BUSINESS MEN ASK VETO

The text of a letter sent to Mayor Moore yesterday by Mrs. Frank Miles Day shows the decided opposition felt y women to the extravagant items for the Municipal Court in the 1921 budget. Mrs. Day sent the latter in behalf of the Women's League for Good Govnment, of which she is chairman. The letter follows:
"At a stated meeting of the board of the league, which was held this after-noon, I was empowered to write to you expressing our belief in the position that you have taken in regard to the Municipal Court items in the budget. "While appreciating that there is much good work done by the court we realize that its strength is curtailed and its power for good limited by the political power for good limited by the good limited by the political power for good limited by the complexion which has been given

'All this has been clearly shown by the reports given lately of the unnecesmethods used to appoint them.

"The Women's League for Good Government hopes that you will decide to adhere to the expressions of disapproval of those expenditures that were contained in your letter accompanying the budget, and that in re-turning the budget to Council you will reduce many of the Municipal Court items.

"Relying upon your good judgment in this matter, I am most sincerely
