

PENN RUNNERS ON A BOARD TRACK. The balmy weather of yesterday brought many of the University of Pennsylvania speedboys out for practice. Charles Perry, Carl Altmaier and James Dunn (left to right) were snapped as they ran over the newly made track.

AMERICAN ADMIRAL ADOPTS SEVEN RUSSIAN WAIFS. Rear Admiral Newton A. McCully, a bachelor, who has been stationed for some time at Sebastopol with the allied commission, is in New York with a nurse and six of the adopted children. He will take them to his home in Washington.

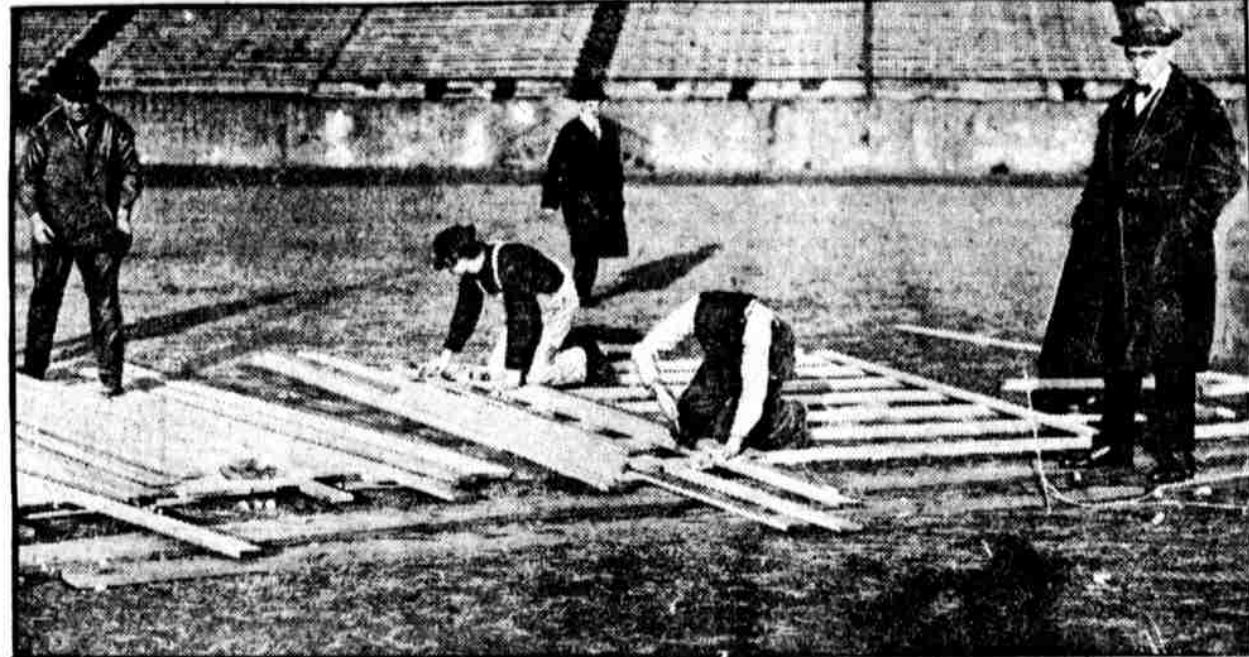

NEW PATROLMEN ARE SWORN IN. Some of the sixty-nine city guardians who took the oath of office at City Hall this morning. Assistant Director of Public Safety Ellis (at the left) administered the oath and assigned the men.

MISS JESSIE BURRALL, leader of the Burrall Sunday School class in Washington, said to be the largest in the world, has resigned.

CHARLES R. TOOTHAKER, curator of the Commercial Museum, discusses business men of tomorrow in an interview on the editorial page.

BUILDING RUNNING TRACK. Carpenters were busy yesterday afternoon on Franklin Field building the board track on which Lawson Robertson's runners will practice. Robertson (at the right) is watching construction.

EX-GOVERNOR SMITH AS TEAMSTER. Alfred E. Smith, until a few days ago governor of New York, has started his new duties as chairman of the United States Trucking Corporation in New York city. Mr. Smith is shown wearing a soft hat.

