Christmas Music by the Organ at 9 and 5:20. With Singing of Carols Organ Chimes Each Hour

Splendidly Ready for the Great Last-Hour Rush Tomorrow

There Are Times to Stop and Take Reckoning as Well as Times to Go Forward

A man must always have his wits about him, matching the winds and ready to quickly take soundings of the course he is sailing and the depths he is in.
Commercially, financially, socially, politically, the winds blow from every quarter and change very suddenly sometimes.
We cannot recover in a day or a year from the consequences of the long war, but we can keep on working toward it and doing our part bravely, safely and surely.

The Jewelry Store

For the Last Important Gifts

Usually for members of the family or very dear friends. One likes to give these gifts more thought and care than any others, and it is a matter of pride to have them the very best possible.
The Jewelry Store with its rarely beautiful treasures is the place of all others to look for such gifts, and it is here you will find them. At your disposal to choose from are a magnificent assemblage of fine diamond jewelry, mounted in platinum.
Men's and women's watches of the best and most reliable makes.
Clocks of all desirable kinds from the biggest hall clock down to a little folding clock for the grip.
One of the largest and finest collections of sterling silver, including old English table silver, modern French and American silver and boudoir silver.
High-grade silver-plated tableware, rivaling sterling silver in beauty of design.
Gold jewelry, among which are many delightful but inexpensive gifts.
(Jewelry Store, Chestnut and Thirteenth)

Linens Are Easy to Choose and Good to Give

There are scores of very good and acceptable linen gifts that you can choose in a jiffy—and hurried choosing is best done in a Linen Store of safe merchandise.
For a good last-minute selection we commend Madeira linen centerpieces of pure linen done with plenty of hand embroidery and finished with hand-scalloped edges; price $2.75 each.
Another good last-minute thought is represented by guest towels of fine Irish linen huckaback with damask borders, in size 15x25 inches, at $1 each.

Last Minute Needfuls in Commercial Stationery

This place is a real stand-by of the hurried Christmas shopper, especially at the last minute.
It is equally helpful, whether you want a good gift, or the "fixings" for the Christmas package. Any of these gifts can safely be chosen here in a hurry—fountain pens, propelling or self-feeding pencils, calendars, diaries, note books, engagement books, desk sets, book holders.
Then for fixing up Christmas packages we have first of all "Christmas" boxes in holly and red. Holly, white and brown wrapping paper.
Tinsel cord in gold and silver, ribbon, twine in red, green, white and brown.
Tags, labels, seals and cards.

Last-Minute Things Aplenty in China and Glass

For last-minute shoppers in a quandary, the China and Glassware Store is about as helpful a place as we know.
On every hand are things one can choose in a jiffy—an infinite variety of things costing anywhere from 75c to as much as one wants to pay. Between 75c and $7.50 there are hundreds of excellent gift articles easily chosen in a hurry.
In China
There is a multitude of givable pieces—pretty china, chocolate sets of fourteen pieces at $5 a set, ice cream sets of seven pieces at $6.50 a set, breakfast sets at $17. Ten sets at $7.50. Cracker and cheese dishes, $2.50 each. Sugar and cream sets, 75c, and so on through a world of good and givable things.
In Light Cut Glass
Candy jars at $1 each. Decorated glass vases, 50c each. Sugar and cream sets, $1.50 each. Vases, 30c and upward.
(Fourth Floor, Chestnut)

In Standard Cut Glass
Hundreds of gift pieces, all of fine crystal in well-executed cuttings, ranging from bonbon dishes at $1.50 to lemonade bowls at $250 each.
A particularly interesting gift piece is a cut glass basket at $5.
