About Mr. Harding at headquarters it has secretaries and buffers and secret service men, but they are of little avail. Not much sifting of visitors is permitted. Practically all get by the guard and see the President-elect. His ideal is to be the most accessible of Presidents. It is perhaps an impossible of the farmers' Union, came of the posts that was regarded as filled. Mayor Thompson dislikes bankers from his own town. He said in chicago that he would rather see his old toe, Governor Lowden, in the cabinet than Mr. Dawes, and Mayor Thompson is the Republican party of Illinois.

On the same train Charles Barrett, president of the Farmers' Union, came dents. It is perhaps an impossible ideal, like the ideal of utterly smoothing out differences and pleasing everybody, but he will be, when he gets to Washington, in spite of the trained force that will there surround him, the most accessible of Presidents.

On the same train Charles Barrett, president of the Farmers' Union, came here to urge the appointment of Henry C. Wallace, of Des Moines, as secretary of agriculture. Mr. Wallace has certain packing interests opposing him. Mr. Barrett does not love packers, therefore he is for Mr. Wallace. This stript of

Aervento" Raincoats

Of Rubberized Tweeds in Scores of the Smartest Overcoat Styles

About Half Price!

A Special Purchase of 1000 Coats Wonderful Values at These Prices $10.00, $12.50, $18.50 and $22.50

"Aervento" sets the pace in Raincoat smartness and im rovement. Here are handsome Overcoats, of attractive tweeds in smart, new belted and more conservative styles-just the kind of Overcoat you would choose for spring or for motoring. With all their style smartness they are the most comfortable and most practical Rainceaus made. The tweed fabrics are thoroughly rubberized and absolutely waterproof. Best of all-there's the "Aervento" feature which permits perfect ventilation under the coat, thus doing away with that hot, sticky, uncomfortable feeling one usually associates with Raincoats of the ordinary kind. And now, right on the threshold of the "wet" season, and the ensuing spring season, you can buy these fine Coats at an average of about one-half the original prices, now-$10.00, $12.50,
