

Evening Public Ledger PUBLIC LEDGER COMPANY CURTIS H. K. CURTIS, President... PUBLISHED DAILY at 1000 Locust Street...

Rotten Row and those who characterize the home of the chief of the world's mightiest republic as the White House seem hardly to have exhausted the possibilities of description.

in keeping the price of all kinds of products at a reasonable figure, is hoping that all plans for a heavy and ill-considered action may be abandoned.

ABOUT FAMOUS FLAGS The First Flag of the Confederacy is Here in the North—The Signal That Inspired a World-Famous Hymn—Paul Jones' Flag

By GEORGE NOX MCMAIN UNITED STATES SENATOR P. C. KNOX made a very interesting contribution to the Historical Museum at Valley Forge the other day.

A TEST OF THE MANDAMUS A GENUINE and really challenging opportunity to test the anti-mandamus section of the new city charter may be offered to Mayor Moore if he decides to veto any portion of the $1,000,000 appropriation for the Municipal Court.

SEASONABLE GOOD CONDUCT AN EXCEPTIONALLY well-behaved autumn returns at 10-11 tonight. Not in view of current cold waves, was the reason without its implications of benevolent satire.

QUACK LEGISLATION WILL CURE NOTHING The Passage of a Hastily Drawn Tariff Bill to Help the Farmers Certain to Do More Harm Than Good

It will be recalled that Senator Penrose, in the course of his recent disposition of the affairs of city and nation, argued with the Mayor that as well as having everything President Judge Brown asked for on the ground that the judge could get all he desired, in any event, by the use of what is "abuse" of the power of mandamus.

BATTLE flags have always been the most highly prized relics of civilized nations. Within the past few weeks Germany has gotten the battle flag captured by her from the armies of France in the struggle of 1870.

ONE of the rarest flag relics in this country is in the possession of members of the family of Herbert A. Wilcox, of West Philadelphia.

Germany's Army of Officers Dr. Richard Dittler, author of "J'accuse," in "The Review."

SHORT CUTS Lloyd Rogers has at least a genius hanging on to his job. Let us hope at least that the battle will contribute liberally to charity.

A DRUG ROUND-UP WILL the incident of the $25,000 drug fund made by Capt. Timon to the city of Philadelphia, and the fact that the fund is being used for the purpose of purchasing drugs for the city, is a matter of public interest.

THE GREEK "RESTORATION" THE return of King Constantine seems to have been a success, and the restoration of the monarchy in Greece is a matter of public interest.

THE HAITI SCANDAL EXPLODED IT WAS a naval board of inquiry that inquired into Colonel Barnett's charges of "indiscriminate killing of natives" by the marines in Haiti and there will be people quite ready to believe that the circumstances had something to do with the verdict of acquittal rendered for the American military administration in the most turbulent of island isles.

PHILADELPHIA letter dated December 13, 1920, was the storm center around which the news of the flag episode in our national history centered.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW? 1. For what part of America did the Pilgrims originally set out on their voyage? 2. Who commanded the British fleet which destroyed the German squadron of Von Spee off the Falkland Islands?

Answers to Yesterday's Quiz 1. Thomas Brackett Reed, whose strict parliamentary methods were bitterly criticized by his political enemies, was speaker of the House of Representatives from 1889 to 1891, and from 1895 to 1899.

WHERE WAR WAGES WENT A GENUINE response to the United States' appeal for contributions to the war effort has been received from the people of Philadelphia.

THE GREAT BODY OF CONSUMERS, interested in the welfare of the nation, is a matter of public interest.

THE HAITI SCANDAL EXPLODED (Continued) The fact remains, however, that none of the testimony offered at the hearings held in Philadelphia in the latter part of 1919, and the fact that the Haitian military administration in the most turbulent of island isles.

