

N. Y. CROWDS CHEER AIRMEN ON ARRIVAL

Mrs. Hinton and Mrs. Farrell Left Together to Meet Party on Way Home

TALK OF FIGHT AVOIDED

By the Associated Press New York, Jan. 14.—Lieutenants Kloor, Farrell and Hinton, naval balloonists, arrived at the Pennsylvania Railroad station at 10:42 o'clock this morning, exactly a month after they had landed near Moose Factory, Ont., after a day's balloon flight from the Rockaway naval air station.

Lieutenant Farrell was the first to leave the train, accompanied by Mrs. Farrell, who had left New York to meet her husband. A crowd of relatives, naval officers and a group of business men from Rockaway greeted the party.

Farrell and Hinton, who engaged in a personal encounter upon their arrival at Mattie, walked close together and smiled at each other, while photographers cranked their machines.

Lieutenant Hinton also was accompanied by his wife, and when he left the train and began his month's trip to Alaska, he was accompanied by Mrs. Farrell and Mrs. Hinton, who left the city together to greet their husbands before their arrival.

P. R. R. COMPANY SHARES POWER WITH EMPLOYEES

Philadelphia is Chairman of Board Acting on Grievances Columbus, O., Jan. 14.—The Pennsylvania Railroad's plan for averting breaks between the engine and train service employees and the company through the operation of joint committees, first promulgated at a meeting in Philadelphia about three weeks ago, was perfected here yesterday by the organization of a joint committee.

FIRE IN DR. LE CONTE HOME

Defective Flue Causes Blaze and Damage of $1000 Five damaged in home of Dr. Robert Le Conte at Chestnut and Spruce streets last night. A defective flue was the cause and the damage is estimated at $1000.

COUNCIL PAY DAY DELAYED

Illness of Harry Wittig Holds Up Monthly Allotments Councilmen may not "draw" the first allotment of about $200 on their $5000 salary for 1921, due today, because of Harry Wittig, sergeant-at-arms and official paymaster of Council.

30 DAYS' GRACE FOR DOGS

Animals Get Preferred Treatment Over Autoists in Tag Requirements Dogs are receiving a longer time to grow their tags, and are given when it comes to displaying 1921 tags.

Condition of Highways Throughout State Today

Condition of highways this morning. Lincoln highway, Trenton to Chambersburg; Western part covered with snow, four inches or more; eastern part, no snow, but slushy due to snow changing to rain.

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

Saxton Dornican, 651 N. 11th st., and Margaret Dornican, 2022 Ridge ave., both of Philadelphia, 2123 Howard st., and John H. Kasper, 2123 Howard st., and Marion Kasper, 2123 Howard st., both of Philadelphia, 2123 Howard st., and John H. Kasper, 2123 Howard st., and Marion Kasper, 2123 Howard st., both of Philadelphia, 2123 Howard st.

University Activities Scheduled at Penn Today

12:30 p. m.—All-University assembly, Weightman Hall. 2 p. m.—Arts Association lecture, College Hall. 7 p. m.—Meeting of Luzerne Club, Houston Hall.

SEARCH FOR N. Y. GRAFT UNCOVERS NEW TRAILS

Whitman Looks for More Indictments at Early Date New York, Jan. 14.—(By A. P.)—Investigation of alleged graft and corruption in the city administration today led ex-Governor Charles S. Whitman, special counsel, into new fields. He announced, in connection with the indictment of Police Captain William A. Baiter yesterday on a charge of accepting a bribe from fur manufacturers to prevent possible sabotage by striking employees, that he had made inquiries into reports of misconduct in several other lines besides the police department.

N. Y. BUILDINGS GUARDED AGAINST RADICAL ATTACKS

Rockefeller and Morgan Homes Are Protected From Bombers New York, Jan. 14.—(By A. P.)—Public buildings, churches, public utility plants and homes of wealthy citizens throughout the city were under heavy guard today, in view of the order issued as a precautionary measure against possible radical demonstrations.

