

A LITTLE EQUESTRIENNE FROM ATLANTIC CITY. Dorothy Moore, 31 Fairmount avenue, Chelsea, giving her Christmas steed a tryout.

TOYS AND CHEER FOR THE FRIENDLESS. Jack Weinstein, with little Lester Weinstein, 5229 North Tenth street, and Frances Slomire, 2527 North Dover street, playing Santa Claus to youngsters of the Northern Home for Friendless Children, Twenty-third and Brown streets.

PUTS ASIDE HIS COMMON PLEAS COURT GOWN TO FILL HOLIDAY BASKETS. Judge John M. Patterson directed the distribution of baskets of Christmas-time eats at City Hall to 527 families remembered by the Prison Welfare Association. Ledger Photo Service.

ITALY RECEIVES LOST GERMAN DIRIGIBLE. Landing of the third airship required by the Italian Government following peace treaty conditions. Wide World Photo.

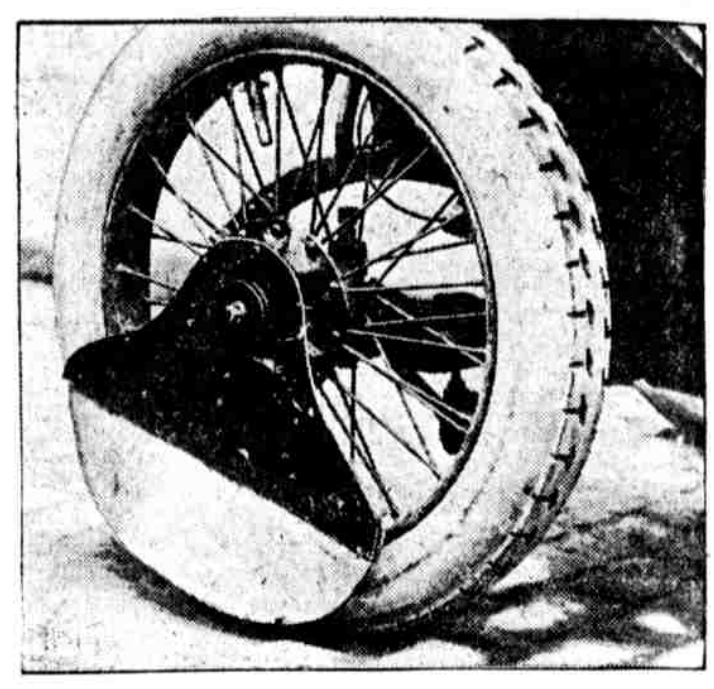

THE CALDER SENATE COMMITTEE INVESTIGATING COAL SITUATION. Left to right—Senator Walter E. Edge, of New Jersey; Senator William M. Calder (chairman), of New York, and Senator William S. Kenyon, of Iowa.

BISHOP JOSEPH F. BERRY, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, discusses New Year resolutions on the editorial page.

A HOLIDAY DISPLAY TWO MONTHS IN THE MAKING. A. Rabell, 2715 South Thirteenth street, and Edward Freyer putting the finishing touches to an elaborate Christmas scene at the former's home. The many buildings are strikingly colored by Mr. Rabell. He has been an employe of Hog Island since the opening of the yard. Ledger Photo Service.

PREVENTS SPLASHING MUD ON YOUR NEW DRESS. A Paris wheel device designed to collect the mud and shoot it backward on a line with the car. Kadel & Herliet.

STARTLING BROADWAY. Captain Charles N. Fitzgerald, commanding New York's air police, in a thrilling stunt.

RUTH GORDON, the "Baby-Talk Lady," of Tarkington's "Seventeen," recovering after surgeons broke her legs to cure bow-leggedness.

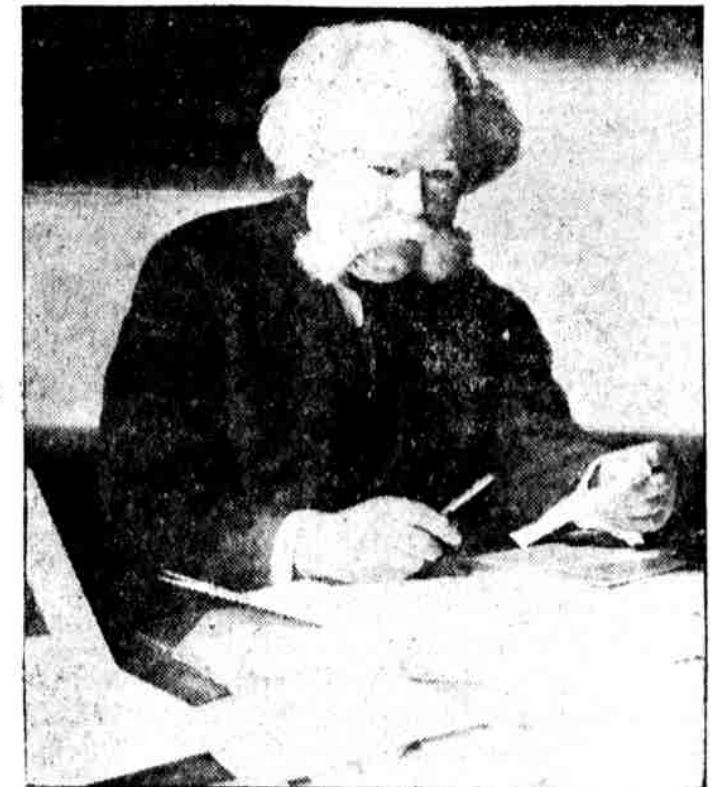

DANISH KING AT RHEIMS. Christian X inspecting a German gun which shelled, so disastrously, the famous cathedral of the French city. Wide World Photo.

