PUTS BONUS COST AT $2,300,000,000

Houston Declares Bill's Enactment Would Mean Added Burden in Taxes

TREASURY "AGAINST WALL"

By the Associated Press

Washington, Dec. 27.—Passage of the soldiers' bonus bill would cost the government approximately $2,300,000,000, Secretary Houston estimated today before the Senate finance committee considering the soldiers' aid measure. The treasury secretary declared en actment of the bill meant an added bur den in the way of taxes, reiterating a statement made before the committee last week that the treasury ought not to be called upon to assume any additional burdens.

While Mr. Houston said it was impossible to compute accurately the exact possible to compute accurately the exact cost of each of the four optional aid plans, he believed the estimate sub-mitted was substantially correct. Land settlement provisions of the bill con-tain so many uncertainties, he added, that the cost entailed by them could only be guessed at.

Assuming that all of the men would select one of the four optional plans. Mr. Houston estimated the cost of each of the plans as follows: Adjusted service pay, $1.342.000.000; insurance provisions. $4.534.000.000; vocational training aid, $1.880.000.000; farm and home development, $1.880.000.000.

"Against a Wall," He Says

As the plans were optional, the secnot be confined to any one of them and allowing for the various selections be arrived at his total estimated cost of $2,300,000,000.

The treasury secretary professed to "against a wall" as to methods o obtaining revenue to meet the outlay that would be required if the bill were enacted. He called the committee's attention to the suggestions for new taxes contained in his annual report, but ex-plained that these were mentioned only for the information of Congress and without any sort of recommendations.

He did not attempt to discuss the various tax suggestions, asking the committee to hear Dr. T. S. Adams, treasury economist and tax expert, who gave