Merely Strenuous Duty

"It was strenuous duty," he said, "but nothing more than what might be expected any time by a man in service."

Dr. Charles Seymour Speaks Tonight on Remnants of Austria

"The End of an Empire, or the Remnants of Austria-Hungary," is the subject of the talk to be given tonight at the Public Lecture Forum in the Academy of Music, by Dr. Charles Seymour.

Winner Is Chosen

While the judges were looking over the ballots, on which were printed the names of the winners of the ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS, with an added bonus of $100,000, the prize of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS, with an added bonus of $100,000, was awarded to Mrs. H. F. Hall.

Draw Jury From Audience

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Draw Jury From Audience

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Draw Jury From Audience

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Draw Jury From Audience

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Draw Jury From Audience

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Draw Jury From Audience

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Draw Jury From Audience

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Draw Jury From Audience

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

GERMANTOWN AUDIENCE GIVES LIMERICK PRIZE TO JENKINTOWN

Jury at Orpheum Theatre Awards Hundred Dollars to Mrs. H. F. Hall, of 111 York Road

Winner Will Share Money With Several Families in Neighborhood Who Need Help Just Now

Attention, Fans! Once more we must call attention to the time limit set in the rules for receiving answers to the limericks. Many last lines are coming in too late and are being excluded for that reason.

Today's limerick award was made by a jury drawn from the company and the Orpheum Theatre, Germantown.

The award to be announced tomorrow is being made by a jury of employees of the paper box factory of the Edwin J. Jenkintown Co., 533 North Eleventh street.

The Business Service Club, at its luncheon today in the Adelphia Hotel, voted on the last lines to Limerick No. 25. The verdict will be announced Monday.

Well, it certainly was kind of that audience out in the Orpheum Theatre, Germantown, that gave the prize for Limerick No. 23 to Jenkintown.

All week, the four lines about the suiter who wooed Sister Sue was displayed in a frame in the lobby with the announcement that the audience would appoint the judges and a good house gathered to see some of the internal work of "limrickin'."

We went out there and met the house manager, Frank J. McGill, and he took us back on the stage to see the company manager, Samuel Miller, who plays the part of the sheriff in this week's show.

We talked as politely as we could to Mr. Miller, but we were afraid that, more than once, he noticed a lack of attention on our part.

If so, we apologize. You see, Mae Desmond and Miss Brent were standing nearby and, while they were in sight, Mr. Miller hadn't a chance to hold our attention—not a chance in the world.

We suggested to Mr. Miller that Miss Desmond and Miss Brent be asked to serve on the jury.

"If I did," he said, "the whole audience would want to rush up on the stage and take part in the selection."

He was right, undoubtedly. So we reluctantly yielded, although we felt that the idea would put us in solid with the two actresses, if we were aiming at the two of them—if you've seen them.

Draw Jury From Audience

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

Mr. Miller, still in his costume, acted as master of ceremonies and called for volunteers to come up on the stage. The jury was drawn from the audience.

One Hundred Dollars Daily For the Best Last Line Supplied by Any Reader of the Evening Public Ledger to the Incomplete Limerick Which Appears Below

RULES OF THE LIMERICK CONTEST 1. Contest is open to any one. All that is required for entry is to write and send in your last lines to the Limerick, using for convenience the coupon printed below. Please write plainly and be sure to add your name and address.

2. All answers to the Limerick which is printed below must be received at the office of the Evening Public Ledger by the first mail Monday morning, Monday's and Thursday's Limericks should be mailed to P. O. Box 1521, Philadelphia, Tuesday's and Friday's to P. O. Box 1521, and Wednesday's to P. O. Box 1524. Answers sent to the office of the Evening Public Ledger will also be admissible.

3. The winner of the ONE HUNDRED DOLLAR prize for the best last line to each Limerick will be announced one week after the Limerick is printed. For example, the winner of the prize for the Limerick which appears today will be announced today a week.

