

Miss Rappaport, surrounded by the men and women she had led from the fire, said she had done "what any other girl would do under the circumstances "I knew the people on the third foor weren't out," she said, "aud there was still time to warn them. The moke was pretty dense, but I didu't think of that.

landing, I was afraid there might be That's why I tried to force the

When I found it locked. I knew they were all out at lunch." RUNAWAY GIRLS FOUND

One Accuses Her Father of Beating

Her Severely Two fifteen-year-old girls. who run

Monday, were found by the police at noon today at Twelfth and Arch streets. They are Mary Donato, 319 South River street, and Ellen Wallace, 7 North Third street.

According to the story told by Mary she left home with her friend, Ellen, be cause her father had beaten her for remaining out all night New Year's Eve. They were arrested after a chase by Mounted aPtrolman Bowers, having been identified by Joseph Pariola, a dehaving sective from Harrisburg, and were taken to Central Station. They will be held to Central Station. They will be held at the House of Detention pending the arrival of their parents to take them

HELD FOR LIQUOR FRAUD

Surety Agent Accused of Attempt to Bribe Government Agents New York, Jan. 6.- (By A. P.)-Awrence Manwista, an agent of the Sational Surety Co., was arrested to-by by secret service men on charges of offering government agents bribes otaling more than $100,000 for assist. mee in connection with liquor permit

It was aunounced that Miss Catherine eody, daughter of a former police cap-ain, had been also arrested charged th conspiring to defraud the govern-ant through issuance of false with-rawal perults. She was formerly enloyed in the internal revenue office

The value of liquor covered by forged Ithdrawal thdrawal permits discovered this seek in the office of Charles R. O'Conthis or, federal prohibition enforcement di-cetor, has risen to $2,750,000. Foreries found in the files now total 116, ad the investigation, begun early in in the week, is being continued.

JAZZED WAY INTO JAIL

lusical Baby Carriage Aroused Policeman's Suspicions

Nathan Giles, a Negro, of Lombard reet near Tenth, was proceeding down bruce street at 4 o'clock this morning. shing a baby carriage. There was a ctrola in the baby carriage playing lively fox trot.

hvely fox trot. A patrolman of the Twelfth and Pine rees station encountered Giles at ghth and Spruce streets. He couldn't derstand the why of the procession. Magistrate O'Brien, at the Twelfth d Pine streets station, today asked les to explain. He said he was taking the streets station, today askeil les to explain. He said he was taking e victrola out to entertain some charge for the slaying of Harold C. $500 bail for court. The second trial of Judge William H. Mctiannoh, on a second degree murder charge for the slaying of Harold C. $500 bail for court. The second trial of Judge William H. Mctiannoh, on a second degree murder charge for the slaying of Harold C. $500 bail for court. The second trial of Judge William H. Mctiannoh, on a second degree murder charge for the slaying of Harold C. $500 bail for court. The jury in the first trial disagreed.

cathedral at Davenport, Iowa, from 18801 to 1805; rector of Christ Church, Gloversville, N. Y., 1805-1896, and served as rector of St. Mark's Church, dren, and Gaffin will have some candy for the youngsters. What was a very tragic happening in little Mike's life began on Christmas Day, when Samuel Gaffin, who is thirty loosick Falls, N. Y., 1896 to 1899. In 1900 Dr. Rodgers became head-Hoosick Falls, N. years old, and his wife Esther, who is twenty-two, quarreled and the husband master of St. John's School, Montreal re was still time to warn them. The ske was pretty dense, but I didu't ak of that. "When I reached the second floor Trinity Church, 1006 to 1909, ding I was affauld there might be Bodward at St. Agnes' Chapel, left the house, saying he would come back when the wife was ready to "give

Dr. Rodgers became president of St. ted for their father, and Mrs. Gaffin worried over his absence. On New Year's Day she kissed the children and ome one in the Famous Co.'s place. Stephen's College, Annandale on Hud-That's why I tried to force the door, son, in 1901 and received the degree of tear's Day she kissed the children and told her mother, Mrs. Higgins, that she was going out to look for Sam and wouldn't be back until she found him. It was a long and weary search. Her own absence, as the days passed, added to the children's troubles, and they cried for her as well as their father. Hugshand and wife come teacher doctor of divinity from St. Stephen's College. He became rector of St. David's Church eighteen months ago.

Dr. Rodgers is survived by a widow, one daughter. Mrs. Edward S. Hale, and ive grandchildren.

