rederal Agents Think They Have Clue to Headquarters

Opium valued at nearly $2000 was ized early this morning when revenue rents and patrolmen raided two Chise laundrics-one at 505 and the ther at 510 Callowhill street.

No. 1. Punctuation is inartistic and unnecessary and is a blemish on beauty. The finding of the opium confirms No. 2. We will not go into detailed specifications. You know what they are. All season long we've talked about them as the lowest - priced high quality clothes that money could buy, and thousands have bought the mates to them and been tickled to death to pay the regular prices. Today these prices are reduced to a figure which represents the most startling sacrifice ever shouldered by any institution on clothes of a similar character. You cannot equal the clothes, you cannot equal the sacrifice, you cannot, no matter how patiently you wait, find any sale which spans, as this sale does, the topmost rung of quality and the lowest rung of price! In utter want and helplessness, these little ones cry out to American parents to save them. Many are orphans; you can father and mother them. They are hungry-you can feed them. They are naked - you can cover their little bodies with warm clothes. Laughter and childish joy have left them, but you can put it back. Is there a better work with which to start the New Year?