4. In case of ties, prizes will be awarded to each successful contestant. For example, if the judges decide there are two or more answers of equal merit for the prize, the author of each answer will receive ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS. The prize will not be split up among them.

5. The decision of the judges in each Limerick contest will be final.

THE WINNER OF TODAY'S CONTEST WILL BE ANNOUNCED ONE WEEK FROM TODAY

Cut Out and Mail TO THE LIMERICK CONTEST

Evening Public Ledger, P. O. Box 1521, Philadelphia. LIMERICK NO. 29 The fellow who goes out to May's Till midnight—or much later—stays; He keeps the light dim Till her pa yells at him—

Name _____ Street and No. _____ City and State _____

Interested in the limericks published every night. Am wondering if all the lines sent in are read. It seems to me there must be thousands of lines sent in every day, and it seems impossible to read them all.

The Philadelphia W. C. T. U. held a meeting this morning at the Willard, 1921 Arch street. Mrs. C. Boyer Vaux, chairman of the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters and the Women's League for Good Government, was the speaker.

Psychology of Speaking Outlined to Modern Club

Mary Sandall Gives Fifth Lecture of Her Series "The Psychology of Speech Making" was discussed this morning by Miss Mary Sandall in the fifth of her series of lectures on applied psychology before the modern club at its meeting at 1618 Walnut street. Mrs. Harold Delaney Downs, the president, presided.

The National American War Mothers held their monthly meeting this afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. J. M. Gallagher, the president, presided.

Dr. John Dennis Mahoney delivered a lecture before the Hatway Shakespeare Club at its meeting this afternoon at the Philomusian Clubhouse. The book review was given by Mrs. Charles L. Livingston and Mrs. Joseph R. C. McAllister, the president, presided.

Evangelist Tells Atlantic City Rules of Visits to Shore Resorts

Atlantic City, Jan. 14.—Atlantic City's rulers pledged themselves yesterday to rid the city of disorderly resorts and to suppress offensive dancing by paid performers and other questionable practices in the cañons. This pledge is a result of a recent visit to the city by the Rev. Dr. Thomas McKinney, of Coatesville, Pa., an evangelist, who is conducting a revival in the First Methodist Episcopal Church.

Man Was Robbed, Wife Became Ill and Then He Lost Job

Misfortune pursued Floyd Selmer, thirty-four years old, 103 North Vogdes street, so persistently within the last three weeks that he became discouraged and last night attempted to commit suicide.

He was found staggering at Twenty-first and Clearfield streets by a patrolman, who sent him to the Samaritan Hospital. He is in a critical condition from a poison he admitted taking with suicidal intent.

"On Christmas eve I was on my way home with my arms filled with toys and gifts and with nearly $50 in my pockets. I was held up by bandits near my home and the money and gifts were taken from me, the hold-up men escaping with me to the hospital."

"Then my wife was taken ill and was sent to a hospital, from which she was discharged only a few hours ago. "Then I lost my job. "Everywhere I met refusal. They had no work to give me. Disheartened and discouraged, with no money, and with my wife just out of the hospital—well, I just gave up. That's all. I couldn't help it."

Congressmen Back From Canal Zone

New York, Jan. 14.—(By A. P.)—A party of fourteen members of Congress, who have been visiting the canal zone, returned here today on the steamship Panama.

Divorce Suit Sues Sister, too

—Lillian Johnson, Marlton and Highland avenues, Marlton, N. J., has sued her sister, Mrs. S. J. Johnson, 4959 Rubicam avenue, Germantown.

Another divorce suit was filed by Mrs. S. J. Johnson, 4959 Rubicam avenue, Germantown, against her husband, S. J. Johnson, 4959 Rubicam avenue, Germantown.

—John J. Doyle, 3125 Webster street, has sued his wife, Mrs. S. J. Johnson, 4959 Rubicam avenue, Germantown.

