MRS. WILSON STARTS USEFUL DICTIONARY OF FOODS

Which Contains a Wealth of Valuable Information—Aerated Bread Explained Today-Alligator Pears, Anchovies and Angelica Also Described are prepared.

rmen on the cost; the oyster resembles | trade.

Two tablesprons of sugar-one owner. One and one half cups of water or garnish milk twelve ounces.

bake in moderate oven for thirty live used for flavoring soups and sauces.

minutes. This loaf is best when one day old. May be sliced and toasted.

Angel fish—often called porgy—re tled and charged or carbonated. This season in July and August. water is used as a beverage, also for home-made fountain drinks, such as meats, fish, eggs and vegetables; the the natives use the fleshy roots as a white of egg is the purest form of al-bumen; it is colorless, odorless and the stalks medicinally.

Commercially the young, tender and bumen; it is colorless, odorless and tasteless, insoluble in cold water and leafy stalks and mid ribs are candied and as such are greatly esteemed by contemperature of 150 degrees Fahrenheit.

Alewife—species of fish belonging to the herring family. Found along the Atlantic coast, from Labrador to Georgia; is also salted and exported to West Indies.

Alligator pear or Avacado—large, smooth, heart-shaped fruit of the semitropical and tropical countries. Flesh has peculiar sweetish taste. Tree is fine spreading evergreen, brilliant green foliage. The seed is enclosed in a membranous cover. Found in markets year round. The first crop comes from Colombia and other South American ports early in January. Florida supply is harvested from July to September, inclusive. Pears may be served cut in half and chilled like canteloupe. Also in salad.

Allspice-is also called pimento Jamaica pepper and is the dried fruit of a small tree grown in West Indies. The fruit is gathered when fu'll grown, but not ripe and then dried in the sun. A delicious pungent spice which obtains its name from the fact that it resembles cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg.

Almonds-the kernels of the fruit of the almond tree. The almond tree very

| mond; the last variety being the edible

TN ARRANGING this registery of the decided and valencia alfoods, it is my intention to explain monds are best known varieties of the fully the manner in which the dishes imported nuts. There are various imported units. There are various methods of using these nuts; in cands Abalone—an immense shell fish of the univalve variety; common along the Pacific coast. It is now sold fresh, served in a sizup. Also satted almonds; canned and dried. It was formerly caten by the Chinese and Japanese fish-

It is now served in many first class almonds. Almond oil is made from the rectaurants on the western coast as a kernels or seed of the peach, apricot real delicacy. This product is known and almond. This oil is used largely in perfumers and toilet specialties. The less qualities are white or pale yellow Acorn—seed of eak tree. Frequently code as cattle food. Use in early days as article of food. European peasants make flour from acorns.

in color, almost free from each accordance is made from finely ground sweet almonds after the oil is extracted. Almond paste is made by grinding the almond paste is made from finely grinding the almond paste is made from finely ground sweet almonds after the oil is extracted. Almond paste is made from finely ground sweet almonds after the oil is extracted. Almond paste is made from finely ground sweet almonds after the oil is extracted. Almond paste is made from finely ground sweet almonds after the oil is extracted. Almond paste is made from finely ground sweet almonds after the oil is extracted. Almond paste is made from finely ground sweet almonds after the oil is extracted. Almond paste is made from finely ground sweet almonds after the oil is extracted. Almond paste is made from finely ground sweet almonds after the oil is extracted. Almond paste is made from finely ground sweet almonds after the oil is extracted. Almond paste is made from finely ground sweet almonds after the oil is extracted. Acrated Bread—made by the addition of a leavening agent, which creates carbon-dioxide gas. Any good brand of baking powder may be used. The standard formula is Four cups of flour—one pound, Three level tablespoons of baking socider—one and one-righth ounces.

One level teaspoon of salt—one-fourth

Anchovy—a small fish of delicate and fine flavor, belonging to the herring family. Somewhat resembles the English sprat. Abendant in Mediterranean waters. Anchovies are One level teaspoon of salt—one-fourth waters. Anchovies are prepared for market by removing the heads and intestines; they are packed in salt, in oil or salt. Dutch anchovies have the scales removed: French and Italian

Anchovies are potted and made int Chop and feld together; add one-fourth package of seeded raisins. Turn notizers, sauce and paste; used for ap-netizers, sauces and garnishes, Anchovy into well greased loaf-shaped pan and essence is an oily, light-colored sauce

Angel fish-often called porgy-re Acrated water—distilled water, bet- fins. Flesh white and large flaked. In home-made fountain drinks, such as grape juice, cocktails, ice cream sodus, etc.