ON A TRIAL SPIN. Christopher and Norris Lloyd, 1623 Spruce street, putting Santa Claus' gifts to the test. Ledger Photo Service.

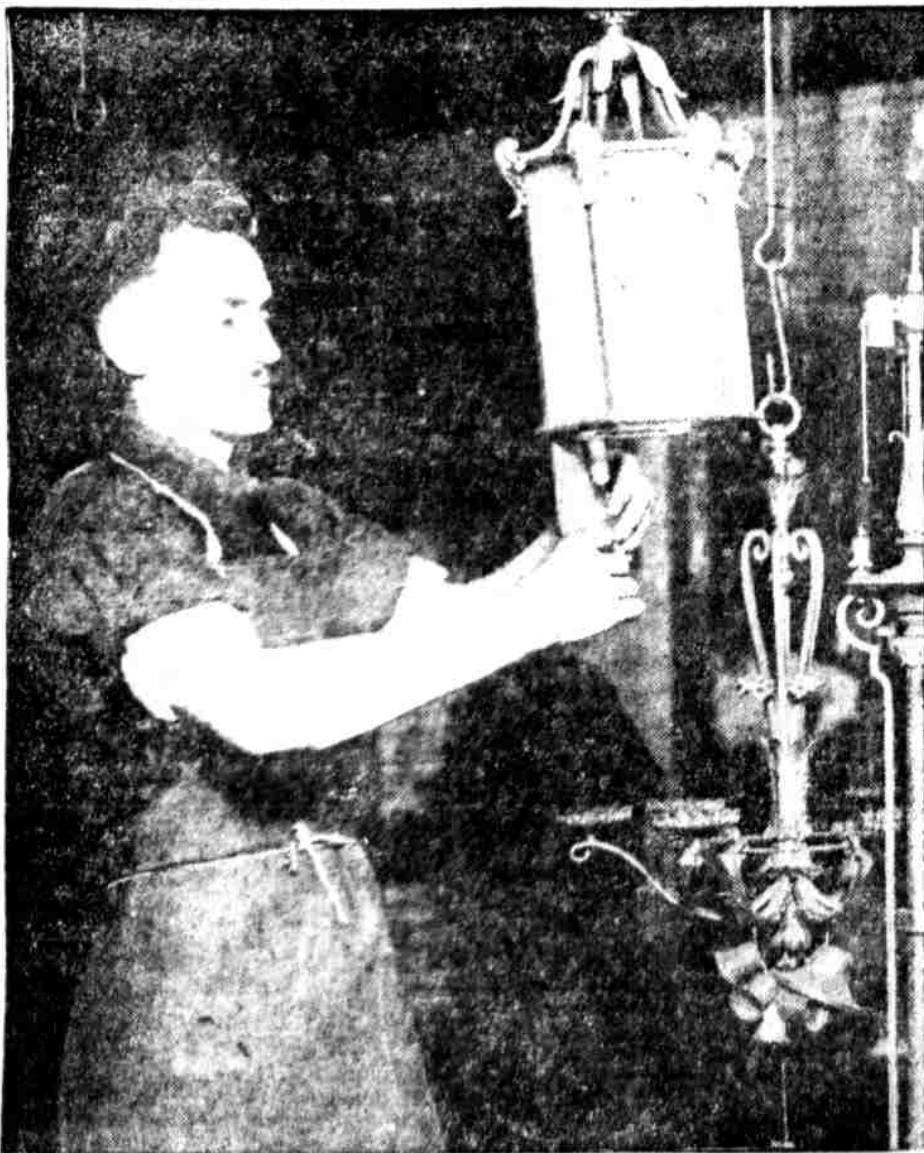

SIAMESE ROYALTY HERE FOR VISIT. Prince and Princess Mahidel arriving from Europe for a tour of the United States. International.

HOLIDAY STATISTICS. Edward J. Cattell, the city statistician, tabulating the many hundreds of Christmas cards he received from numerous friends. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

ASSEMBLING A BRONZE ELEPHANT LANTERN. John Ockerhausen, 308 Wolf street, preparing a lantern for shipment at the Hoan & Brannen Manufacturing Co., 427 North Broad street. Ledger Photo Service.

UNITED STATES TREASURY BELLE. Miss Betty Fairer, chosen as the prettiest girl in the Treasury, who christened the monster oil painting of President Wilson, Treasury Building, Washington. Keystone.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

HIS TRAFFIC SIGN IN HOLIDAY AREA. Reserve Patrolman Thomas Toon, 1451 Sparks street, signals his "stop" and "go" with his hand and Christmas greens at Fifth and Market streets. He has two children, a boy and a girl.

A LIGHT, PLEASE! The lady is representing "Cigarettes" and her escort is arrayed as a "Box of Matches" in the recent Advertisers' Ball at Covent Garden, London. Central News.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS FAY WERNER. 525 South Fifth Street Philadelphia.