

ROYERSFORD ANIMAL LIFE. Harry Whittier Frees has trained his cat to do many interesting stunts and then he photographs them. Kitty posed as a "newsy" and, we think, did a good job at it.

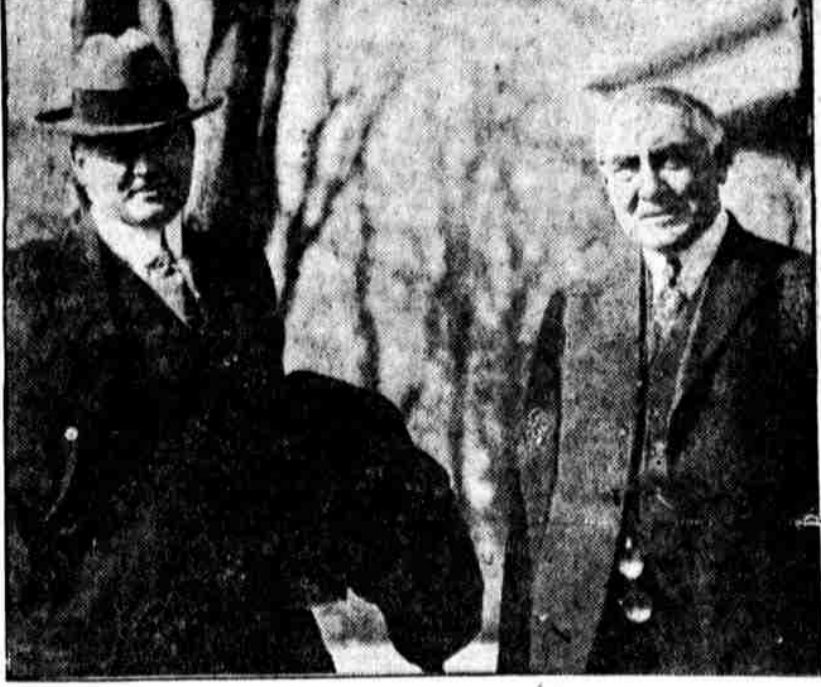

TESTING ENGINE PRESSURE. Fire department officials, including Ross Davis, acting fire chief (right), testing a water stream at Race street pier. Note the gauge being placed against the stream.

AT TRIAL OF HIS SON. John James, father of Frank J. James, on trial in Camden for the murder of David S. Paul.

WRECKED BRITISH STEAMER ANSGIR. It is shown at Mount's Bay, near Penzance, England, where it was blown ashore during a gale. A boy did much to save the crew of forty-five men by getting the line ashore.

HOOVER MAKES PLEA FOR EUROPE. Herbert Hoover, heading the newly organized move to feed the destitute, went to Marion, to talk with the President-elect.

SOCIETY AND STAGE FOLKS IN CHICAGO PAGEANT. Barney Bernard as King Solomon and Mrs. T. Philip Swift as one of his wives.

JOHN BAIZLEY discusses mummies' New Year's celebrations in an interview on the editorial page.

A CANYON OF HOLIDAY ACTIVITY. The camera clicked as it was pointed from the top of a building near Eleventh street, showing Chestnut street, looking west from Twelfth street. Street cars, automobiles and pedestrians fill up the far too narrow thoroughfare.

SOCIETY ON SKATES. The Philadelphia Skating Club has resumed its meetings, which are held twice a week at the Philadelphia Ice Palace. Many of the members are becoming efficient skaters.

Left to right the skaters are: Mr. and Mrs. Harrison K. Caner, Sr., and Harrison K. Caner, Jr.; Mrs. George Wharton Pepper, Mrs. Ted Paul and Mrs. Joseph Sims.

ONLY GREAT-GRAND-FATHER IN THE SENATE. Senator Carroll S. Page, of Vermont who has this distinction.

CAME FROM MANCHESTER, ENGLAND. This cat was found, in a weakened condition, in a mail bag, which came from the English city to the New York postoffice. The cat was in the bag nine days, getting just enough air to avoid suffocation.

