

BLUE LAW MEN ATTEND OPENING OF LEGISLATURE. J. Day Brownlee, Jr., the Rev. T. T. Mutchler and the Rev. Homer W. Tope, left to right. Mr. Tope and Mr. Brownlee are with the Anti-Saloon League. Mr. Mutchler represents the Philadelphia Sabbath Association. Ledger Photo Service.

NEW MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE. Elected in November, Albert S. C. Millar (left) is representing Tioga folks, while Franklin Spencer Edmonds was chosen by Oak Lane, Germantown and Chestnut Hill citizens. Ledger Photo Service.

IN GOVERNOR SPROUL'S OFFICE. When the photographer called he found Senator W. Clayton Hackett, of Easton; Governor Sproul and Senator Clarence J. Buckman, of Langhorne (left to right), in conference. Harry S. McDevitt, secretary to the governor, is standing in the background. Ledger Photo Service.

IT WAS A BUSY DAY FOR HIM. Charles A. Snyder, auditor general, visited both law-making branches on the opening day. Ledger Photo Service.

THEY SEEMED TO HAVE A LOT TO DO. Senator William E. Crow (left) and Harmon M. Kephart, state treasurer, snapped as they rushed about the state Capitol grounds. Ledger Photo Service.

TANDEM SKATERS. Ben O. Sickley and Mrs. Alfred McMillan, both of Fort Lee, N. J., at Newburgh, N. Y., where they won the man and woman tandem quarter-mile race. They set a new world's record. Wide World Photo.

WAITING FOR BALLOONISTS WHO WERE LOST. While the U. S. fliers are hurrying across snow and ice on dogsleds through Canada, their families are anxiously waiting. At the left is Mrs. Walter Hinton, wife of Lieutenant Hinton. At the right are Mrs. Anna L. Farrell and Emily Farrell, wife and daughter of Lieutenant Farrell. International.

MAKING A HARD FIGHT. United States Senator Penrose snapped as he was wheeled into the Senate chamber, where he took his seat for the first time in thirteen months. Harris & Ewing.

HARDING OFFERS HOUSE TO COOLIDGE. The President-elect occupied this residence at 2314 Wyoming avenue, Washington, during his Senate term. Naturally he will have little use for it after March 4. Harris & Ewing.

STEAMSHIP KERLEW BRINGS 2000 CANARIES. Much song attended the voyage of the ship that tied up at Girard Point yesterday. It was the first assignment of canaries since the war. Frank Vahle, at the left, a fancier, made the trip with the birds. Ledger Photo Service.

CHARGED WITH MURDER. Mrs. Edwin Bailey, of Pasadena, Calif., is being held for trial accused of killing Clarence Hogan, a California actor. She was a sweetheart of the dead man before her marriage. International.

HE'S THE CAPTAIN. C. Weinstein, of the Southern High School basketball team, which defeated Catholic High team yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

S. S. WHITE DENTAL CO. GIRLS AWARD LIMERICK PRIZE. These girls, employees of the big factory on Twelfth street below Walnut, awarded the limerick prize announced on pages 1 and 2 today. Those in the picture are, from left to right (standing), Katherine Munce, Marion Wilson, Irene H. Bates, Winifred Langdon, Helen Darrah, Grace G. Keech; (kneeling) Terry McKenna, Anna M. Youngjohns, Rebecca Dougherty, Dorothy Doyle. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

FILLING BAGS WITH SEEDS. Joseph Cermak, 7514 Buist avenue, at work for William Henry Mauls, seed merchant, Twenty-first and Arch streets. In this operation forty-two bags are filled a minute. Ledger Photo Service.

REPORTING ON CONDITIONS IN CORK. J. H. E. McAndrews, American vice consul in that city, has arrived in Washington. Harris & Ewing.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

GUARDS TRAFFIC AT NINTH AND CHESTNUT STREETS. He is Reserve Patrolman Roland Conroy, of 37 North Peach street. Conroy is married. He has been in the police department four years, two years and nine months of that time being spent at his present post. Ledger Photo Service.

IN TOWN WITH CANADIAN ICE HOCKEY PLAYERS. He is Joe Olsen, a wing, who helped defeat the American team at the Olympia games. Ledger Photo Service.

WANTS FORESTS PROTECTED FROM FIRE. Representative Bertrand H. Snell, of New York, has introduced a forestry bill in Congress. Harris & Ewing.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS AGNES MALONEY
946 North Fifth Street
Philadelphia