Bishop Rhinelander will officiate at the funeral service in Old St. David' Church, Radnor, at 10:30 o'clock Sat urday morning.

COULDN'T REPORT "LOAD" New York Police Box Had No Connection With Phila, Navy Yard

A desk sergeant at headquarters in New York yesterday lazily pulled the receiver toward him when the signal receiver toward him when the signal was flashed from a box in the central part of the city. "Want Phil'delphia Navy Yard. In a hurry, too. Gimme some service, came over the wire The desk sergeant turned in a call for the reserves Meantime, down at a busy street intersection, a crowd was > ennessee. The sailor was hanging to the police ox, insisting that long-distance con-ect him with the Philadelphia Navy Tennessee.

box, insisting that long-distance con-nect him with the Philadelphia Navy about the house. Then the reserves arrived. In about ten minutes they had the corner cleared of the crowd and the gob had a front seat on an automobile marked "police patrol." He said it was Brooklyn another job.

'hootch." MRS. BONAPARTE SUES

HELD AS MURDER SUSPECT Wife of Emperor's Great-Grand Wealthy Mass. Man Arrested When nephew Asks $100,000 Damages

Neighbor Is Found Dead

New York, Jan. 6 .- Having borne Quincy, Mass., Jan. 6.—(By A. P.) —Caleb L. Cunningham, a wealthy resident of Milton, was arrested on sus-picion last night after the body of John Johnson, of West Quincy, had been found in a patch of woods known as found in a patch of woo Cunningham Pines, and owned by Cun-ningham. Johnson had been shot. The damages. Topics, in which she demands $100,000 ningham. Johnson had been snot. The police said Cunningham admitted that he had quarreled with Johnson yester-atternoon. Besides the embarrassment and miliation of being publicly characterized as "a vain and foolish woman" by the defendant periodical, as Mrs. Benaparte some wood and when he failed to return alleges she has been, the plaintiff also at his usual time his wife notified asserts that her health and nervous sysneighbors, who organized a searching tem have been greatly impaired by such party. His body was found lying face publication.

th a bul- Mrs. Bonaparte is now living at the The ax Hotel Biltmore with her husband, Jerupward under a pine tree, with a bullet wound in the left side. which he had been using was missing. ome Napoleon Bonaparte, of Washing-The police found a shotgun in Cun-ningham's home. Today they will drag a pond on Cunningham's estate in an effort to find the ax. The police found a shotgun in

Blanche Pierce, daughter of the late Edward N. Pierce, of Newton, Mass., when she married Harold Sterbeigh. McGannon's New Trial January 31 Cleveland, Jan. 6.- (By A. P.)member of the Union Club and Rocka-il take it like a man. All I ask is guns. The man who had first fired a the opportunity to go on the stand and tell way my boy told these stories." Foley took the stand in his own be-half and sought to show he was too in- fence separating the school from the half and sought to show he was too in- fence separating the school from the toxicated on the night of the hold ups grounds of the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, He said he and Philip Carroll had drunk two quarts of whisky and that be remembered going out in an automo-bile afterward with Healey, Bushman, Reed and Raim. The four last named ammunition on both sides, the three men also are under arrest. escaping in the darkness.

also are under arrest. He testified he had intended going to He testified he had intended going to a garage at Orianna and Callowbill streets. but remembered that he drove west on Spring Garden street instead. Under questioning, he said he recalled nothing of having stopped the automo-bile while the others held up pedestri-ans. Witness Is Missing were severely crushed.

DEMAND DEATH PENALTY

Bills in Two Legislatures Seek to Restore Capital Punishment

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 6.- (By A. P.)

ught in a bill introduced in the State

Representative Frank Nimocks, of

House of Representatives to the judiciary committee.

He admitted remembering that two patrolmen had halted the automobile at the Girard College wall. BRAKEMAN FALLS TO DEATH

Husband and wife came together again by a stroke of good fortune, Gaffin, who had been Inid off at Hog Gaffin, staying with an aunt while defendant produced several char-Gaffin, staying with an aunt while acter witnesses from the old S questioning her husband's friends and relatives about him, yesterday went to seek the advice of her brother, Hugh Higgins, 229 Washington avenue. The brother had been sought by Gaffin, too. Higgins, 229 Washington avenue. The brother had been sought by Gaffin, too. The husband had spoken of his anxiety to 'make things up with Esther.'' and behalf, as character witnesses, employ a moving freight train yesterday. Klink, a brakeman on the Pennsyl-vanja Railroad, was working in the John M. McGowan, in whose

and their chil

All Christmas week the children fret-

Higgins hastened to get in touch with him after Mrs. Gaffin's visit. Last night there was a happy reunion at Hugh Higgins' home. Husband and wife were equally overjoyed. They ups, and that he and Foley had taken "kissed and made up," and Mrs. Gaf-fin returned home. She started out fin returned home. She started out day.