—John J. Doyle, 3125 Webster street, has sued his wife, Mrs. S. J. Johnson, 4959 Rubicam avenue, Germantown.

—John J. Doyle, 3125 Webster street, has sued his wife, Mrs. S. J. Johnson, 4959 Rubicam avenue, Germantown.

—John J. Doyle, 3125 Webster street, has sued his wife, Mrs. S. J. Johnson, 4959 Rubicam avenue, Germantown.

VARE MAN MAY WIN IN ASSEMBLY FIGHT

Split of Allegheny Leaders Over Judiciary Division May Give Glass Job

GRUNDY TAKES A HAND

A state representative from Philadelphia may be a compromise choice for chairman of the House Judiciary general committee as a result of a fight among Allegheny county leaders.

With this city as the political capital of the state, the situation was enlivened early today with the arrival of Joseph R. Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association, who jumped into the fray all for action.

Mr. Grundy breakfasted at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. His secretary, Mr. R. Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association, who jumped into the fray all for action.

The Allegheny county faction headed by George E. Oliver, wants Nelson McVicar made chairman of the House Judiciary general committee. The Leslie wing desires the reappointment of W. Heber Dittich.

It is believed Leopold C. Glass a Vire lieutenant, may be chosen as a compromise choice. Mr. Glass is said to be leading the field now. His secretary, Mr. R. Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association, who jumped into the fray all for action.

Senator Leslie left this city in a huff last night. It was learned today. His fire was aroused by Mr. Oliver's apparent control over the Allegheny county delegates. Leslie took thirteen of the twenty-five Allegheny county representatives on an anti-Oliver ticket.

It is said the Oliver forces won over two of the delegates, thereby gaining a majority of the delegation.

HITS "PROFITEER PERMITS"

North Dakota Congressman Opposes Higher Import Duties Washington, Jan. 14.—Certain American business interests were rebuked by Representative Young, Republican, of North Dakota during consideration of tariff revision by the House ways and means committee for asking duties which he charged would amount to the loss of $100 million.

He was found staggering at Twenty-first and Clearfield streets by a patrolman, who sent him to the Samaritan Hospital. He is in a critical condition from a poison he admitted taking with suicidal intent.

"On Christmas eve I was on my way home with my arms filled with toys and gifts and with nearly $50 in my pockets. I was held up by bandits near my home and the money and gifts were taken from me, the hold-up men escaping with me to the hospital."

"Then my wife was taken ill and was sent to a hospital, from which she was discharged only a few hours ago. "Then I lost my job. "Everywhere I met refusal. They had no work to give me. Disheartened and discouraged, with no money, and with my wife just out of the hospital—well, I just gave up. That's all. I couldn't help it."

SEEKS DEATH TO END WOES

Man Was Robbed, Wife Became Ill and Then He Lost Job Misfortune pursued Floyd Selmer, thirty-four years old, 103 North Vogdes street, so persistently within the last three weeks that he became discouraged and last night attempted to commit suicide.

He was found staggering at Twenty-first and Clearfield streets by a patrolman, who sent him to the Samaritan Hospital. He is in a critical condition from a poison he admitted taking with suicidal intent.

"On Christmas eve I was on my way home with my arms filled with toys and gifts and with nearly $50 in my pockets. I was held up by bandits near my home and the money and gifts were taken from me, the hold-up men escaping with me to the hospital."

"Then my wife was taken ill and was sent to a hospital, from which she was discharged only a few hours ago. "Then I lost my job. "Everywhere I met refusal. They had no work to give me. Disheartened and discouraged, with no money, and with my wife just out of the hospital—well, I just gave up. That's all. I couldn't help it."

SEEKS DEATH TO END WOES

Man Was Robbed, Wife Became Ill and Then He Lost Job Misfortune pursued Floyd Selmer, thirty-four years old, 103 North Vogdes street, so persistently within the last three weeks that he became discouraged and last night attempted to commit suicide.

