Harrisburg, Dec. 30. — The Public Service Commission had sent complaints against the Southern and Bell Telephone Co.s' plan for changes of exchanges in Chester county and the complaint against "overloading" of the wires of the Perry County Telephone Co., to the officers of the companies for answers and will likely conduct hearings next month.

Christiansburg, Va., Dec. 30.—New York and Christiansburg investors have chartered the Brinton Mining Corporation with $600,000 capital. Caleb Brinton of Christiansburg is president, and C. T. Hancock, of New York, is vice president. The properties include officers of the companies for answers and will likely conduct hearings next month.
