

PENN WINS COLLEGE SOCCER CHAMPIONSHIP. The Red and Blue kickers scored four goals, while the Princeton team was only able to make two, in the match at the Merion Cricket Club grounds yesterday afternoon. One of the Penn players is doing a good job at protecting his face in a fall.

THE SPHINX HAT. A new winter toque design of black velvet, trimmed with dull gold and turquoise passementerie.

VICE PRESIDENT MARSHALL WITH THE SENATE PAGE BOYS. The boys enthusiastically accept the invitation tendered them by Mr. Marshall to the annual dinner to the boys connected with the Senate.

OLDEST AND YOUNGEST. "Uncle Joe" Cannon and the newly elected "Baby of the House," Congressman Clarence J. McLeod, from Michigan.

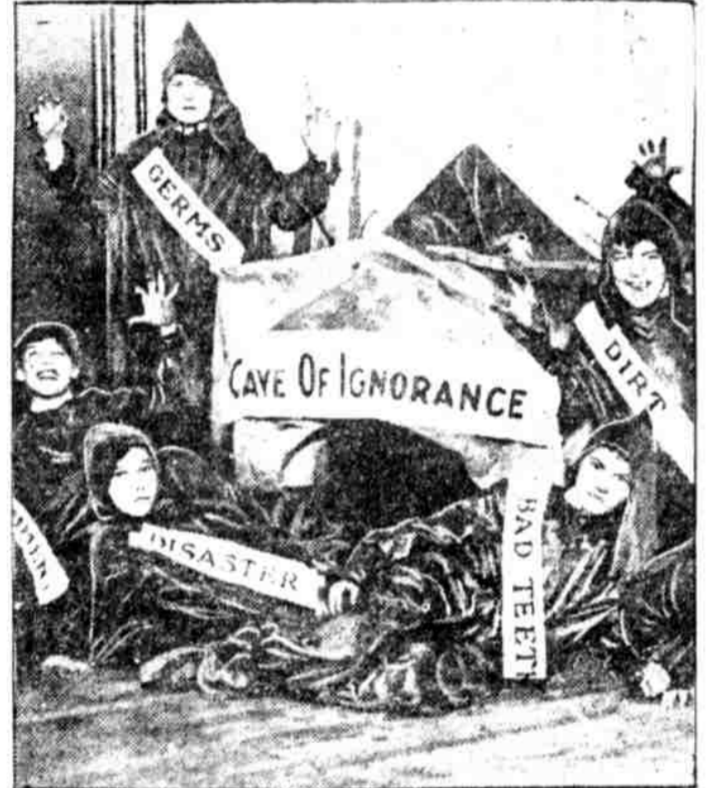

FIGURES IN THE CAMDEN MURDER TRIAL. At the left is Richard E. Newman, of Merchantville, who is the foreman of the jury that will decide the fate of Frank J. James, charged with the murder of David S. Paul, the Camden bank messenger. The group is composed of members of the jury. They are entering a restaurant for lunch under guard of county officials. The boy at the right is Harold James, the defendant's son.

SHELL-SHOCKED SOLDIERS MAKE KIDDS HAPPY. This delighted group are playing with toys made by soldiers under treatment in United States army hospitals. The Knights of Columbus are doing the distributing.

TO BE USED BY TRAFFIC PATROLMEN. This "cop's house" is a sample of the kind that will be placed on many of the city corners to shield patrolmen in storm and cold.

KENSINGTON CHILDREN IN HEALTH SHOW. "The Town of Surprise" was given yesterday at the Webster School, Frankford avenue and Ontario street, under the auspices of the Philadelphia Health Council. The children at the left represented cleanliness, rest, pure water, exercise and good food, while those at the right showed the careless side of child-life—germs, disaster, dirt and bad teeth.

A LITTLE TIP TO BANDITS. Don't get too close to the girl students of the Drexel Institute. They know how to handle a rifle and are being taught more about handling firearms by Lieutenant J. P. Lyons. At the left, Miss Katherine Campbell is getting instructions. Miss Elizabeth Siegert is examining a target to get her score.

