JAMES TO APPEAL, GAINING 8 MONTHS act, which was delivered to Justice Katzenbach at 5:45 o'clock last evening. The jury had been ready for some time when the justice sent for them. They had taken

- and appropriate the second s

Confessed and Convicted Slayer of Paul Will Carry Case to Higher Court

PRISONER SLEEPS WELL

Judge Puts Off Sentence Because of Christmas

As Justice Katzenbach was leav ing the courtroom after the jury had onvicted James of first-degree murer be turned to Sheriff Hatch and

"Sheriff, my reason for not im osing sentence on James at this time because I do not think I should do so in the midst of so much Christ mas festivities. The spirit of Yule dide prevails everywhere and the least I can do for the poor fellow and is family is to withhold the final leeree at least until after the Christ mas holidays are over. In the meantime I wish you would keep careful supervision over the prisoner, not that I do not feel that you will, but think at this time he should be safeguarded well."

Frank J. James, confessed and conricted murderer of David S. Paul, will verdlet of first-degree murder, said a get from eight months to a year remain who had committed so horrible a crime as the gradual beating to death the appeal to be taken by his attorney, John Harris.

Justice Katsenbach has not yet im sed sentence of death, though in New formey this is done customarily as soon es a defendant is declared guilty. The fastles, who presided at the trial in Camden with Judge Kutes, of the Camden with Judge Kates, of the Criminal Court, forbore to sentence James to death now because of the Christmas season. Sentence probably will be pronounced at the conclusion of the trial of his friend, Raymond W. trial begins early in the new year. Mrs. James is ill at her home, 201 New Brendway, Brooklawn, N. J., and not be seen. Her mother, Mrs. a Spiegle, said she was bearing ock remarkably well. "Mand is he shock remarkably well. brave, and her faith in Frank is still unshaken," said Mrs. Spiegle, "He was good to her and to Harold, their and they cannot forget that. strong, physically, and that has been because she wants to keep m for Frank's sake.

While There Is Life---

Yesterday was very hard, and we couldn't get her to eat; that, without sleep last night, is telling on her to-ass. But it has not affected Mend's ourage; while there is life there is pe, you know." Harold, the sixteen-year-old who has had tensillitis for several days, was up and dressed today. With tears in his eyes, he said: "I feel too badly to say anything yet, except I haven't seers of exceptions to rulings made the based on three major points-first, that chich the trial jury was selected;

that Justice Katzenbach extestimony 'tending to show' here was insanity in James' fambers was insanity in James' fambers was insanity in James' fambers.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

Toom, where they were locked up tentral characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and then to the central characters.

The coroner's once and the characters on the characters on the characters on the characters on the characters of the characters on the characters of the characters on the characters of the cha from which the trial jury was selected ; and third, failure to establish the pus delicti," or body of the crime, amden county before James' conjon was introduced and accepted in

Rejection of the motion for a new ration of the death sentence for at least ight months, according to those famil-ar with New Jersey criminal practice.

All $5 & $6 Value XMAS ouses Today and Tomorrow

Wonderfully Smart $5 & $6 Blouses of Georgette $2.85 Crepe and Crepes de $2.85 Chine, reduced to ...

> DON'T WAIT, COME EARLY

Avoid the Rush as Tomorrow will be a busy day

1502 Chestnut Street Street

In the event a new trial is granted it may be a year before the case is closed. James bore up well under the ver-dict, which was delivered to Justice minutes to reach a first degree verdict, without recommendation of mercy. without recommendation of mercy.

James slept well last night, according to Day Warden Logne at the Camden jail. He was still sleeping at 9 o'clock. Apparently he felt some measure of relief to have the ordeal finished.

Mrs. Maude James, his wife, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John James, also bore up well.

James who showed recovery vertex.

bore up well.

James, who showed recovery yesterday from his physical collapse of the last few days, faced the jury when the foreman pronounced the fatal words without a quiver, but with the pallor of death already on his features.