He was found staggering at Twenty-first and Clearfield streets by a patrolman, who sent him to the Samaritan Hospital. He is in a critical condition from a poison he admitted taking with suicidal intent.

"On Christmas eve I was on my way home with my arms filled with toys and gifts and with nearly $50 in my pockets. I was held up by bandits near my home and the money and gifts were taken from me, the hold-up men escaping with me to the hospital."

"Then my wife was taken ill and was sent to a hospital, from which she was discharged only a few hours ago. "Then I lost my job. "Everywhere I met refusal. They had no work to give me. Disheartened and discouraged, with no money, and with my wife just out of the hospital—well, I just gave up. That's all. I couldn't help it."

SEEKS DEATH TO END WOES

Man Was Robbed, Wife Became Ill and Then He Lost Job Misfortune pursued Floyd Selmer, thirty-four years old, 103 North Vogdes street, so persistently within the last three weeks that he became discouraged and last night attempted to commit suicide.

He was found staggering at Twenty-first and Clearfield streets by a patrolman, who sent him to the Samaritan Hospital. He is in a critical condition from a poison he admitted taking with suicidal intent.

"On Christmas eve I was on my way home with my arms filled with toys and gifts and with nearly $50 in my pockets. I was held up by bandits near my home and the money and gifts were taken from me, the hold-up men escaping with me to the hospital."

Who Poured the Oil on Troubled Waters?

July 10.—E. T. Stotesbury, chairman of P. R. T. board, severs all relations with company management when board votes down his seven-cent fare plan and upholds straight five-cent fare plan of Thomas E. Mitten, president.

September 21.—Mitten tells Council company faces bankruptcy unless straight five-cent fare is obtained.

November 1.—Seven-cent fare, or four tickets for twenty-five cents, goes into effect. Ordered by Public Service Commission.

December 4.—Reports current that Stotesbury banking interests are planning to oust Mitten from presidency.

January 13.—Mitten announces earman's back wages will be paid through arrangement with Stotesbury's banking house.

SEES POLITICAL BOSS' END

Women Get Lesson in Voting and Urge Better Polling Places More suitable polling places in which women may cast votes were advocated at a meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union this morning at 1921 Arch street. Mrs. C. Boyer Vaux, chairman of the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters and the Women's League for Good Government, was the speaker.

She said the present polling places in saloons and cigar stores and pool halls were "not only degrading but also a disgrace to the community." She asserted that the "day of political bosses is rapidly coming to an end, as women will not tolerate corrupt methods."

Mrs. Vaux explained that their first ballot and presented a number of sample ballots in illustration.

TEST HOG ISLAND SHIP

121st Vessel From Yard Exceeds Contract Speed on Trial Trip Hog Island's 121st ship, the army transport Tours, completed her trial trip to Delaware bay yesterday and exceeded her contract speed of fifteen knots by one and one-fourth knots. The Tours is of 8000 deadweight tons and has accommodations for 2550 persons. Friends of shipping board officials and of Hog Island officials were guests on the trip.

The last of the Hog Island ships, the Algonquin, will make her trial trip on January 22. More than 400 bankers and big business men from eastern cities have accepted the invitation of Matthew C. Brush, president of the Hog Island company, to witness it.

HITS "PROFITEER PERMITS"

North Dakota Congressman Opposes Higher Import Duties Washington, Jan. 14.—Certain American business interests were rebuked by Representative Young, Republican, of North Dakota during consideration of tariff revision by the House ways and means committee for asking duties which he charged would amount to the loss of $100 million.

He was found staggering at Twenty-first and Clearfield streets by a patrolman, who sent him to the Samaritan Hospital. He is in a critical condition from a poison he admitted taking with suicidal intent.

"On Christmas eve I was on my way home with my arms filled with toys and gifts and with nearly $50 in my pockets. I was held up by bandits near my home and the money and gifts were taken from me, the hold-up men escaping with me to the hospital."