Albumen-viscous substance found in north as Iceland and Lapland, where

Mrs. Wilson's Answers

Dear Mrs. Wilson — Will you please tell me how I can fill cans of plums already cooked? I see that the sirup does not come up to the top after being cooked and scaled. Will I have to cook it over to refill the can? I had them all filled before putting in boiler, and now some are not filled. Mrs. J. D. Do not disturb them-just leave them alone if they are nirtight.

Dear Mrs. Wilson — Will you kindly send me a recipe for making elderberry wine or cordini, also grape wine? I have been watching your columns for it, but only saw blackberry cordini. Miss F. A. McC.

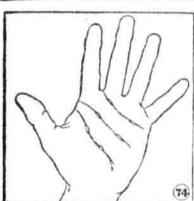

No wine recipes are given. You may se the blackberry cordial for making he elderberry or grape. See August 3 for blackberry recipe.

Dear Mrs. Wilson—Being a constant reader of the paper, and also of your recipes, I am about to ask you to kindly print a recipe for preserved watermelon rind. I have a recipe for the spiced rind.

Mrs. E. Q.

The nuts ripon in late July and August and are ready to skip late and the tot Gotober. There are the tot Gotober There are the tot Gotober There are the tot of the back of the late and the tot of the late and the skip of the absence of the distance of the sact dates, but I always and the and the adversarial and the late and the

By IRVING R BACON

ISLANDED LINES These indicate a delicacy following an attack of serious illness

An island in a line is so called because of its resemblance to a real island—that is, it is an isolated obstruction around which the current of the line thows in a misland of land.

Usually it derotes delicacy in beath. If seen in the beart line it marks the ago at which some heart treable taken place. If on the heaft include the island is duration the mentality was not omean duration the mentality was not omean. Suddenly Jean knew how tired she was far as that at the period of the leland's duration the mentality was not owner times islands indicate a transition period in one's mental career—a period generally fraught with danger to the brain. During the period of an island's operation, one should avoid induce mental strains or great nerve-excitations.

If the island is in the life line, it denotes a health delicacy. If there are islands on the head line, in addition to the one in the life line, the head a causing the trouble if there are decision the heart line, the life line's island causing the trouble if there are decision the heart line, the life line's island causing the trouble if there are decision the heart line, the life line's island causing the trouble if there are decision the heart line, the life line's island causing the trouble is the factor.

Suddently Jean knew how tired she was Every bone in her awhed, she was every bone in her awhed included in the fature, a glad, glorious rature, the fature, a glad, glorious rature, the fature, a glad, glorious rature, under the fature, a glad, glorious rature, and if there also make the was every bone in her awhed house and the was every bone in her awhed house and the was every bone in her awhed house and the was every bone in her awhed has a that that the fature, a glad, glorious rature, a glad, glorious rature, a glad, glorious call that the fature, a glad, glorious call that the fature, a glad, glorious ratur

(To be continued)

"I'm Going to Let You Go!"

JEAN and Mark shoot facing each other in the big ranch room, and finally Mark spoke. "Look at me, will bout face and a woman is free. The duck that had been turned into a finally Mark spoke. "Look at me, will bout face and a woman is free. The duck that had been turned into a finally Mark spoke. "Look at me, will bout face and the finally face and being that night. I know t was the finally face and being the finally face and for the time finally face and for the finally face and the finally face and for the final face and for the show, howled with glee.

The duck that had been turned into a final for go joined in the classe. He was easer to help punish Peggy and Billy.

"The lock the face and the final face and face and the final face and fi on," he said eventy, no slightest of emotion of any kind in his "lim going to let you go." stringled for a minute to speak able could not. Finally she forced a thank you and turned away but I don't want to talk any more and securely to the wall to skirts and other articles to the skirts and the skirts wide notice thick and just long tin back of the closet.—

WHAT YOUR FEATURES SHOW

ow nostrils, an aquiline nose and that counterbalanced by long, drooping eye-part of the cheek lying between the brows, denotes extravagance.

Broad nostrils which extend right up Broad-mindedness is indicated by to the broad forchead and a long upper lip. The latter trait gives comprehension. the faculty of taking in everything.

Large cars that stand out far from note cruelty.

