

YOUR CHRISTMAS DINNER IS PLANNED BY MRS. WILSON

The Family of Four, or of Six or of Ten Will Find Helpful Suggestions and Recipes in Today's Article

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

THIS is the one special occasion when the housewife feels that she may lay aside her duties for a moment and plan a dinner as the family purse will permit. Christmas is essentially a family holiday and one usually feels that this day of rejoicing will be brought to a fitting climax by a splendid dinner.

The choice of the place of residence will largely be a matter for the family to decide. Following are three menus planned for four, six and ten people, respectively.

- Menu for Family of Four: Oyster Cocktail, Olives, Fillets of Fish, Tartar Sauce, Roast Turkey, Cranberry Jelly, Candied Sweet Potatoes, Cauliflower, Lettuce, French Dressing, Plum Pudding, Raisins, Coffee, Nuts.

- Menu for Family of Six: Oyster Broth, Salted Nuts, Home-Made Relish, Boiled Fish Parsley Sauce, Roast Duck, Oyster Filling, Brown Gravy, Cranberry Sauce, Baked Potatoes, Brussels Sprouts, Colossal, Coffee.

- Menu for Family of Ten: Fruit Cocktail, Celery, Grilled Oysters on Half Shell, Butter Sauce, Roast Turkey or Goose, Brown Gravy, Cranberry Sauce or Currant Jelly, Macaroni White Potatoes, Buttered Onions, Peas, Lettuce, Russian Dressing, Mince Pie, Plum Pudding, Nuts, Raisins, Candies, Coffee.

To prepare menu No. 1, make a cocktail sauce as follows: Two-thirds cup of tomato catsup, Three tablespoons of vinegar, One tablespoon of horseradish, One-half teaspoon of salt, One-fourth teaspoon of pepper, Tiny pinch of cloves.

JENNIE CAN'T SEE WHY HE ISN'T MAKING MORE

She Complains All the Time, Although Her Husband Is Doing Well and Considers His Prospects Very Good—Isabel Aids and Abets Her

THEY were discussing their business prospects as they journeyed down town on the trolley together.

"I think I've done pretty well this year," observed one of them, thoughtfully. "Considering everything, we really have come out pretty well."

JEN is one of "those wives." They really ought not to be wives; it gives them too good a chance to put misery into life.

These "funny" stories that you hear about nagging wives and henpecked husbands are very, very true.