Wages

ingent expenses.

early this morning, before the children tried later, testified, denying that he athering about a traffic patrolman and a well-filled—with Brooklyn booze— sailor, whose cap identified him as be-ing from the United States steamship able to tell him with real assurance that the man who. Foley said, helped drink two quarts of whisky. Fo -Restoration of capital punishment in Minnesota for first-degree murder is ounsel, addressing the court, said that Carroll's testimony was important, He he was singing joyously as he played said Carroll was in court yesterday. To enable counsel for the defense to Minneapolis. A bill also was introduced in the Sam is busy today trying to find find Carroll, the court declared a re-cess from 12:30 until 1:15 o'clock. Senate of the South Dakota Legislature to restore capital punishment, it is reported here. The bill was referred

$558,600 FOR PHILA. MINT

Washington, Jan. 6 .- (By A. P.)-

The appropriation for maintenance of

'TWAS A STRONG WIND

Into Jail for Year

TOWN TOPICS FOR LIBEL Appropriations for Subtreasuries Today's Developments Omitted in Committee

in National Capital

subtreasuries at Philadelphia and other cities was omitted by the House appro-Penrose, reversing the attitude which he is reported to have mainpriation committee from the legislative executive and judicial bill, reported to tained opposing the emergency tariff, announced that he will support the For the Philadelphia mint $68,600 measure, but hopes for modification of was allowed for saluries. $350,000 for of workmen and other employes. Higher duties on light chemicals and $140,000 for incidental and conwere urged before the House ways and means committee by A. G. Rosengarten, of Philadelphia. The House appropriations commit tee reported out the "salary bill." It carries $112.728,438, or $23,724. Blew Tire Off Auto and Pedestrian 196 less than the departments asked for. Ten million dollars is recom-mended for prohibition enforcement.

Judge, I was passing that automo-The House consus committee agreed to report the Siegel bill fixing the House membership at 483, an intile and the wind came along and blew that tire off the machine right on my that tire off the machine right shoulders. I kept right on going." by James McEl-This explanation by James Mel-honey, of Race street near Eighth. of forty-eight, and recomcrease mended a constitutional amendment his possession of an automobile to owned by the Rev. Phillip Osgood. limiting the membership of future Houses to 500. of 5021 Pine street, did not satisfy Mag-istrate O'Brien, of the Twelfth and Pine streets station, and he sentenced Socialists appeared before a Senate committee in indorse France's resolution' proposition release of per-McElhoney to one year in the House of Correction. Patrolman Bair saw McElhoney with ons convicted of foliating the espionage act.

Witnesses before the House agri-cultural committee urged legislation to prevent "gambling and specula-tion" in future sa'es of grain, cotton acou products. an.

dred, which is investigating the Irish senators and party leaders.

important affidavits that will be sub-mitted to the committee. The British authorities sought to obtain these to the committee to be and announced a policy. Speaking for the Republican majority in the Sen-measure of this king if in the opinion papers, but several raids proved futile, ate. Mr. Knox announced a policy of Today there hung around the neck his own. It was practically a declara-of Lord Mayor O'Callaghan the heavy tion that the Republicans of the Senate gold-chain which is said to have been would not go along upon any plan worn by lord mayors of Cork during the which involved either the amendment of last 600 years. According to Peter the present League of Nations into a MacSwiney, the chain was not surren- sort of conference of nations or the set-Continged on Page Fifteen, Column One ting up of any new league or conference independent of the

FRANKFORD HOUSE ROBBED Senator Knox, it is not likely

Thieves Get $100 While Family Sees

While Arnold Wiese and his family were attending a moving picture show in the neighborhood last night, thieves money and $450 worth of wearing apfrom the top of a car under the wheels of side yard. No clue was left by the burgiars to their identity. yards of the Pavonia car shop, when he slipped under the train. Both his legs when he broke into their home at 1106 Arrott street. Frankford, and stole $100 in Arrott

Moving Picture Exhibition

The thieves forced a window to the de yard. No clue was left by the

VENIZELIST COLONEL ASSASSINATED IN ATHENS

A Radical Departure

ATHENS, Jan. 6 .- A party of soldiers, whose identity or off)liations are not known. Tast night assassinated Colonel Stefan Fatzeas, who was the chief judge advcoate of court martial under Venizelos. The colonel was killed by shooting. Fatzeas had acted as judge in numerous cases of a semipolitical nature and had incurred much enmity. He was regarded as a Venizelist, and has received many threatening letters.

