

CHILDREN RESCUED AS HOME IS BURNED

Patrolman Carries Two Sisters From Flames on North Hope Street

HELPS TO SAVE OTHERS

Through the quick action of a patrolman the lives of two children were probably saved shortly after 12 o'clock this morning, when fire was discovered at 1513 North Hope street.

rival of the fire engines. The firemen found the blaze confined to the front house and it was extinguished after causing little more than $500 damage.

IN 1842 residents of Kensington paid taxes on $77,028.45, the total value of all money at interest, mortgages, etc. Kensington is now in the Heart of the Textile Industry of Philadelphia, and the value of personal property taxed in this section alone in 1920 was $15,312,327.84. It is reasonable to suppose that this prosperous locality has had dependable banking facilities. During the period since the Kensington Trust Company was established, the neighborhood has witnessed its largest growth.