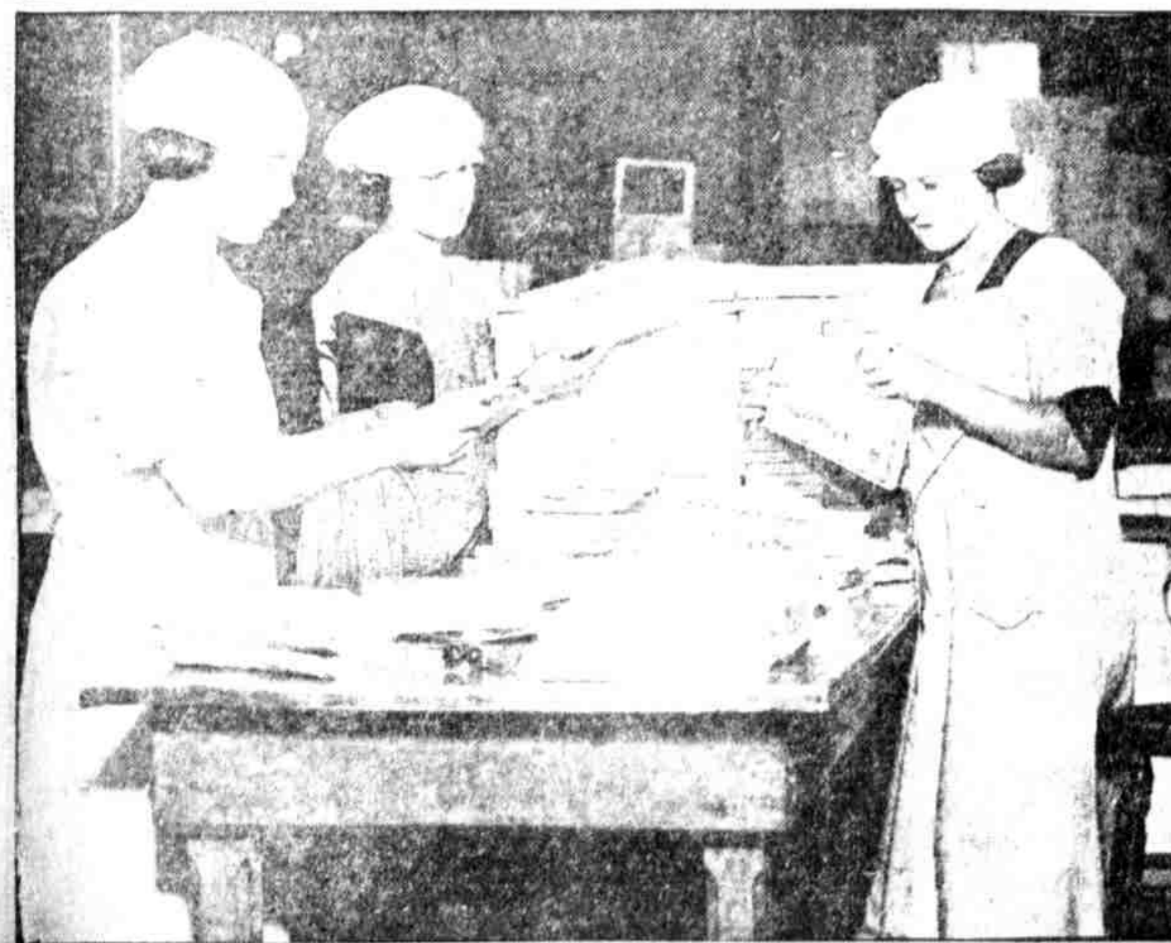

PRESIDENT EBERT VISITS "MOVIE CITY." He was photographed as he conversed with the artists who took the part of Anne Boleyn and Henry VIII in a German film entitled "Anne Boleyn." President Ebert is at the left.

S. TYSON KINSELL, president of the Federation of Federal Employees, discusses need for a new federal building on the editorial page.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

WRAPPING AND PACKING SLICED BACON at the Wilson-Martin Co.'s plant, Thirty-sixth street and Grays Ferry avenue. The workers are Roba Coyle, Martha Serdockey and Jean Sloan.

SHOPPING ON FIFTH AVENUE

SHOPPING ON FIFTH AVENUE. Mrs. Craig Biddle was snapped as she hunted Christmas gifts on Wednesday.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

THIS IS RESERVE OFFICER AMOS L. PFEFFER, known as the "traveler," stationed at Broad street and Girard avenue for the last year. Pfeffer is married and has one child. He lives at 1925 North Edgewood street. He has been around the world three times.

A STAR RACKET PLAYER

A STAR RACKET PLAYER. The Prince of Wales has been mentioned as one of the team to represent England in a contemplated international match.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS HELEN LAW 1524 South Bailey street Philadelphia