piece of furniture, Wanamaker furniture. The way to realize it is to come in and see the great Christmas display of gift pieces, things of ease, of usefulness, of novelty, of convenience, of beauty and of charm—the great easy chairs, the fireside chairs, the secretary desks, the bookcases, the smokers' stands, the tea wagons, the gate-leg tables, the telephone stands, the sewing cabinets, the women's writing desks, the library tables, the nests of tables, the hall chairs, the ornate mirrors and other excellent things from a footstool upwards.

(Fifth Floor)

Prices Are Lower on Men's Gift Shirts

than they were on similar shirts a short time ago—much lower.

You can get a good shirt now for as little as $2.65, or you can buy the finest ready-to-wear silk shirt in our stocks for $10.

In the assortment are shirts of madras, chevot, percale, flannel, satin broche, silk-and-cotton, fiber silk and real silk. All soft cuff, negligé style.

A wonderful variety of patterns, chiefly stripes but some plain and figured shirts. And as for colors—there's no limit to their combinations.

(Main Floor, Market)

Oiled Silk Raincoats Are Useful Gifts

The London Shop has a fine little lot that just came in from Japan. They are in a style suitable for both men and women.

Colors are dark and light green, gray and several shades of brown, and the coats are so light in weight that they can be carried in an overcoat pocket. For all that, nothing but a rubber coat is more waterproof.

Price, $26.50.