The jury, in delivering its verdict, made no recommendation for a life sentence, which it is permitted to do not be sentenced. ence, which it is permitted to do.

for any leniency or mercy whatsoever. Immediately following the announce-ment of conviction by Richard E. Newman, of Merchantville, foreman of the jury, and the individual poll of the other eleven members, counsel for the condemned man, John Harris, moved for a new trial.

After the fateful words of the jurors, just before James was about to be led from the court room, he turned toward the sent which his wife, Mrs. Mand James, had occupied since the com-mencement of the trial. His lips seemen o frame the words, "Good by, good-by," and then he saw that his wife was ot there, and he was looking at strange, hostile faces.

Virtually all James' family absented themselves from the court-room when the trial reopened at 5:30 last night, after a recess at 4 o'clock, as they were contain of what the verdict would be, and felt they could not bear up under the additional strain.

Prosecutor Wolverton, in urging a of a man who was or had been at one time a friend, to steal $40,000 from ilm, was deserving of no mercy. Justice Katzenbach thanked the jurors, saying they had all done their duty by the state and the community smiling now and then, to testimony in card: also under indictment, whose two cases which came up in advance The Peirce case was called at 10:45 cert Service chief. Can you present any proof of the suspicions you have spread broadcast that an officer of the government had a guilty knowledge of unlawful transgressions? If not, watch builting where Peirce was slain, and J. R. McDonough, who also is in the builting, testified to finding the body.

Treadway, "Boots"

Calls Mulgrew "Dad"

ment of Justice operative heard by Secret Service chief. Can you present any proof of the suspicious you have spread broadcast that an officer of the government had a guilty knowledge of unlawful transgressions? If not, watch your own step in the future.

He believes that the eard refers to the testimony he gave vestering at a least of paint that were identical with that from a window of the intrivate

Calls Mulgrew "Dad"

Detective James Mulgrew took the stand to give the principal police testimony. As he stood there adjusting his eyeglasses, Marie called to him: 'Hello Mulgrew is an elderly man, and of kindly manner, and she gave him the title when he was bringing her up from Wheeling.
"Hello, little girl," the detective answered kindly.

He then related to the coroner's jury 8 "UNDESIRABLES" CAUGHT hevari ouscircumstane es of the findi of the body and the arrest of Treadway and Marie at Wheeling. He told also of the earlier statements made by Treadway and Marie about the murder. and their later statements. Detective Harry Heanley, who helped make the Harris, who jointly defended James, or now busy preparing reasons in support of a motion for a new trial, which must file under the law within nesses gave minor details. Coroner's lays. These will be based on about Physician Wadsworth then testified to the autopsy findings, and the jury quickly pronounced its verdiet.

Treadway Quizzed Again

Treadway was taken down to Cap-nin Souder's office for examination. The s delicti." or body of the crime, aden county before James' conwas introduced and accepted in a certainty, as the exceptions by Mr. Harris were all to the structures of the author of the letter found in Tready has been mentioned in the Peirce case. He was the next step, never all to the structure of the letter found in Tready way's coat in which he tells of having as follows:

The prisoner, the police say, is Harry Kendrick, whose name already has been mentioned in the Peirce case. He was the author of the letter found in Tready way's coat in which he tells of having as follows:

The New Jersey logal proceeding.

Marie Phillips Rogers, "Treadway's girl" of many names, was again the center of interest in the Peirce murder case when she appeared at the inquest into the death of the Fort Washington man today. See is shown here being taken to the coroner's office, where the inquest was held

FIND LOOT IN ROOM

Germantown Avenue Store

hearing tomorrow, charged with rob

WINTER BEGINS TONIGHT

Winter begins at 10:17 o'clock to

A lot of folks had already dismay be preceded by a light

ding the Satterlee store.

TEMPEST GETS "WARNING"

Told to "Watch His Step" in Mak. Police Accused Prisoner of Robbing ing Drug Charges and Ross Are Held

Assistant Superintendent of Police Detectives MacDougall and RichardTempest is both amused and curious son, of the Park and Lehigh avenues station, while searching the rooms of from Washington.

