I Governi di Roma e Belgrado Scambiano le Ratifiche del Patto di Rapallo

Published and Distributed Under PERMIT NO. 843 Authorized by the act of October 3, 1917, for file at the Postoffice of Philadelphia, Pa. A. S. BURLERSON, Postmaster General.

Roma, 13 gennaio.—Il trattato concluso tra i rappresentanti dell'Italia e della Jugoslavia è entrato nella sua fase finale. Infatti è stato annunciato che sabato prossimo il Governo di Roma e quello di Belgrado si scambieranno le ratifiche del trattato stesso.

I metodi da adottare per l'esecuzione del trattato sono stati oggetto di varie conferenze tra il Ministero della Guerra e quello degli Affari Esteri. I due ministri Esteri, Conte Sforza e il suo collega jugoslavo, hanno convenuto che le proposte da sottoporre ai Presidenti del Consiglio On. Golliti.

Si assicura, pure, che lo sgombramento della Dalmazia da parte delle truppe italiane non avverrà per il momento o per lo meno non prima di maggio prossimo, cioè "seché" si dovrà attendere una commissione, non ancora nominata, delimiti le frontiere tra l'Italia e la Jugoslavia. La nomina della commissione preletta avverrà "quanto prima" e "dovrà" principalmente mirare a stabilire i confini tra l'Italia e la Jugoslavia nell'Istria, Fiume e Zara.

Civola la voce che Gabriele D'Annunzio ha lasciato Fiume, ma la notizia è stata accolta con scetticismo nei circoli giornalistici.

Secondo un dispaccio da Trieste D'Annunzio avrebbe lasciato Fiume in automobile, accompagnato dal suo aiutante di campo e da due suoi fedeli sottufficiali. Sull'automobile sarebbero stati caricati tre pesantissimi cassoni contenenti documenti ed una ingente somma di danaro.

L'automobile che conduceva D'Annunzio, dopo essersi diretto verso Trieste, avrebbe proseguito per Mestre. Si ritiene che, come fu annunciato in precedenza, D'Annunzio andrebbe a stabilirsi in Venezia. La notizia di cui sopra merita conferma.

Si dice che l'On. Golliti non si recerà a Parigi per il convegno internazionale che si riunirà al 10 corrente, e che si farà rappresentante dal Conte Sforza, Ministro per gli Affari Esteri.

Un dispaccio da Milano annunzia che il giudice istruttore ha terminato l'istruttoria a carico dei pretesi cospiratori anarchici-fascisti ed ha concluso con l'escludere l'esistenza di qualsiasi completo criminoso ed ha ordinato il rilascio di tutti gli arrestati.

L'On. Golliti ha avuto una lunga conferenza con il Re.