"Then my wife was taken ill and was sent to a hospital, from which she was discharged only a few hours ago. "Then I lost my job. "Everywhere I met refusal. They had no work to give me. Disheartened and discouraged, with no money, and with my wife just out of the hospital—well, I just gave up. That's all. I couldn't help it."

SEEKS DEATH TO END WOES

Man Was Robbed, Wife Became Ill and Then He Lost Job Misfortune pursued Floyd Selmer, thirty-four years old, 103 North Vogdes street, so persistently within the last three weeks that he became discouraged and last night attempted to commit suicide.

He was found staggering at Twenty-first and Clearfield streets by a patrolman, who sent him to the Samaritan Hospital. He is in a critical condition from a poison he admitted taking with suicidal intent.

"On Christmas eve I was on my way home with my arms filled with toys and gifts and with nearly $50 in my pockets. I was held up by bandits near my home and the money and gifts were taken from me, the hold-up men escaping with me to the hospital."

"Then my wife was taken ill and was sent to a hospital, from which she was discharged only a few hours ago. "Then I lost my job. "Everywhere I met refusal. They had no work to give me. Disheartened and discouraged, with no money, and with my wife just out of the hospital—well, I just gave up. That's all. I couldn't help it."

SEEKS DEATH TO END WOES

Man Was Robbed, Wife Became Ill and Then He Lost Job Misfortune pursued Floyd Selmer, thirty-four years old, 103 North Vogdes street, so persistently within the last three weeks that he became discouraged and last night attempted to commit suicide.

He was found staggering at Twenty-first and Clearfield streets by a patrolman, who sent him to the Samaritan Hospital. He is in a critical condition from a poison he admitted taking with suicidal intent.

"On Christmas eve I was on my way home with my arms filled with toys and gifts and with nearly $50 in my pockets. I was held up by bandits near my home and the money and gifts were taken from me, the hold-up men escaping with me to the hospital."

"Then my wife was taken ill and was sent to a hospital, from which she was discharged only a few hours ago. "Then I lost my job. "Everywhere I met refusal. They had no work to give me. Disheartened and discouraged, with no money, and with my wife just out of the hospital—well, I just gave up. That's all. I couldn't help it."

SEEKS DEATH TO END WOES

Man Was Robbed, Wife Became Ill and Then He Lost Job Misfortune pursued Floyd Selmer, thirty-four years old, 103 North Vogdes street, so persistently within the last three weeks that he became discouraged and last night attempted to commit suicide.

He was found staggering at Twenty-first and Clearfield streets by a patrolman, who sent him to the Samaritan Hospital. He is in a critical condition from a poison he admitted taking with suicidal intent.

CARMEN PLEASED; BACK WAGES NEAR

P. R. T. Employees Rejoice at Promise of $75 or More February 1

DROP IN PAY PREDICTED

General gratification was expressed today among the carmen of the Philadelphia Railroad Transit Co. as the result of the announcement last night by Thomas E. Mitten, president of the company, that on February 1 they will receive back wages from $40 to $100.

Since the fare-increase schedule became effective November 1, the carmen and others have been receiving wages based on the increased pay rate granted last May.

In financial circles today it was generally believed that elimination of discord between E. T. Stotesbury and Mr. Mitten was indicated by the fact that credit was extended to make possible payment of the back wages on February 1.

Mr. Mitten said the back wages could not have been paid from the company's earnings until May 1.

REGISTERED MAIL STOLEN

$50,000 Pouch Disappears From Chicago and Northwestern Train Chicago, Jan. 14.—(By A. P.)—Postal inspectors today were investigating the mysterious disappearance of a registered mail pouch, said to have contained $50,000 in cash, jewelry and money orders. They said it was checked in when it was placed on a Chicago and Northwestern train at Milwaukee and checked off when it arrived in Chicago yesterday, but after it disappeared.