The following is printed upon the 3317 North Broad street, this morning the testimony he gave vesterday at a that from a window of the hardware hearing of those arrested during a raid store of A. C. Satterles at 3422 Geron a North Twenty record street house mantown avenue, which had been

He is puzzled by the fact that the post mark shows that the card was in mailed at almost the same time he gave fro

Arrests Follow Order to Keep From City Suspicious Characters

Following an order issued vesterday Lirector of Public Safety James T. ortelyou that suspicious characters be not allowed to enter Philadelphia when driven from other cities, detectives arrested eight men who were unable to give satisfactory account of themselves. It is feared the city will be the objective of undesirables New York has tion for a new trial will be here major points—first, that were drawn on the jury panel the coroner's office and then to the cell tionary methods of arresting suspick so way's coat in which he tells of having as follows:

"hit Trix over the head with finy special 32." Trix was his wife, Mary Thomas, who died in a rooming house on East Thompson street yesterday.

The case will then be taken to the Court of Errors and Appeals, at Trenson, which will pass on it-finally. Even mould this court deny the appeal the clay involved will postpone the execution of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least to the court of the death sentence for at least the court of the court of perfect dinner demands

Favors, Bon Bons to harmonize with the table decorations

1316 Chestnut St.

MacDonald & Campbell

Quality ' Service

224 CHESTNUT STREET

Christmas Gifts for Men

Do you know of another store whose goods are so universally admired? A selection from our great stocks will add to the happiness of any man.

Handkerchiefs, Leather Belts, Knitted Silk Mufflers, Underwear, Gloves. Lined Gloves.

25c to $2.50 $1.00 to $3.00 $8.00 to $19.00 $1.00 to $25.00 $3.50 to $7.00 $5.00 to $19.50 Silk Neckwear, Silk Shirts, Pajamas, Silk Half Hose, Sweater Coats, Bath Robes.

$1.00 to $4.50 $6.50 to $12.00 $3.50 to $16.50 $1.00 to $5.00 $9.00 to $30.00

$10.00 to $20.00

1334-1336 Chestnut Street

NABS MAN IN CAFE AS JEWEL THIEF

Actress Points Out Suspect in Crowded Chestnut Street Restaurant to Patrolman

LOST BONDS AND GEMS

Charged with having stolen $1500 in Liberty bonds and jewelry worth $2000 from two New York actresses, John Sherry, of Chicago, Ill., was arrested in a Chestnut street rentourant last

According to Patrolmen McLean, of the Fifteenth and Locust streets station, he was approached by Miss Sue Creighton, an actress playing at a local theatre, and taken to the restaurant, where she pointed out Sherry and demanded that he be arrested.

Sherry did not deny knowing the and continue sufficient materials and continue to the form of the state of the

The restaurant was well illed at the time Miss Creighton demanded Sherry be taken in custedy, and the incident caused excitement, the diners struggling to get a view of the other struggling four years old, of the street, and Thomas Schell, two to get a view of the girl and the man e had complained against. McLean finally got his prisoner out of the restaurant and took him to the Miss Creighton charges, it is said that in New York recently Sherry stole the Liberty bonds and jewelry from the apartments occupied by her-self and a girl friend, another actress and made his escape. On Chestnut street last night, she says, she saw a man closely resembling the one who stole her valuables. She followed him to the restaurant, made certain it was Sherry, and then summoned the patrolman.

VARES TO OUST TRAINER

Plan to Remove Him as Twenty sixth Ward Committeeman

Vare leaders plan the recall of Joseph A are leaders plan the recall of Joseph (. Trainer, administration leader, as he Republican city committeeman from he Twenty-sixth ward. The effort will be made tonight at a special meeting of he ward committee. In his place it is proposed to elect either Joseph L. Baldwick, forwards, assistant, director, or win, formerly assistant director health, or Congressman William cocceded Congressman Vare, who had en the city committeeman for years. meeting will be at the East Sunday. A large quantity of drugs was seized during the raid which an alleged Department of Justice agent interfered with. Following the discovery of the loot in his room today. Page, who escaped from Moyamensing Prison two years age by scaling the wall, will be given MISS LIPPINCOTT

MISS LIPPINCOTT SPEAKS

Sick Germantown Girl Breaks Si lence of Four Months

The family of Miss Joan Lippin Germanpawn girl who has Warmer Weather Today May Be with "sleeping sickness" for four months, are overjoyed today at her partial recovery of speech, and are preoarded their summery frocks and straw Vesterday hats, but the frosty-headed monarch Lippincott. Vesterday afternoon as Mrs. O. C.

hats, but the frosty-headed monarch who rules over ermined fields and frozen lakes and streams does not make his official bow until tonight.

