PENN ATHLETES WON 3 TITLES DURING 1920

Basketball, Track and Soccer Championships Give Red and Blue the Lead Among Big Colleges—Baseball a Fifty-Fifty Affair

THE fading year 1920 has brought much athletic glory to the University of Pennsylvania. Athletes wearing the red and blue made the year a memorable one by winning three championships, the best record of any of the big colleges. The Naval Academy also wen three championships, but not one of the branches in which the title was recognible construed as a major sport. won can be construed as a major sport, tean

TO DISCUSS'CHANGES IN FOOTBALL RULES

Wide Variety of Subjects to Be Taken Up at Chicago Meeting

Chicago, Dec. 28.—Conferences of athletic officials of various Middle West, eastern and southern institutions, in session here this week, may change the tenor of intercollegiate athletes next year. The first meeting will be held today by the Athletic Research Society. On Wednesday the Intercollegate Athletic Association will discuss proposed changes in football rules.

The elimination of the goal kick after touchdowns and the suppression of the forward pass have been talked of. Burring of distance penalties within ten tional roughness sufficient to put a player out of the game, has also been suggested. Reports of athletic committees and the subject of the national track meet now in the hands of the executive committee, will be considered on Wednesday.