PHILADELPHIA letter dated December 13, 1920, was the storm center around which the news of the flag episode in our national history centered.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW? (Continued) 3. What was the real name of Henry M. Stanley, the Anglo-American explorer who discovered the source of the Nile? 4. What are the three largest cities of France?

Answers to Yesterday's Quiz (Continued) 5. John of Arco was nineteen years old at the time he was executed by the English in Rouen in 1412. 6. The War of the Roses in England in the fifteenth century was fought between the royal houses of Lancaster and York.

WHERE WAR WAGES WENT (Continued) A GENUINE response to the United States' appeal for contributions to the war effort has been received from the people of Philadelphia.

THE GREAT BODY OF CONSUMERS, interested in the welfare of the nation, is a matter of public interest.

THE HAITI SCANDAL EXPLODED (Continued) The fact remains, however, that none of the testimony offered at the hearings held in Philadelphia in the latter part of 1919, and the fact that the Haitian military administration in the most turbulent of island isles.

PHILADELPHIA letter dated December 13, 1920, was the storm center around which the news of the flag episode in our national history centered.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW? (Continued) 5. What was the real name of Henry M. Stanley, the Anglo-American explorer who discovered the source of the Nile? 6. What are the three largest cities of France?

Answers to Yesterday's Quiz (Continued) 7. The War of the Roses in England in the fifteenth century was fought between the royal houses of Lancaster and York.

WHERE WAR WAGES WENT (Continued) A GENUINE response to the United States' appeal for contributions to the war effort has been received from the people of Philadelphia.

THE GREAT BODY OF CONSUMERS, interested in the welfare of the nation, is a matter of public interest.

THE HAITI SCANDAL EXPLODED (Continued) The fact remains, however, that none of the testimony offered at the hearings held in Philadelphia in the latter part of 1919, and the fact that the Haitian military administration in the most turbulent of island isles.

PHILADELPHIA letter dated December 13, 1920, was the storm center around which the news of the flag episode in our national history centered.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW? (Continued) 7. The War of the Roses in England in the fifteenth century was fought between the royal houses of Lancaster and York.

Answers to Yesterday's Quiz (Continued) 8. One touch of nature makes the whole world kin, a line spoken by the Duke of York in Shakespeare's play, "Troilus and Cressida."

WHERE WAR WAGES WENT (Continued) A GENUINE response to the United States' appeal for contributions to the war effort has been received from the people of Philadelphia.

THE GREAT BODY OF CONSUMERS, interested in the welfare of the nation, is a matter of public interest.

THE HAITI SCANDAL EXPLODED (Continued) The fact remains, however, that none of the testimony offered at the hearings held in Philadelphia in the latter part of 1919, and the fact that the Haitian military administration in the most turbulent of island isles.

PHILADELPHIA letter dated December 13, 1920, was the storm center around which the news of the flag episode in our national history centered.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW? (Continued) 8. One touch of nature makes the whole world kin, a line spoken by the Duke of York in Shakespeare's play, "Troilus and Cressida."

Answers to Yesterday's Quiz (Continued) 9. A catowary is a large bird related to a heron and a crane, and is a common sight in the marshes of the South Sea Islands.

WHERE WAR WAGES WENT (Continued) A GENUINE response to the United States' appeal for contributions to the war effort has been received from the people of Philadelphia.

THE GREAT BODY OF CONSUMERS, interested in the welfare of the nation, is a matter of public interest.

THE HAITI SCANDAL EXPLODED (Continued) The fact remains, however, that none of the testimony offered at the hearings held in Philadelphia in the latter part of 1919, and the fact that the Haitian military administration in the most turbulent of island isles.

PHILADELPHIA letter dated December 13, 1920, was the storm center around which the news of the flag episode in our national history centered.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW? (Continued) 9. A catowary is a large bird related to a heron and a crane, and is a common sight in the marshes of the South Sea Islands.

Answers to Yesterday's Quiz (Continued) 10. The War of the Roses in England in the fifteenth century was fought between the royal houses of Lancaster and York.