GEORGES CARPENTIER A FATHER. The famous French boxer is here seen with his baby, Jacqueline, three days old. The Carpentiers live in Paris.

BRITISH JOCKEYS HOLD DONKEY DERBY at the closing of the racing season. It was held at Stamford Bridge and the leading jockeys also played a football match.

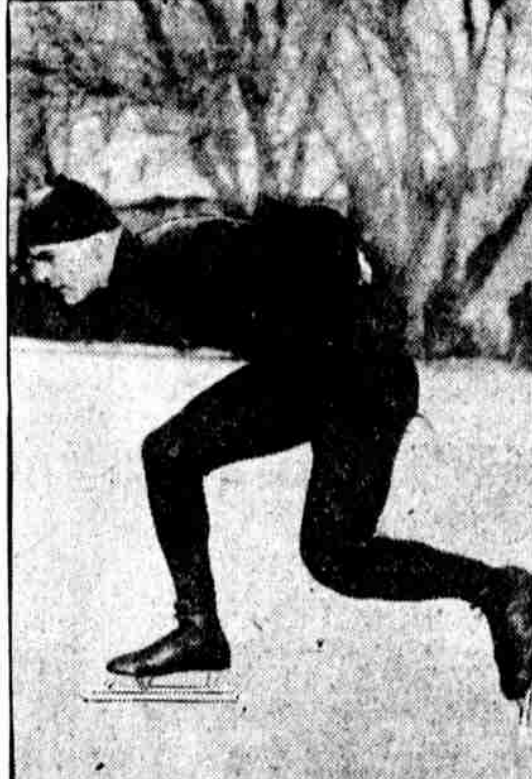

MICHIGAN SCHOOLTEACHER ON WALKING TRIP. Miss Catherine Hilliard, of Flint, Mich., in Atlanta, Ga., on her way to Florida, from where she will journey to San Francisco.

JAMES A. STERRETT, often called "Father of Swimming" in Philadelphia, died yesterday afternoon at his home in West Philadelphia.

MADE A GREAT FIGHT FOR SUPREMACY ON THE ICE. In the national championship races at Newburgh, N. Y., these men both scored 70 points. Charles Jewstraw, of Lake Placid (right), and Joe Moore, of New York Ice Palace.

MADE A GREAT FIGHT FOR SUPREMACY ON THE ICE. In the national championship races at Newburgh, N. Y., these men both scored 70 points. Charles Jewstraw, of Lake Placid (right), and Joe Moore, of New York Ice Palace.

DARLINGTON EMPLOYEES AWARD PRIZE FOR LIMERICK. Today's limerick prize was awarded by a jury of employees of Joseph G. Darlington, Chestnut street below Twelfth. Those in the photograph are, from left to right (sitting), E. D. Klein, Jeanette Wallace, Mrs. Katherine Gates, Edith H. Baxter; (standing), Mary Wright, Anna Airey, Carrie M. Arthur, E. L. Kirk, M. M. Markley and Mrs. E. R. Lewis. The announcement is made on pages 1 and 2.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MAKING PAPER BOXES. The men and women in this workroom make 1,000,000 florist boxes and 6,000,000 ice cream boxes a year, using about 350 tons of cardboard. It's one of the departments at the plant of William J. Bos & Co., 1427 Vine street.

BRITISH VETERAN HONORED. Sergeant Edward Hould, eighty years old, enlisted as a soldier sixty years ago. At the opening of the world war he again volunteered. Hould received the M. B. E.

ON A BUSY CORNER. Reserve Patrolman Martin Fox looks after traffic doings at Eleventh and Chestnut streets, where he has been stationed four years of his five in the police department. He is married and lives at 128 Burnside street. Fox is an ardent baseball fan.

WILL TRY AGAIN. "Babe" Ruth was razzed from the floor in his first attempt at basketball in New York. He has picked a new team.

MISS SHIRLEY L. SNELLY 331 South Third street Philadelphia