BANDS OF ROBBERS TERRORIZING SYRIA

LONDON, Jan. 6 .- The entire population of Syria is being terrorized by bands of robbers, says a dispatch from Damascus today. So common have become the robberies and so serious their , nature that trai pservice in the Damascus region has been suspended entirely, the dispatch states.

CATCH INTRUDER IN STORE HOME BREW HAD "KICK"

Robert and Annie Smith, who live crouching behind the counter of a store near Twenty-fifth and Harold were arrested late last night at Twenty at Twentyfifth and York streets. He second and Somerset streets, by put up a lively fight before he was subdued and escorted to the Women's man Rowan, who testified that they Homeopathic Rospital for "repairs." Patrolmen Kravitch and Conner, of to take their three children home, man and his wife were taken to 200

The Park avenue station. Their children, the youngest two mouths turned over to the care of the matron a hearing before Magistrate Oswald.

red, which is investigating the Irish ituation. O'Callaghan is believed to have some mportant affidavits that will be sub-nitted to the committee. The British of my colleagues it is urgently re-shall therefore support this bill and do what I can to secure it passage at the present session of Congress. It at the present session of Congress. is my belief that the rates in the pending bill should be modified somewhat and if the Senate takes this view I sinhope that the House will con-In the face of that declaration cerely of sent to these modifications.

Senator Knox, it is not likely that the Democrats coming here will commit themselves to Seuator Harding's plan or that the foreign nations will commit themselves to it. Both will want as-surances that the President-cleet will be able to put his proposals through the Senate with a two-thirds majority. The eastern states are as carnestly in A Radical Departure The Knox statement was a radical departure in American politics of recent years. Since the presidency of Roose-velt the country has regarded the ex-

Continued on Page Fifteen. Column Two the prosperity of the country. The conservation of the home market has always been a cardinal doctrine of protection. As far as I am personally concerned. I represent a state among tha-foremost in the country in agricultural interests, and therefore I certainly am fully alive to the needs of agriculture

Senator Penrose issued his statement. at the conclusion of a hearing by the ... finance committee and immediately after conference with Senator Smoot and a conference with Senator Smoot and other representative leaders. It was given out coincidentally with a visit te Penrose by Will II, Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee,

Continued on Page Fifteen, Column Two

TEST BORING FOR BRIDGE. WATER ST. NEAR WALNUT

Spot Chosen to Make First of Series Preliminary to Construction

A spot on South Water street, about 100 feet below Walnut street, was chosen today by Delaware river bridge engineers for a test boring to determine the depth of the rock foundation at that point.

The test is to be the first of a series preliminary to actual construction of the bridge, for which this city and the states of Pennsylvania and New Jersey are to share the costs. Water street was chosen for the Water street was thosen boring test because of the slight traffic volume there. The engineers expect the boring will begin this afternoon. They boring will begin this afternoon. They say the spot is exactly opposite the Federal street ferryhouse in Camden.

A powerful drill will bore down through the street and the subsoil antif the point touches rack or bard grave). The engineers believe a rock foundation will be found at a depth of 100 feet. streets. The tests are to be made to determine the best locations for the bridge abutments. No choice of a bridge site has the Twenty second street and Hunting been made by the joint Bridge Commission. One of the experiments will be made at the foot of Walnut street pier. old, were where the drill will pierce the river bottom and whire downward until rock is the station house, Magistrate Price today discharged reached, the parents, after reprimanding them, Test borings made on the New Jersey They said they had visited a friend and side did not locate rock until a dept of 1000 feet was reached.

a set i

Patrol

Man Battles Patrolmen and Goes to Hospital for "Repairs"

Man and Woman Arrested and Rep rimanded by Magistrate A man was discovered last night

Patrolucea Kravites and Conner, of the Twenty-sixth and York streets sta-tion, found the man after they noticed the window of the place had been smashed. The man arrested gave his name as Edward Crowell, of Twenty-first and York streets. He will have a heaving before Magistrate

Cardinal Gibbons Urges All Catholics use the MANUAL OF PRAYERS .- Adv. drank too much home-brew