This is also the shortest day of the year, unless you spend it waiting on a street carner for a trolley car. The sun was up at 7:20 o'clock this morning and will set at 4:39 o'clock afternoon, lingering uine hours and cott is expected, though it maye be many weeks before she is able to leave The temperature today is higher than yesterday. It was 27 degrees at 7:30 o'clock this morning, and may reach 38 by this afternoon, it is raining in the Mississippi valley, and as the storm area appears to be moving toward the Great Lake region, Mr. Bliss believes it will rain here in twenty four hours. The rain may weeks before she is able to leave her bed. Murray Gibson, of Merion, her fiance, to whom she was to have been married in November, was one of the first to be told the good news of her improvement. The family plans to have a Christmas tree in the girl's room.

Drink

Winsome Sweet Cider made of sound apples-by the keg or gal-Pure Cider Vinegar.

Eggs just from the nest. White Potatoes. The Finest Apples.

Black Horse Farm Every day in the year from 9 to Phone-Media 103

Roads In and About City Reported in Good Condition

Lincoln highway - (Trenton to Chambersburg); good condition, except through Berks county, where it is only fair. Baltimore pike, through Kennett

William Penn highway-(Easton to Chambersburg); all sections in Square and Oxford, is in good con-good condition. Philadelphia and Reading pike-

Good condition. Lancaster and Harrisburg pike-Fair in Lancaster county; good in Dauphin county. Probably light snow, to be folowed by rain, with slowly rising temperature and variable winds in creasing and becoming southeast.

CHARGE MEN STOLE STOCK FROM FORMER EMPLOYER

and equipment from their former em of 5021 Hutchinson street, Howard Wright, twenty-four years old, of Air-drie street, and Thomas Schell, twentyfour years old, of the Camden Y. M. C. A., went into business for themselves according to the police. They were ar-rested last night, charged with larceny. Two weeks ago the three men noti fied their employer, the Bunch Peanut Co., 3733 York road, of their resignations. They were employed as salesmen and also helped to make deliveries to ustomers. During the last week they worked executives noticed the sales of the three men declined from $250 to Following their resignation the com-pany notified the police of the German town avenue and Lycoming streets station of their suspicions and District De testive Thomas Winning started an in-vestigation. He found the men had started in business as the Sunshine Pennut Products Co. with headquarters at the home of Chittick. After a search supplies and equipment owned by Bunch Co. in possession of these three. At a hearing this morning before Magistrate Wrigley, at the Germantown avenue and Lycoming streets station, the three men were held under $500 bail further hearing December 24.

Three Apartments Entered and Jewelry and Clothing Stolen False keys were used in several Ger mantown robberies last night. The Wissahickon Apartments, at Schuyle street and Queen lane, were entered in this manner. An apartment occupied by P. Behal, was robbed of two rings, a watch and clothing, while from the rooms of Howard C. Holton a watch, chain, bracelet and pin, valued at $250, False keys also were used to obtain try at the Mapleshade Inn, Bethlehem pike and Germantown avenue. An over-James C. Gucker, were taken.

FARMER DEFENDS

Haddonfield Man Ejects Family and Defies Police in Barricaded Home

SURROUNDED AND CAPTURED ground

After ejecting his wife and three children from the house inte last night. Andrew Firsht, forty six years old, who lives on a farm at Orchard station on the Kresson road near Haddonfield, N.