An upward turn of the inner line of An upward turn of the inner line of the nostrils gives a faculty for imitation. The same is found with elongated coastrils, which slope down on to the pastrils, which slope down on to the line are pressed together imply the

"White Rabbit and Gray Rabbit"

By DADDY

CHAPTER VI

he had a rabbit turn on him and change him into a bunny. He was most amazed when the tickling of Billy's rabbit whis-kers transformed him from a man into

"Eck!" he squeaked in rabbit talk.

Wintergreen Red MANY a trick had the clever magician worked on rabbits, but never had

ADVENTURES

DREAMLAND

to the front of the nose denote course-Cautious people have nostrils that lie fint to the face, and the nose ter-minates in a thin, nointed tip.

The tip of the nose broad and tilting and thin, compressed lips de- unward and lips that have a tendency to curve up at the corners denotes flip-

A high forehead, as long, if not longer than the length of the nose, with small closed nostrils and the lower lip compressed against the upper in the center, denotes chastity. A face in form rather oval than broad, with the above characteristics, is indelibly stamped with the mark of purity.

A turned-up snub nose indicates cheerfulness. If the lower lip is curved in the center the subject will also be in the center the subject will also be The crown of the head raised and tion. The same is found on to the nostrils, which slope down on to the cheek, and with an exceedingly wide mouth, the face being narrow.

Impressionability is shown by the snub nostrils. These also indicate cares and nostrils. These also indicate cares and a perpendicular fore-lead to the corners of the mouth, the under lip being full, are signs of benevolence and a philanthropic character. This flashy lips and a perpendicular fore-lead to the corners of the mouth, the under lip being full, are signs of benevolence and a philanthropic character. This is further accentuated by three or four horizontal lines above the eyebrows. The crown of the head raised and vell developed and the upper lip wide it the corners of the mouth, the under ip being full, are signs of benevolence and a philanthropic character. This further accentuated by three or four sorizontal lines above the evebrows.

WHAT'S WHAT By HELEN DECIE

Billy now put the pie into a hot oven, and, of course, the audience thought the rabbits were in the pie when they were really in the table. Hidden in the hot oven was a real pot-pie, and this Billy brought out, pretending it was the one he had cooked. Billy cut the real pie up, and passed it out for the audience to eat. When it was all gone, he put the empty dish over the secret hole in the table, covered the dish with a cloth, whicked away the cloth, and behold, there were two rabbits, the Clever Magician and his helper, stiff and sore, but very glad to get out of the hole into which they had been stuffed.

The crowd yelled with delight and hilly bowed. While he was bowing, the two rabbits leaped from the table, and ach grabhed a wintergroup berry. So slid the frog. In an instant there stood the Clever Magician and his helper changed back into men, and the duck changed late itself.

hanged back into men, and the duck hanged into itself.

changed into itself.

"Run!" squeaked Hoppity-Hop, to Peggy and Billy. They did run—they ran, and ran until all of a sudden Peggy stumbled and pitched into a snowbank. She dove right through it, and then where do you suppose she found herself? Back home, waking up from a sound snooze. The wide, flowing sleeve so popular just now an definance and wraps is very justry, but how the wind does insist on traveling up ones, it in It we can you prevent that uncomfortable feeling? Make a pair of "protector-undersies vesa." Cut two strips eleven and one-half inches wide of soft, but closely woven, slik to match or harmonize with the lining of your wrap. 'Oard the top edge, shir and fasten it to the inside of the sleep about eight inches from the lower edge of the sleeve of the wrap. Finish the bottom edge of the sitk with about leading shirred on a narrow

In next week's story Peggy and Billy are carried away by a blazard, and what do you suppose the blazard does to them? You'll find out,

For Cold Nights

A delightfully warm and nice matelower edge of the side with Finish the bottom edge of the side with the sides and upper parts are cut separately out of the soft stuff and easily fashioned into cozy slippers.

They are tied with lavender satin ribbon about an inch wide.

The Woman's Exchange |

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—Could you kindly give me the names of a few of the beautifying business schools in Philadelphia?

B. V. R. Names of Schools

I cannot tell you these names in the he will sit some place ne column, but will be glad to do so if beside me. I always thou you send a stamped, addressed entry be as near as possible velope.

Wants Skin Specialist To the Editor of Waman's Page:

Dear Madam-Kindly give me names of two or three physicians sible thread for buttonholes. Whenever I have any odds and ends of cutton le on a small cardboard and write on the number of the thread and put it thread for the above purpose.-Modern

The Question Corner

What significant name has been given by Oscar, fifth son of the former German Kaiser, to his youngest daughter?
 Describe an easy and inexpensive way of making a toy cat.

the baby be made?

