

LEGION WILL DELAY NAMING OF DEPUTY

Phila. Representative to Be Appointed After New Committee Is Organized

POST TO GIVE BIG BALL

Appointment of the district deputy of the American Legion for Philadelphia will be deferred until after the county committee is organized, it was announced today by the new county committee.

The intention on the part of David J. Davis, department commander, to await the action of the county committee in selecting its officers before naming the Philadelphia deputy, was indicated in the announcement Saturday of the appointment of the deputy of the twenty-four districts of the state.

charters to applicants regardless of the possibility of creating many small posts throughout the city. This question will be taken up by the incoming county committee.

The Benjamin Franklin Post 465 will hold its first annual ball at the Bellevue-Stratford in the ballroom tomorrow evening. To this event General Dering has been invited. The special dance committee will meet tonight with the post executive committee in the Land Title Building, to arrange final details.

John Adams will lead the Robert J. Martin Post 98 during 1921. He has been elected its new commander. The other officers of the post will be: Howard O. Rappold, vice commander; C. J. Guthrie, adjutant, and J. M. Penny, finance officer. John J. Lamond, the fifth district chairman, is an active member of this post; it is likely he will be succeeded by a representative from another post as district chairman, if the new committee continues the system of districts established by the Legion in this city. The post will hold its first dance January 20, at Kensington Avenue and Ontario streets.

Edward H. Conger, commander of Overbrook Post 702, has called a special meeting of the executive committee for tonight to arrange for the post meeting tomorrow evening in the Overbrook Public School, Sixty-second street and Lebanon avenue.

The Cunningham-Fischer Post, at Twenty-fourth and Huntingdon streets, has elected the following officers for 1921: Charles J. O'Neill, re-elected commander; Edward J. Boyle, vice commander; Chris Wogan, adjutant; John Haines, treasurer; William Keers, social secretary; the Rev. T. P. Ryan, chaplain; Charles J. O'Neill, representative company commander; Edward Fogarty, historian; executive committee: Harry Hurley, Joseph Hood, Bernard McCallough, Michael Granahan and Dr. Charles Wang. North Philadelphia former service men who are not members of the American Legion have been requested to join the post and become "hoosters."

Soldiers Box in Street; Jailed Two soldiers from Camp Dix were jailed here last night after staging an impromptu boxing match at Broad and Filbert streets. When arrested, police say, they attempted to vanquish Reserve Policeman Blake, who took them to City Hall. They gave their names as Beverage Davis, twenty-one years old, and King Granville, twenty-three, of Crossville, Tenn.

MINISTER IS HONORED

The Rev. C. B. Adams Completes Twenty-five Years of Pastorate Special services in the Park Congregational Church, Thirty-second street and Montgomery avenue, yesterday morning, marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of the pastorage of the Rev. C. B. Adams.

The communion service was preceded by an address by Dr. Edward W. Rice, editor of the American Sunday School Union, and the only person now living in Philadelphia who was a member of the ordination council at the time of the Rev. Mr. Adams' installation as pastor of the Park Church. A review of the work accomplished during the last twenty-five years was given by the Rev. Mr. Adams, and special music was rendered by the choir.

A Story of Fine Clothing at Commonplace Prices!

For 31 Years we have been building a reputation for selling high-quality clothes at figures always less than for equal goodness elsewhere

That's Because We Manufacture Most of It!

THIS policy has been a successful one, amply proved by three decades of constant growth and increased good will of buyers who have found it the part of wisdom to purchase clothing bearing the William H. Wanamaker label.

Now We Step Into January with a Sweeping Re-construction Sale!

Our splendid stocks show an improvement over last year, and today's merchandise is the finest in fabric and tailoring we have ever offered—and it cost more than ever in our history to produce!

BUT the American people are demanding a readjustment from former high prices and we meet the issue by placing this very fine stock on sale at what we are pleased to call commonplace prices!