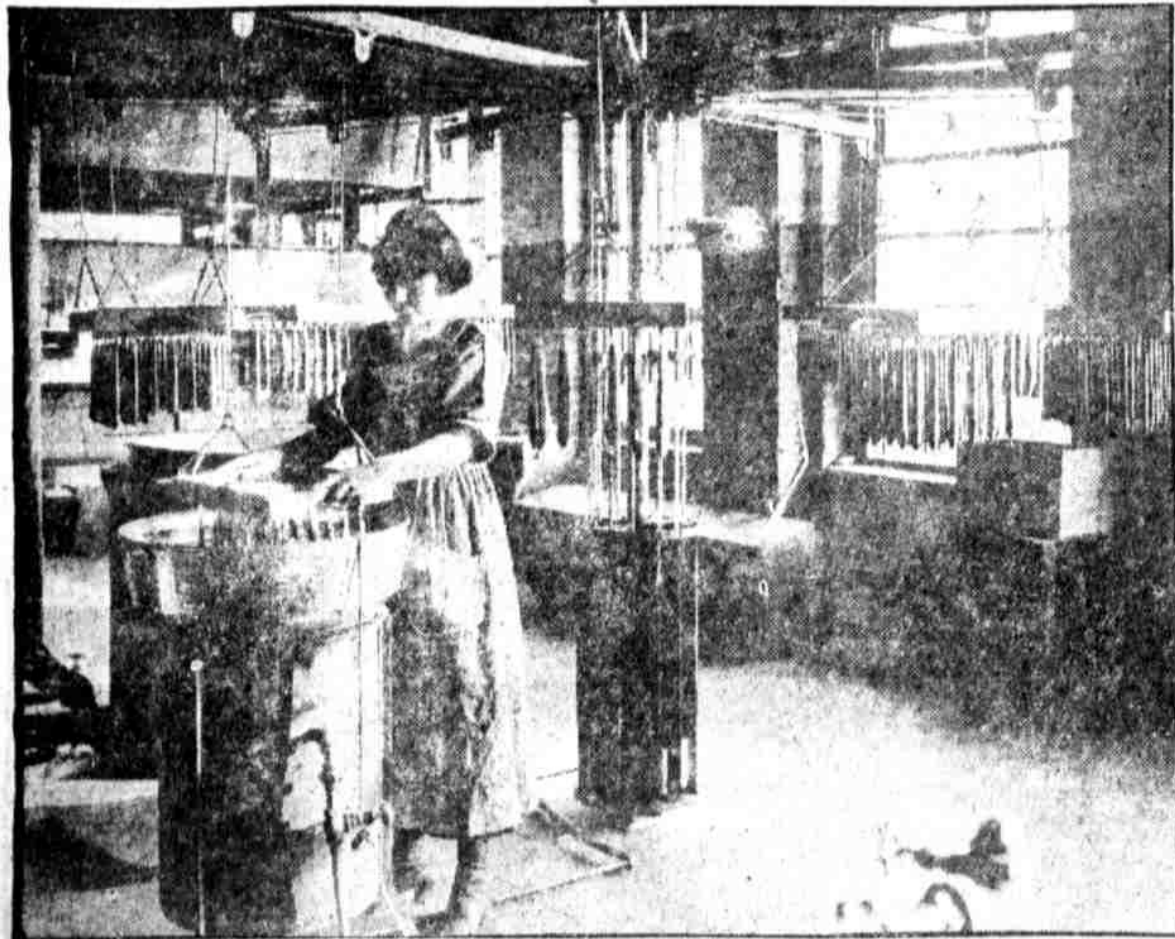

GETTING THE CHRISTMAS TREE EARLY. These lads, George Leever and Philip Pauley, went to the Philadelphia and Reading yards, Nineteenth street and Indiana avenue, to buy their trees.

GOING ON A QUAIL HUNT. Mr. and Mrs. Julian T. Bishop, prominent society couple of Washington and New York, at Pinchurst, N. C. They were married on December 4.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS MARIE FERR, 1841 Gladstone street, is dipping bayberry candies by hand at the Atlantic Refining Co. plant, 3144 Passyunk avenue. The clusters of candies are pulled down from the drying rack as they pass over the dipping pan.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

ESCAPED FROM TURKS. Miss Helen M. Davidson, daughter of the superintendent of the public schools of Pittsburgh, had several miraculous escapes.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

RESERVE PATROLMAN SAMUEL WALTON, who has been stationed at Broad street and Fairmount avenue for three of his five years as a patrolman. He lives with his wife and four children at 2455 North Sixth street. He is thirty-nine years old.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

DETAINED AT ELLIS ISLAND. Count A. Cherup Spiridovitch, who was a major general in the Imperial Russian army.

MISS CLADY LOVELL, 363 Lehigh avenue, Philadelphia.