5. What kinds of soap can one use

Describe a good-looking new lamp shade for a bedroom.

orated, falls on this date, 2. Gasoline should not be stored in a basement or cellar, as the fumes are heavier than the air and set-tle on the floor, making their igtle on the floor, making their ignition a possible danger.

3. A comfortable carriage blanket, which keeps the drafts off baby's shoulders, is made with a hole near one end for his head to go through, the short end falling over his shoulders and back.

4. Satisfactory inside belting can be made at home by taking unbleached muslin of the desired width, doubling it and stitching width, doubling it and stitching it diagonally all along its length.

5. The prettiest kind of a cover to use on a gate-leg table when it is folded and set against the wall is a long, narrow one with a design at the end which falls below the edge of the dropped leaf, G. An attractive duvetyn toque is

Please Tell Me What to Do

By CYNTHIA

is Fiirting Sinful?

Dear Cynthia—Is flirting considered to be one of the seven deadly sins? Of course there are conditions that point to its favor. In a city, where there is a university, it is all the more difficult to resist just a little of the flavor. Once "acquired," is it a hard habit to break? "GASOLINE GERTIE."

No, flirting is not one of the seven deadly sins, but it is rather a poer sport, unless both man and girl know it is flirting and neither one cares seriously. It's always wiser to be sincere in everything. Then there are never any regrets.

Another Scolding

Another Scolding

Dear Cynthia—For quite a while I have been but a looker-on, but now I think I'll join the ctners and "jump down 'Whitey's' throat." I'll betcha "Whitey" wouldn't talk the way he does if he had a regular girl. From his letters I judge he's a feller about eighteen years old, who didn't hit the right crowd. When he gets o'der and finds the right girl he'd get her the mocn, if he could, when she even hinted for it. He'd want her to think as much of him as he does of her and he'd be right there to answer her every beck and call. BUTTINSKY. BUTTINSKY. Poor Whitey, how they do reast you.

Dear Cynthia—Here's another one of your advice seekers. You have he ped others so much, I hope you will en-ard turn of the point of the es air inquiring mind.

hin with thin lips and small es coldness.

The nose wide at the tip, with arched eyebrows, varying high above the bridge to the nose, unless anced by long, drooping eyestores extravagance.

The nose wide at the tip, with arched eyebrows, varying high above the eyes, the forehead being smooth and sloping backward, denotes carclessness.

A high forehead, as long, if not the entire term of the chin be in this matter. I have had no answer to doubt my course of action.

Your column is wonderful. All members of our family from mother to the sloping backward, denotes carclessness.

A high forehead, as long, if not

They Do Not Sit

bur heside a pretty girl? Not ing when I go to work and the seat next to me vacant, and a good-look in in the trolley car he will seat beside me, but perhaftont, or on the side of n while some funny-lookin come and sit beside me, to sit beside some one looking; and then perhaphave nerve enough to sit one out of every ten got lows will sit there, but the of times when I walk to I am waiting for it som start to flirt with me, but get in the car and he get he will sit some place ne if beside me. I always thou en-girls. Have you ever four thia?

Oh, yes, by the way, if inquisitive, what is your Are you over or under two I have just made the ac I have just made the ac a girl from California and wrote a leter to you unde "Lonesome Cupid," but i lished, and she asked me you wouldn't please publis Well, I hope some of friends will answer the qu wish "McWizzburgh" and wish "McWizzburgh" and well as the others, would a two above mentioned wri-interesting letters. Al My dear, do you reali-are some men in the worl-want to spend their time girls they do not know? I de not realize also that it do not realize also that the things in this world that the things in this world that the real beauty comes. That is, character.

For many reasons perso about Cynthia are not an:

ASCO ASCO

0 Has

Today's Inquiries

3. In what way can window glass be cleaned which will give it a high 4. How can a dainty little bib for to counteract the effect of hard water on the skin?

Yesterday's Answers Twelfth Night, or the twelfth night after Christmas, in olden times, marked the close of the Christmas holiday season. In the church calendar, Epiphany, when the visit of the Magi is commem-

THE WORST MODERN TORTUR

And Forcing It to Do the Work at Hand Instead of Looking Forward to the Pleasure of Saturday Afternoon

IS MANAGING YOUR MIN

the slow drop of water dripping, drip-ping, dripping until the victim went mad with its monotony, and other mad with its monotony, and other, frightful inventions that make us shudder nowadays when we hear of them.

