DEATH OF WOMAN LEGION HAS GIFTS ENDS TRAGIC LIFE FOR DISABLED MEN

Commits Suicide by Inhaling Veterans in Hospitals Are Re-Gas-First Husband Killed by Turks

A tragic story was uncovered yes-terday morning when Mrs. Frank Kirk- bags will be distributed by the Ameriern Legion posts in this city today to the disable menian, committed suicide by inhaling gas while her husband slept in the adjoining room.

They were married just five month ago and Kirkory ascribed his wife's suieide to worry over his own failing eye-sight and consequent inability to con-ting his work as a jeweler sight and consequent inability to continue his work as a jeweler.

Mrs. Kirkory, who before her marriage was Rose Mendo, lived for many years as a slave of the Turks in Armenia. While a young girl in that country she had married, but her husband was killed by the Turks, and when her son was nine years old she fled to her son was nine years old she fled to Kirkory, who is also an Armenian, has a past equally as full of horror as that of his late wife. As Mrs. Kirkory's first husband was killed by the Turks, so was Mr. Kirkory's first wife slain by the cruel Mohammedan. Six years ago he escaped the horror of his home land by fleeing to America, where he engaged in the jewelry business in New York, later moving to this city.

The body of Mrs. Kirkory was removed to the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital.

Clover Days To-morrow and Wednesday

The last Clover Days of the year will be exceedingly profitable to the tens of thousands of customers who seldom miss one of these unique events. There are almost innumerable articles which, before Christmas, were in high favor for gifts, but which folks buy for themselves the year around—now marked at greatly reduced prices. Besides these are many lots of seasonable, desirable articles of apparel, and things for the home, novelties and staple merchandise, at far below their real value. The figures printed show the season's regular prices in comparison with the Clover Day prices.

Many Hundreds of Different Lots at Less Than Regular Prices Look for the Famous Four-leaf Clover Signs Throughout the Store!

The following is a partial list-less than one-third of the special lots prepared for the two Clover Days. Hundreds for the first day, and several hundred new lots in reserve for the second day. Try to be here on both days-but be sure to come tomorrow, early-and please carry small parcels if you can conveniently do so. We cannot promise to fill telephone orders for Clover Specials.
