

IN THE CAST OF THE "SPEEDFAST PRINCESS." Young players and dancers from the Southwark Neighborhood house, 101 Ellsworth street, who appeared in a holiday play presented at the Broad Street Theatre. At the left is Elsie Uram. The royal partners on the right are Ray Schwartz and Margaret Bolte. Ledger Photo Service

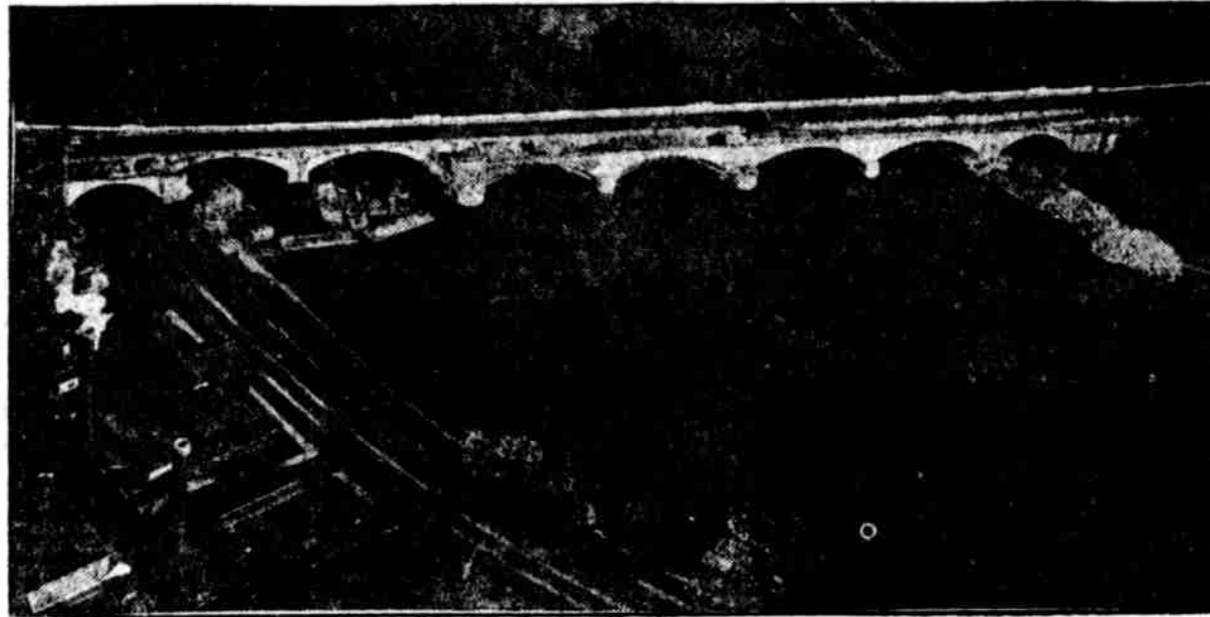

FREEZE STILL HOLDS. Clayton Banks on the Merion Golf Club's frozen pond. Ledger Photo Service

"LIMPING LIMERICK" JURY AWARDS DOUBLE PRIZE TODAY. The jury which awarded the double prize in today's contest was composed of these ten girls from the various departments of the H. K. Mulford Co. chemical plant at Broad and Wallace streets. From left to right they are Miss Martha Robins, Miss Anna V. MacElroy, Miss Edna P. Hurlock, Miss Ethel Morrison, Miss Helen L. Redmond, Miss Verna Ogden, Miss Agnes McGurk, Miss Belle Myers, Miss Elsie Lawrence, Miss Mary D. Strain. Ledger Photo Service

DR. MORRIS JASTROW, JR. He discusses the Bible of today in an interview on the editorial page. Underwood & Underwood

FAIRMOUNT PARK'S NEWEST BRIDGE. THE EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER'S NEWSPLANE flies over Columbia bridge, the Reading Railway's graceful structure over the Schuylkill river just south of the trolley bridge at Strawberry Mansion. Ledger Photo Service

VISITING THE INDIGENT. Assistant Director Edward A. Noppel, of the Department of Public Welfare, on a holiday call to the needy in the city's home at Holmesburg. Ledger Photo Service

TALLEST AND SHORTEST GETTING SUITS. George Auer, 8 feet 4 inches, and Lady Little, 30 inches in stature, being fitted by a New York costume. Underwood & Underwood

CAN'T LIFT EIGHTY-FIVE POUNDS. Mrs. Hideo Kimura, of New York, claims she can prevent any one from lifting her when she so wills through physical control. Underwood & Underwood

A PIPE THAT HOLDS 150 POUNDS OF TOBACCO. It is fifteen feet long and made of pieced copper, by H. W. Klein, to be used as a sign by a local smoking pipe manufactory. Ledger Photo Service

JUNIOR CAROM CHAMPION. Francis Sonlin, 3 Linden Terrace, Germantown, winner of the carom tournament held at Germantown Boys' Club, in which thirty-two young lads competed. Ledger Photo Service

OLDEST STUDENT. Major C. Thurston Greene, seventy-eight years of age, is trying to rebuild his memory at the Bronx (N. Y.) Y. M. C. A. evening school. Underwood & Underwood

MRS. MILLS KITCHIN, formerly Miss Jane Bushong, who was recently married in Washington to the son of Representative Claude Kitchin, of North Carolina. Harris & Ewing

NOTED ENGLISH DRAMATIC CRITIC AND PLAYWRIGHT. William Archer, author of "The Green Goddess." He is visiting Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

SETTING AND WAXING ARTIFICIAL TEETH IN THE PUTNAM DENTAL LABORATORY, 34 SOUTH SIXTEENTH STREET, PHILADELPHIA. At the left is Joseph Gallagher and at the right is Michael Perez. They average about fifty sets per day. Ledger Photo Service

MISS SUSAN LEAR SCHMOLZE, a holiday visitor and entertainer at the city's Home for Indigent. Ledger Photo Service

GUARDS TRAFFIC AT FIFTH AND CHESTNUT STREETS. Reserve Patrolman James O'Toole, 3836 Walnut street. He has been on the force for sixteen years. O'Toole has five children. Fishing is his favorite recreation. Ledger Photo Service

ON HAVERFORD'S POND. Charles Lewis Pitkin, a Main Line skating enthusiast. Ledger Photo Service

MISS MAE McNENNY, 2141 South Thirteenth Street, Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service

SALE 3 Dec 31 1920