We are not subjected to this kind of thing now; there is no pillory or stocks, no whipping post, none of those horrors. Everyday life goes along smoothly, if we behave ourselves, and we are in no danger of being caught by an ambushed private enemy and taken off to be tor-private enemy and taken off to be tor-tured in his house.

No, there are none of these fearsome No, there are none of these fearsome things that made people writhe and scream and tear their hair in agony.

But was there any torture in those olden days that quite compares with the distress of pulling your mind down to the very earthly necessity of finishing your Saturday morning work before your on a spread of the state of you go a spreeing on Saturday after-noon?

ISN'T it terrible?

You come gayly into your place of business, or perhaps you go just as gayly into the kitchen or up the stairs.

Your desk has the expression of one who would say, "Well, come on over and get busy, we have lots to do this morning."

The blanket droops disconsolately the floor, and your variant in having taken wing, has alighted a beginning taken wing, has alighted a wonder anxiously and exstating working.

The blanket droops disconsolately the floor, and your variant in having taken wing, has alighted a wonder anxiously and exstating about your hair, your dress, the standard droops disconsolately the floor, and your variant in having taken wing, has alighted a wonder anxiously and exstating taken wing, has alighted a bout your dress, the stairs.

The blanket droops disconsolately the floor, and your variant in having taken wing, has alighted a bout your dress, the stairs.

The blanket droops disconsolately the floor, and your variant in having taken wing, has alighted a bout your dress, the stairs.

The blanket droops disconsolately the floor, and your variant in having taken wing, has alighted a bout your dress, the stairs.

The blanket droops disconsolately the floor, and your variant in having taken wing, has alighted a bout your dress, the stairs.

The bed remains half made while wonder anxiously and exstating the statement of the floor, and your variant in having taken wing, has alighted a bout your dress, the statement of the floor, and your variant in having taken wing, has alighted a bout your half the floor and your variant in having taken wing, has alighted a bout your half the floor and your variant in having taken wing, having the floor and your variant in having the floor and your variant in having the floor and your variant in half the floor and your variant in having the floor and your variant in

The whole thing pleads silently, Thank heaven we live today, it instead of yesterday!

ONCE upon a time there were horrible tortures meted out to those who were unfortunate enough to be captured by their enemies.

There was the Iron Maiden, the rack.
There was the Iron Maiden, the rack.

"I wonder who will be there?"
mind is thinking, intently. "I'm g have that new waist so that I'll loc right as soon as I get there. Oh, y I can't be bothered."

"Now, this letter must be answ you decide, wrenching your mine from delightful thoughts. "In re to your letter of January 3—I knew what show we're going to hate to go without knowing something about—of January 3-

FF YOU are at home your con tion with yourself runs juthe same way: "Heavens! greasy pan; I'll have to boil it lean—oh, think where I'll hope my hair will go de have to curl up that nasty little I never saw so many dishes in my You find yourself standing day before the open window, having shaken a blanket vigorously. The blanket droops disconsolately

And then you have to turn your energetically about, face the work to morning."

And then you have to turn you have to turn you last saw it, and its whole outline go out.

And then you have to turn you have to turn you last saw it, and its whole outline go out.

pleads for help.

The bedrooms are the usual Saturday morning wreck, sheets and blankets hanging over chairs and bedposts, pillows slapped into pitiful, dejected shapes.

The bedrooms are the usual Saturday tures have been worse than ming your mind come down to earth with the wants to fly about in golden closed shapes.

Two Minutes of Optimism By HERMAN J. STICH

The Pep-ti-mist and the Doer

PESSIMIST has been defined as a man who closes one eye, wrinkles beautiful brow, draws up the corners of his mouth, and, wearily shall his head, says sepulchrally : "It can't be done."

An optimist is a man who is full of sunshine (not moonshine!) and an

WRITII SFUN

from the ovens of our own three large bakeries, we are able to sell this big loaf at 8c. Every penny over 8c that you pay for bread is literally than is in the "Victor" loaf. Why continue to let those extra pennies slip from your purse?

money thrown away, for at NO price can you buy better quality (Children thrive on it) Thousands and thousands of housewives no longer run out in the early morning to get bread for breakfast. They have found that the Victor Loaf stays fresh, so they

Buy Victor Bread each afternoon for the

"Asco" Stores all over Phila, and throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland.

ASCO ASCO ASCO ASCO

next day's breakfast. It will keep surprisingly fresh-even from Saturday until Monday. Try it!

ASCO ASCO ASCO ASCO

trimmed with an edge of novel roses, made by coiling the ma-terial round and round.