, barriended himself in his home upen the appearance of the police today and men sprang from behind a tree. held them at buy with a shotgon for nearly an hour.

dren were found wandering on the her right hand were broken or crushed ing and upon being teles to ing and upon being taken to the poil-station the woman told of her husband's the ctions, the frequency of the first state of the first of Police George Bux'er went side as she fay on the ground, the Firsht farm and found the man locked in his house. He was armed with a shorgun. The police surrounded the house and finally broke in a door and placed Firsht under arrest. During a coutch of the house a together still and a large quantity whicky, eider and equipment for mak ing liquor were found

At a hearing this morning before Recorder William Carey, Mrs. Firsht, her two children and two married daughters testified against Firsht. The married daughters, both from Phila-delphia, were Mrs. Anna Saulsky, 1112 Feel street, and Mrs. Mary Solohur, 1121 Paul street. Peel street. They testified the eir father on numerous occasions had ejected his family from their home forcing them to sleep in the fields, and that he sold large quantities of whisky to foreigners in Philadelphia. He was Boy Forged to Buy Girls Candy Harrisburg, Dec. 21.—Clarence L. Snyder, seventeen, a Pennsylvania Railroad messenger, yesterday pleaded guilty in the Dauphin county court to forging checks for $493.64 using the of widows of railroad mer said he bought candy and taxi rides for held under $300 ball for court by Re-

FALSE-KEY THIEVES ACTIVE ...THIS is no time for pessimism, as the nation is headed for better things and going strong. says a prominent bank presi-

> HERBERT M. MORRIS Advertising Agency Every Phase of Sales Promotion North American Bldg. Philadelphia

BAILEYBANKS&BIDDLE

The inspection of the Super-Quality

Jeweled FLEXIBLE BRACELETS

> are in unusual demand and the collection of this Establishment is unequalled for Quality, Style and Value

Emeralds and Diamonds Diamonds and Rubies Sapphires and Diamonds Diamends and Black Onex

All Diamonds

FOOTPAD ATTACKS WOMAN Hospital Attendant Is Struck Down Watchman Fires at Man Attacked by a man near the entrance was beaten unconscious with the butt of revolver and seriously injured. The assailant made his escape. Policy believe the purpose of the attack was robbery, but that the man was fright ened away by a watchman who neared the scene as Miss Subal fell to the

to the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane, at midnight, Miss Celia Schel

The watchman can to the girl's aid and her assailant dashed across the vare of the hospital, climbed a wall and es caped to Market street, as the watch man fired several shots at him.

Miss Sohel was returning to the in stitution, where she is an attendant inside the entrance gute. with a revolver, the blow glancing from

As Miss Sobel fell she screamed and her head, partly broken in force by he

SPECIAL PRICES

on Good

Dependable Overcoats and Suits

during the Week before Christmas!

Other day a customer told us he had bought a suit elsewhere, but decided to stray no more from "N. B. T." "It can't be done! No clothes stand up like 'em!" he said.

At $45-Specials from our regular $60 and $65 assort-

At $50 -- Fine Suits and fine Overcoats showing the superiority of "N. B. T." At $15 Patrick Macki-

Separate Trousers, $6.50, $7.50. $9, $10 and $12.

naws, were $18, $20, $22.50.

Dress Vests, $5 to $10were $7.50 to $13.50.

Evening Dress Coat and Trouser Suits, $68, $72.

Special Values throughout the store!

PERRY & CO. 16th and Chestnut Sts.

Herbert Hoover Asks You to Share Your Christmas With 3,500,000 Children in Europe Facing Starvation

Will you help by taking as many children as you can afford?

10 Dollars Will Save a Child

Please send checks at once to

John H. Mason, Treasurer

nmercial Trust Co., City Hall Square, Philadelphia

Sweaters and Woolen Jackets In abundant variety.

'pull-over' style, $7.50 to $27.50. Sport vests. Suft finished wool fabrics in heather combination. Some with braided cage and pockets, $7.50, $10,

Either buttoned front or 812 and $15. Boys' sweaters, 39. Golf hose, foreign or domestic. Either with or without feet, $3.50 to $8.50,

REEDS

JACOB

SONS 424-1436 Chestrust Street